Media Services

Any member of the office can answer your questions or direct you to someone who can, so please feel free to call us at (318) 257-3144.

Web Page

Louisiana Tech's official athletics web page has up-to-date information on all of Tech's varsity programs. Please visit LATechSports.com today.

CollegePressBox.com

CollegePressBox.com is the official media website for Conference USA and Louisiana Tech football. Access and download weekly game notes, quotes, statistics, media guides, headshots, logos and more for Louisiana Tech, Conference USA and each of its member schools. Login information will be distributed to accredited media or you can apply for a password by sending an e-mail to password@collegepressbox.com.

Working Credentials

Requests for press box seating should be made directly to the LA Tech Athletic Communications Office before Monday of game week. Admission to the press box of Joe Aillet Stadium is by credential only and credentials are distributed to working members of the media only – no family members or friends. Passes will be mailed if time allows; otherwise, left at Will Call on the stadium's west side at the press box elevator entrance.

Radio/TV Policy

Permission to broadcast from Joe Aillet Stadium and Independence Stadium must be obtained through the LA Tech Athletic Communications Department. The visiting team's official network will be provided free broadcast rights. For information concerning courtesy phone lines, contact Patrick Walsh at (318) 257-5305. Additional phone lines can be obtained by calling BellSouth directly at 1-800-866-6701 (outside Louisiana). The third level of the LA Tech Press Box offers an unobstructed view for television cameras.

Press Parking

Parking is limited and passes will be issued on a priority basis. The Joe Aillet Stadium press parking lot is located on the southwest corner of the stadium, just off West Alabama Avenue.

Press Box Services

All vital game information is provided by the LA Tech Stat Crew. An internal press box PA keeps members of the media informed of each play. Post-game quotes from head coach Skip Holtz and selected players, as well as the visiting coach, are also available. Telephone and high-speed internet lines are available for media usage and a pre-game meal is served at each home game starting approximately two hours before kickoff. Level one provides working space for print and electronic media and the LA Tech Stat Crew along with LA Tech and visiting athletic director booths. Level two provides space for cameras and houses home and visiting radio booths and coaches' booths.

Directions to Joe Aillet Stadium

Will Call

TEDDY ALLEN | MALCOLM BUTLER | DAVE NITZ | BENNIE THORNELL

Louisiana Tech fans can tune into the LA Tech Sports Network this fall for all live game broadcasts for the Bulldogs' 12-game schedule as well as 12 editions of Inside Bulldog Football with Skip Holtz.

For the 17th straight year, the LA Tech Sports Network will team up with KXKZ-FM (107.5) Ruston as the flagship station for Tech Athletics.

In addition to KXKZ, the LA Tech Sports Network will consist of KNBB-FM 97.7 (Ruston), KPCH-FM 99.3 (Ruston), WUBR-AM 910 (Baton Rouge), KRMD 1340 AM (Shreveport), KRMD 100.7 FM (Shreveport), KVCL-FM 92.1 (Winnfield), KJVC-FM 92.7 (Mansfield), KDBS-AM 1410 (Alexandria) and KTKC-FM 92.9 (Springhill).

All Bulldog football games can also be accessed online (audio for all games) by purchasing a subscription to LA Tech All-Access on LATechSports.com. Cost of a subscription to LA Tech All-Access is only $9.95 per month or $79.95 for the entire year (which includes all live broadcasts for all of Tech's athletic teams).

This fall all of the Tech football broadcasts can be heard on the LA Tech Sports Network as Dave Nitz, Teddy Allen, Malcolm Butler and Bennie Thornell comprise the broadcast team.

Nitz enters his 41st year of calling Bulldog football games as the legendary "Voice of the Bulldogs" has been calling games since 1974 along with Tech men's basketball and baseball contests. Nitz, who was named the 2009 Louisiana Sportscaster of the Year by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association, was also recognized in 2010 as he called his 2,000th Louisiana Tech sporting event.

Allen enters his fifth season behind the mic as he will serve as the color commentator for all 12 contests. The 1982 Tech journalism graduate is a well-known, highly-read award-winning Louisiana journalist having covered local sports for Shreveport, Monroe and New Orleans dailies from 1984 until 1990. He has written columns for the News-Star and the Times for the past 23 years.

Butler is in his 17th year at Louisiana Tech and this will mark his third season reporting from the sidelines at football games. The "Voice of the Lady Techsters" during basketball season, Butler finished second place (behind Nitz) in the LSWA College Radio Play-by-Play category in 2013 and in third place in 2015. He has broadcast more than 500 women's basketball games – including 15 NCAA Tournmaent games.

Thornell begins his 26th year as a member of the LA Tech Sports Network as he will serve as the statistician for the majority of Bulldog football games this year while also moving down to the sideline for a selected number of contests. A 1969 graduate of the Louisiana Tech marketing department, Thornell began his association with the LA Tech Sports Network in 1990 as the statistician before moving down to the sideline in 1996 where he has spent the majority of his time.

The LA Tech Sports Network team will host a 90-minute pregame show prior to each kickoff and a 30-minute post-game show. Tech Gameday, a 90-minute pre-pregame show, will also air prior to each home contest at Joe Aillet Stadium live from Tailgate Alley.

For more information on the LA Tech Sports Network, call Lane Robertson or Logan Lewis at 318-257-5331.

Daily Media Availability

The following is a general weekly schedule of media availability for the Louisiana Tech football team. Members of the media are expected to adhere to these policies at all times. All interview requests should be made to Louisiana Tech Associate Director of Media Relations Patrick Walsh at least 24 hours in advance. All media availability times are subject to change. Please contact Patrick Walsh for any changes in the schedule. (Note: First year players are not available to the media unless by special request.)

Monday: LA Tech's weekly media luncheon starts with food served at noon and statements/interviews beginning around 12:30 p.m. A few players will also be made available. Head coach Skip Holtz's radio show airs from 6-7 p.m. live from the Dawg House in Ruston.

Tuesday: The last 30 minutes of practice are open to the media. Coaches and players are available following practice (first-year players not available). All video must be of individual players and not of team drills or formations.

Wednesday: The last 30 minutes of practice are open to the media. Coaches and players are available following practice (first-year players not available). All video must be of individual players and not of team drills or formations.

Thursday, Friday and Sunday: No availability.

Saturday: Postgame availability only. Members of the LA Tech Athletics Media Relations Staff will escort media representatives to the media room with five minutes remaining in the game. The Louisiana Tech locker room, home or away, is closed to the media at all times. Postgame interview requests should be submitted to Patrick Walsh before the five minute mark in the fourth quarter.

For games in Ruston, all Louisiana Tech postgame press conference will be held in the Jarrell Room located in the Davison Athletics Complex after each game following a 10-minute cooling off period. No interviews will be allowed on the field with players and/or coaches immediately following games. Coach Holtz and selected Louisiana Tech players will be available in the press conference following games. Opposing coaches will be available outside the visiting locker room following a 10-minute cooling off period.

Hill Oil's Inside Bulldog Football with Skip Holtz

Louisiana Tech head coach Skip Holtz will team up with the long-time "Voice of the Bulldogs" Dave Nitz for 12 Mondays during the season for the Inside Bulldog Football radio show.

The one-hour show will air on Mondays from 6-7 p.m. LIVE from the Dawg House Sports Grill in Ruston as all Tech fans are encouraged to attend the event in support of LA Tech football.

The show can also be heard each week on the LA Tech Sports Network on ESPN 97.7 FM and via the internet by purchasing a subscription for LA Tech All-Access at www.LATechSports.com as Nitz and Holtz will review the previous contest while previewing the upcoming game.

LA Tech players and coaches will be special guests on the show along with former alumni and other members of the LA Tech Athletics family.

LA Tech Daily Shows

Bulldog and Lady Techster fans can keep up with all of the news inside the athletic department each week by tuning in to listen to the LA Tech Daily Shows with Malcolm Butler and Dave Nitz.

This three-minute radio show which will air every weekday on the LA Tech Sports Network will feature news on games, upcoming events and much more.

WE ARE LOUISIANA TECH UNIVERSITY

WELCOME TO THE FAMILY

"Athletics is a central part of Louisiana Tech and an integral component of our efforts to elevate the institution's national standing. It is essential that we continue to focus on the success of our student-athletes and ensure that a winning athletics program is achieved with integrity and class."

-- Tech President Dr. Les Guice

THIS IS LOUISIANA TECH

MORE THAN 700 COMPANIES WORLDWIDE TRAVEL TO CAMPUS EACH YEAR TO RECRUIT LOUISIANA TECH GRADUATES

Dr. Les Guice became the 14th president in the history of Louisiana Tech University on July 1, 2013.

"Louisiana Tech has a really great foundation of excellence, and we're not starting from scratch by any means. We've got so many of the ingredients in place. My vision is to continue to progress Louisiana Tech in national prominence, but to turn that national prominence into things that bring benefit to North Louisiana, to our citizens of this state and to all of the students and stakeholders of the university."

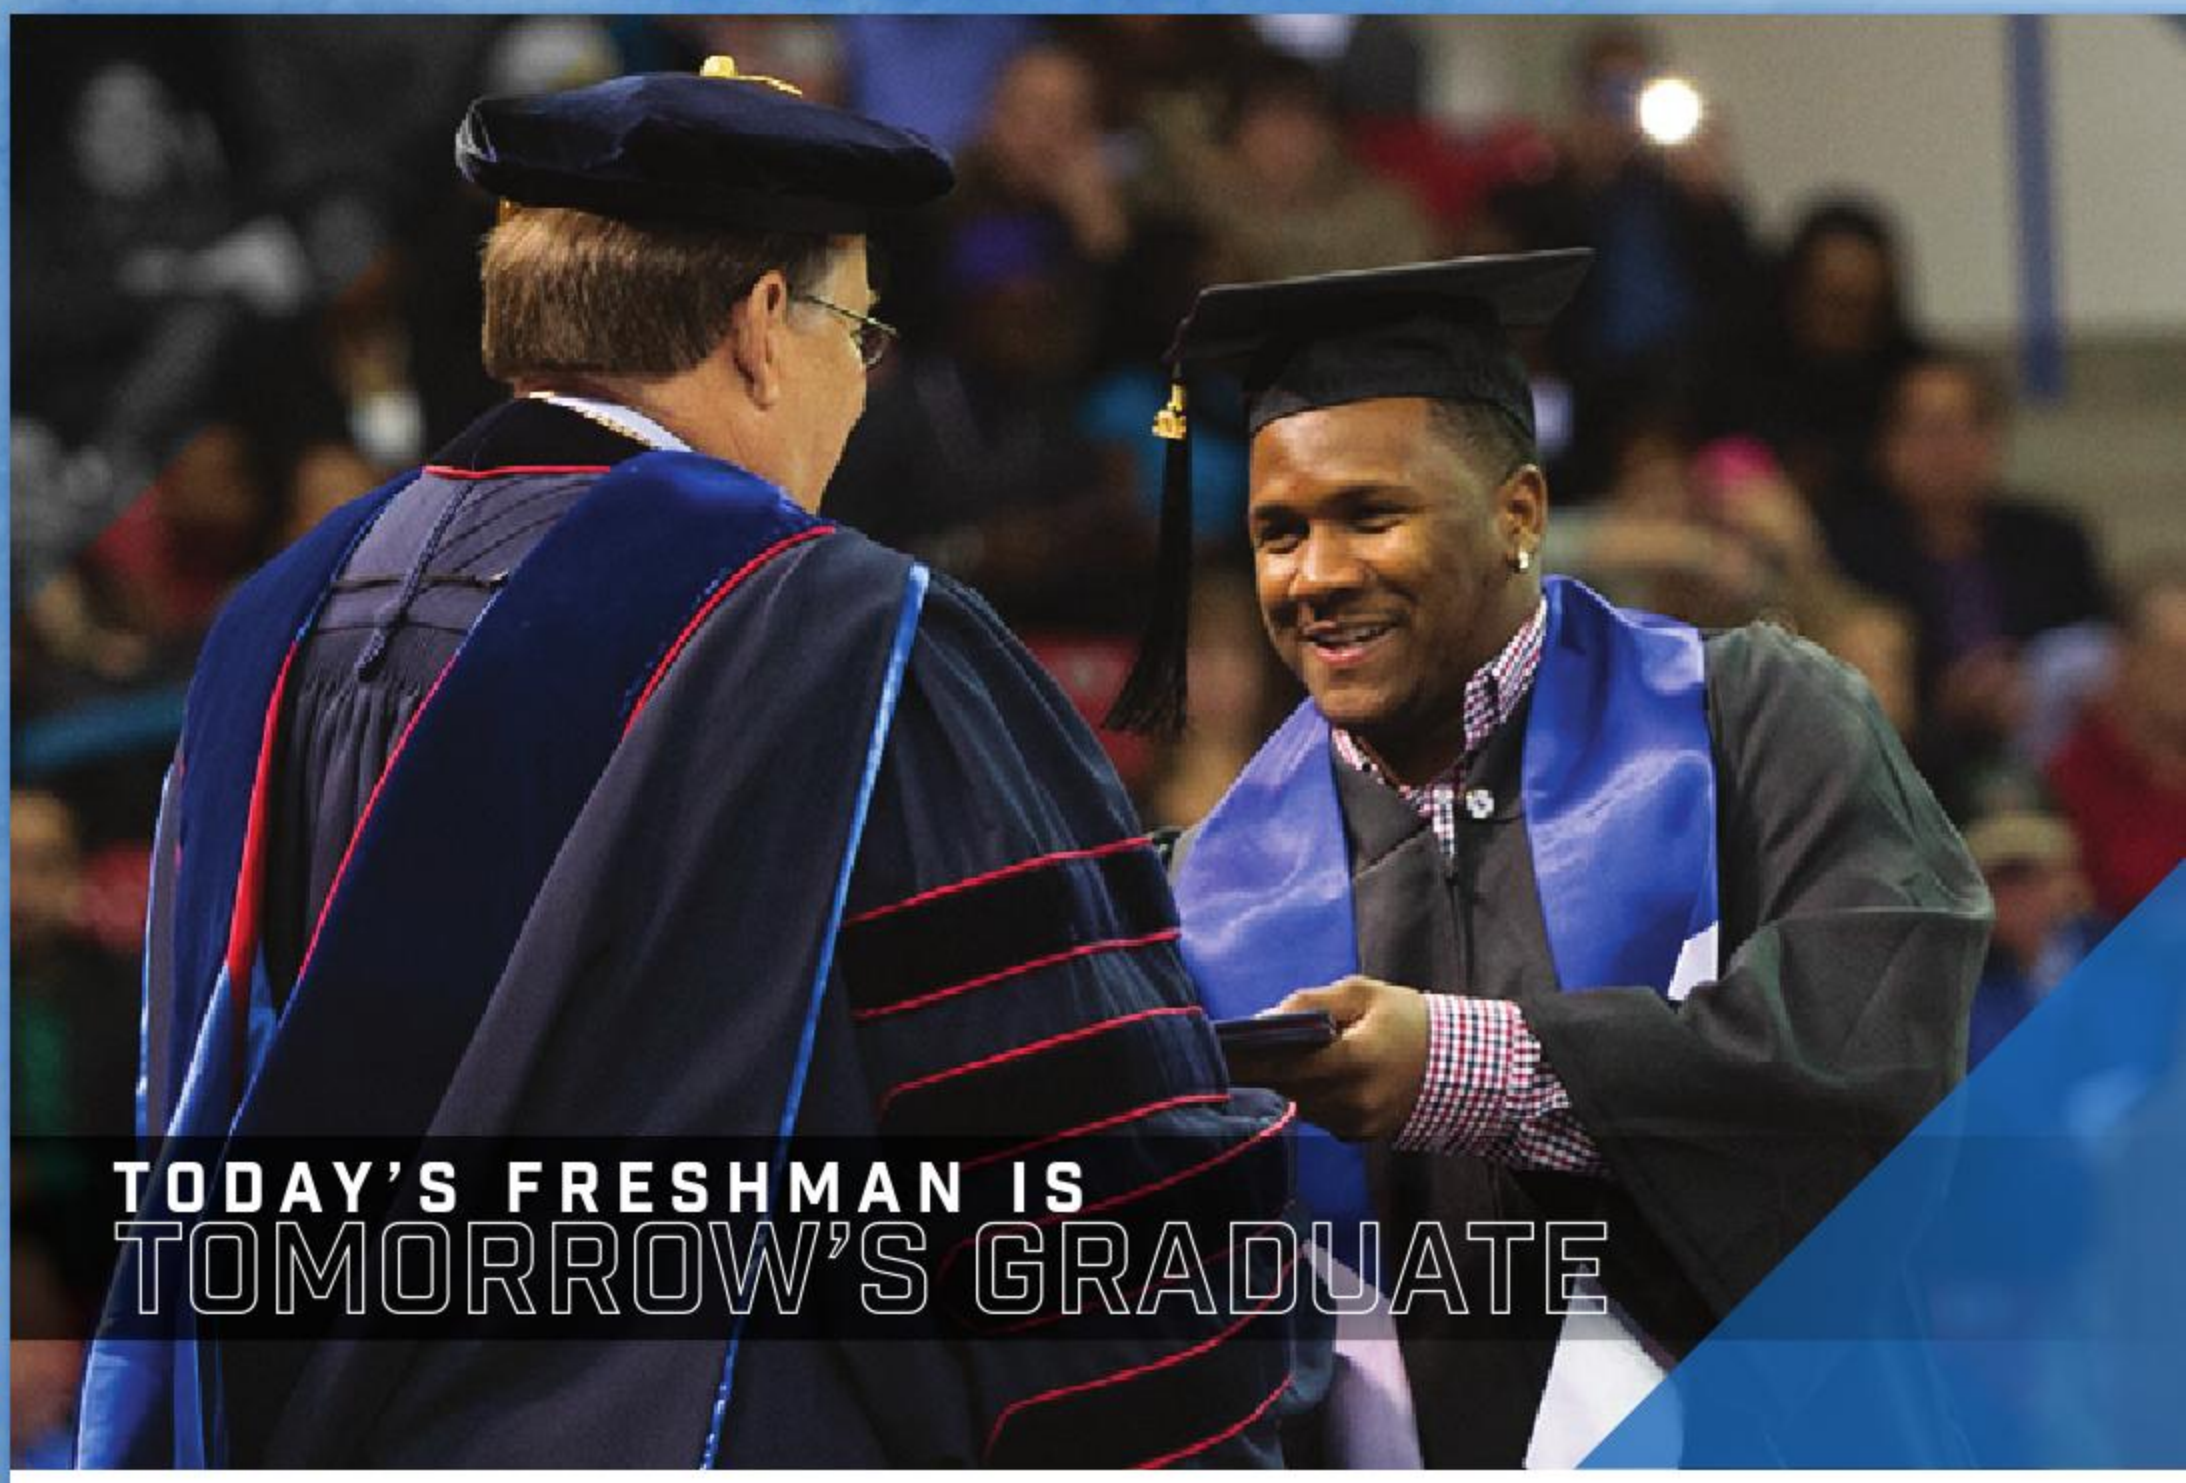
QUARTER SYSTEM - BIG ADVANTAGE FOR THE STUDENT-ATHLETE

Louisiana Tech has a unique advantage of being on the quarter system as opposed to the semester system. The quarter system provides significant advantages for the students:

- ☆ Lighter workload (take 3 classes instead of 5)
- ☆ Shorter academic sessions (12 weeks instead of 18)
- ☆ More frequent breaks during and between academic sessions
- ☆ More opportunities to withdraw or drop a class and still remain TOPS eligible

THIS IS BULLDOG COUNTRY



TODAY'S FRESHMAN IS TOMORROW'S GRADUATE

LOUISIANA TECH

- ☆ saw Kathryn Sloan (soccer) and Xavier Woods (football) earn Conference USA All-Academic honors.
- ☆ saw 27 student-athletes earn the C-USA Commissioner's Academic Medal.
- ☆ saw 124 student-athletes named to the C-USA Commissioner's Honor Roll.
- ☆ ranked second in the state of Louisiana among Division I football-playing public institutions with an 81 percent graduation success rate.

Louisiana Tech's student-athletes recorded an all-time high four-year graduation success rate of 80 percent, which was four percentage points better than the previous record-high of 76 percent.

LOUISIANA TECH

- ☆ boasts the University of Louisiana System's highest graduation rate at 53.9 percent.
- ☆ boasts the states fastest time to completion for first time baccalaureates at 4.4 years.
- ☆ boasts the ULS' highest average freshman ACT scores at 24.7.

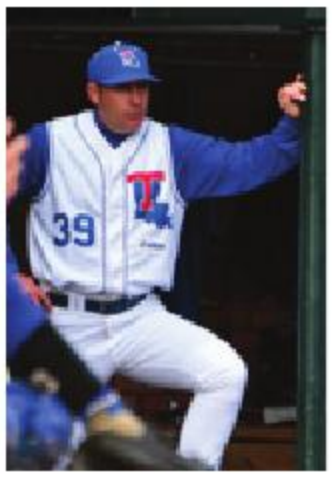
SUCCESS BREEDS SUCCESS

LOUISIANA TECH'S ATHLETIC DEPARTMENT:

- ☆ completed the $22 million south end zone facility, named the Davison Athletics Complex, which is set to open in late August with the 302-seat Club Level sold out.
- ☆ set a record 1,100 donors that donated $1,150,000 to LTAC last fiscal year while a total of $1.5 million unrestricted dollars were donated.
- ☆ saw a big jump in overall ticket sales for men's and women's basketball which increased by 73 percent and 50 percent, respectively.
- ☆ rolled out the blue carpet for the inaugural TECHSPY Awards held at Howard Auditorium, an ESPY-like event to help celebrate the past year's athletic achievements.



ON THE PLAYING FIELDS:

- ☆ Men's Basketball won the C-USA regular season title, the third straight league title for the program and the first outright title since 1999, and advanced to the NIT quarterfinals for a second straight year which included a victory at Texas A&M.
- ☆ Soccer head coach Kevin Sherry and star player Kathryn Sloan earned Louisiana Coach and Player of the Year honors in light of the team posting a 13-6-3 record and winning their first ever postseason match which advanced them to the C-USA Tournament semifinals.
- ☆ Tennis junior Alexandra Starkova was named First Team All-Conference USA, becoming the first Lady Techster in program history to be a three-time all-conference member.
- ☆ Baseball registered 10 more wins than the previous year under the direction of first-year head coach Greg Goff, an improvement that was the seventh most in program history, while also tying a Bulldog record with a 12-game non-conference winning streak.
- ☆ Bowling joined the newly-formed Southland Bowling League, along with seven other of the nation's top NCAA teams, with the immediate goals of competing at the highest level and automatically qualifying for the NCAA Championships in the near future.
- ☆ Volleyball outside hitter Rebecca Redgen earned Second Team All-Conference USA honors, becoming the first all-conference honoree for LA Tech since 2009.
- ☆ Golfer Victor Lange was named Conference USA's Golfer of the Year while also earning a bid to the NCAA Regionals for a second straight year, finishing in the top 25 during the three-round event.
- ☆ Football won the Conference USA West Division title and accepted a bid to play in the Zaxby's Heart of Dallas Bowl where they defeated Illinois, 35-18, to post the program's first bowl victory since 2008.
- ☆ Indoor track and field star Jarvis Gotch recorded the eighth longest jump in the world for the season and set the school record with a mark of 26-7.75 (8.12m) at the Vanderbilt Indoor Invitational.
- ☆ Outdoor track and field sprinter Charla Craddock (200m) and long jumper Jarrett Samuels received honorable mention All-America honors for their top-20 finishes at the NCAA Championships.
- ☆ Women's basketball received a flood of national media coverage, including feature pieces by 60-Minute Sports, USA Today, SI.com, ESPN.com, NBC Nightly News, ESPN SportsCenter, New York Times, CNN.com, and more in Tyler Summitt's first year as head coach.
- ☆ Softball head coach Mark Montgomery guided the Lady Techsters to a 31-win season, the most victories since 2008, and came three outs away from defeating WCWS participant LSU in Baton Rouge.

LA TECH IN THE COMMUNITY

MAKING A DIFFERENCE

LA Tech student-athletes annually volunteer more than 2,000 hours of community service each school year with all 16 Division I sanctioned programs involved in some aspect of giving back to the community. Community service projects range from interaction with local schools to the Boys and Girls Club to the Methodist Children's Home to the local retirement/nursing homes to the DART Pumpkin Patch.

Bulldog football hosts Pigskins & Pearls every year which raises thousands of dollars for the Boys and Girls Club.

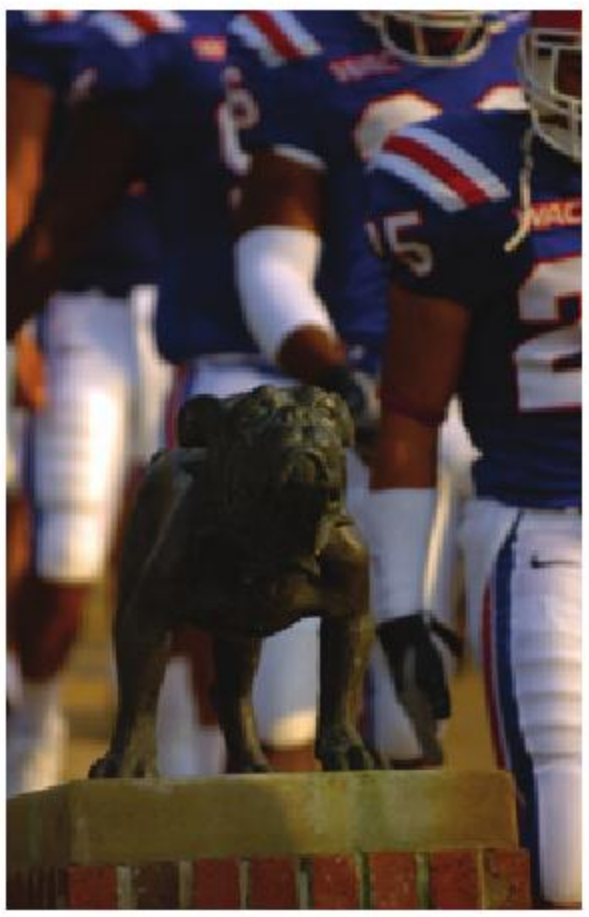
JOE AILLET STADIUM

The college football atmosphere in Ruston is filled with energetic fans, beautiful women and spicy food ... a taste of Louisiana and the South that all Bulldog fans have come to know and love.



SPIRIT OF '88

An icon at Joe Aillet Stadium, the Spirit of '88 is a bronze Bulldog statue located at the team's entrance to the field that commemorates the blood, sweat and tears of the 1988 Louisiana Tech team that blazed the path into Division I-A football. As a salute to that 1988 team, every Louisiana Tech player and coach touches the Spirit of '88 upon entrance onto the field prior to every home game.

THE WALK OF PRIDE

A gameday tradition at Joe Aillet Stadium, the Walk of Pride is where Bulldog fans line alongside Tailgate Alley and welcome the players as Tech arrives at Joe Aillet Stadium approximately two hours prior to kickoff.

DAWGZILLA

The 1,400 square foot high definition video board – one of the largest in C-USA – has improved the fans' gameday experiences at Joe Aillet Stadium.

ESPN IS IN THE HOUSE!

ESPN Radio produces a 2-hour pre-game show live from Tailgate Alley for every Bulldog home game. The talent analyzes the contest while conducting interviews with representatives from both teams.

BAND OF PRIDE

Led by one of the all-time great band directors in Jim Robken, Louisiana Tech's Band of Pride brings the true sound of college football to Ruston with pre-game, halftime and post-game performances.

TAILGATING

Over the last decade, tailgating on game days at Joe Aillet Stadium has become the thing to do as Bulldog fans donned in blue start firing up the grills in preparation for kickoff. Bar-B-Q cook-offs, face painting, Tailgate Alley, the Kids Zone and all-around family fun exists for Bulldog fans of all ages.

THE BLUE

Louisiana Tech's super-rabid student organization that paint themselves blue from head to toe on game day helping make Joe Aillet Stadium a tough place for visitors to play.

- ☆ The current phase in continuing the "Quest for Excellence" and the centerpiece of Louisiana Tech Athletics' capital campaign is the construction of the Davison Athletics Complex which will close the south end of Joe Aillet Stadium.
- ☆ The three-story, 70,000-square-foot-plus facility signifies the University's commitment to putting a stronghold on its place as a top tier institution.
- ☆ The $20-million plus facility will benefit all of Louisiana Tech's student-athletes as it will include a new state-of-the-art strength and conditioning complex utilized by all 16 of the University's athletic programs.
- ☆ The new weight room is more than twice the square footage of the existing one with double height space maximizing natural light, and it will include a field view of Joe Aillet Stadium as well as a supplement and nutrition bar.
- ☆ The second story of the facility will include the football coaches' offices as well as team and position meeting rooms.
- ☆ The 143-seat capacity, theatre-style meeting room will include state-of-the-art sound and video equipment and will be used for team meetings as well as athletic department press conferences and other events.
- ☆ The club level will include luxury premium seating options with 302 chair back seats, multi-functional dining space seating up to 360, a private dining room with field view, and a full service commercial kitchen.

"I am excited about the impact this facility is going to have on our campus and our entire region. Through the leadership of the committee headed by Steve Davison and Tommy McClelland, I believe this first phase of the south end zone project will establish a strong foundation for further expansion of our facilities and enrichment of the Louisiana Tech experience for all of our students, fans and guests. There is still much more to do in achieving our vision for 'Quest for Excellence,' but this is an exciting milestone and an important step in reaching our goals." – Tech President Les Guice

"We know that this project is vitally important to our student-athletes, our student body and our fans. Through a lot of hard work by a lot of people we are on schedule for the actual completion of this state-of-the-art facility by August of 2015. It will be a game changer for our athletic department and student-athletes in so many ways."
– Tech Athletics Director Tommy McClelland

DENNIS MORRIS' two-yard TD reception on the final play of the first half against LSU in Tiger Stadium in 2009 was a Top 10 Play of the Day on ESPN.

BIG WINS, GREAT PERFORMANCES, SPECTACULAR PLAYS

LOUISIANA TECH'S football program has experienced numerous highs during the course of its 100-plus year history, claiming 25 conference titles, numerous bowl berths and a plethora of All-Americans and NFL players.

From the very first win in the program's history (a 6-0 victory over LSU in 1904) to winning the 2011 WAC Championship, Louisiana Tech football has always made its fans proud.

And since making the move from I-AA to I-A in 1989, Louisiana Tech has proven time after time it belongs among the big boys of college football defeating the likes of Alabama (twice), California, Michigan State, Mississippi State (twice), Ole Miss and Oklahoma State since the mid 90s.

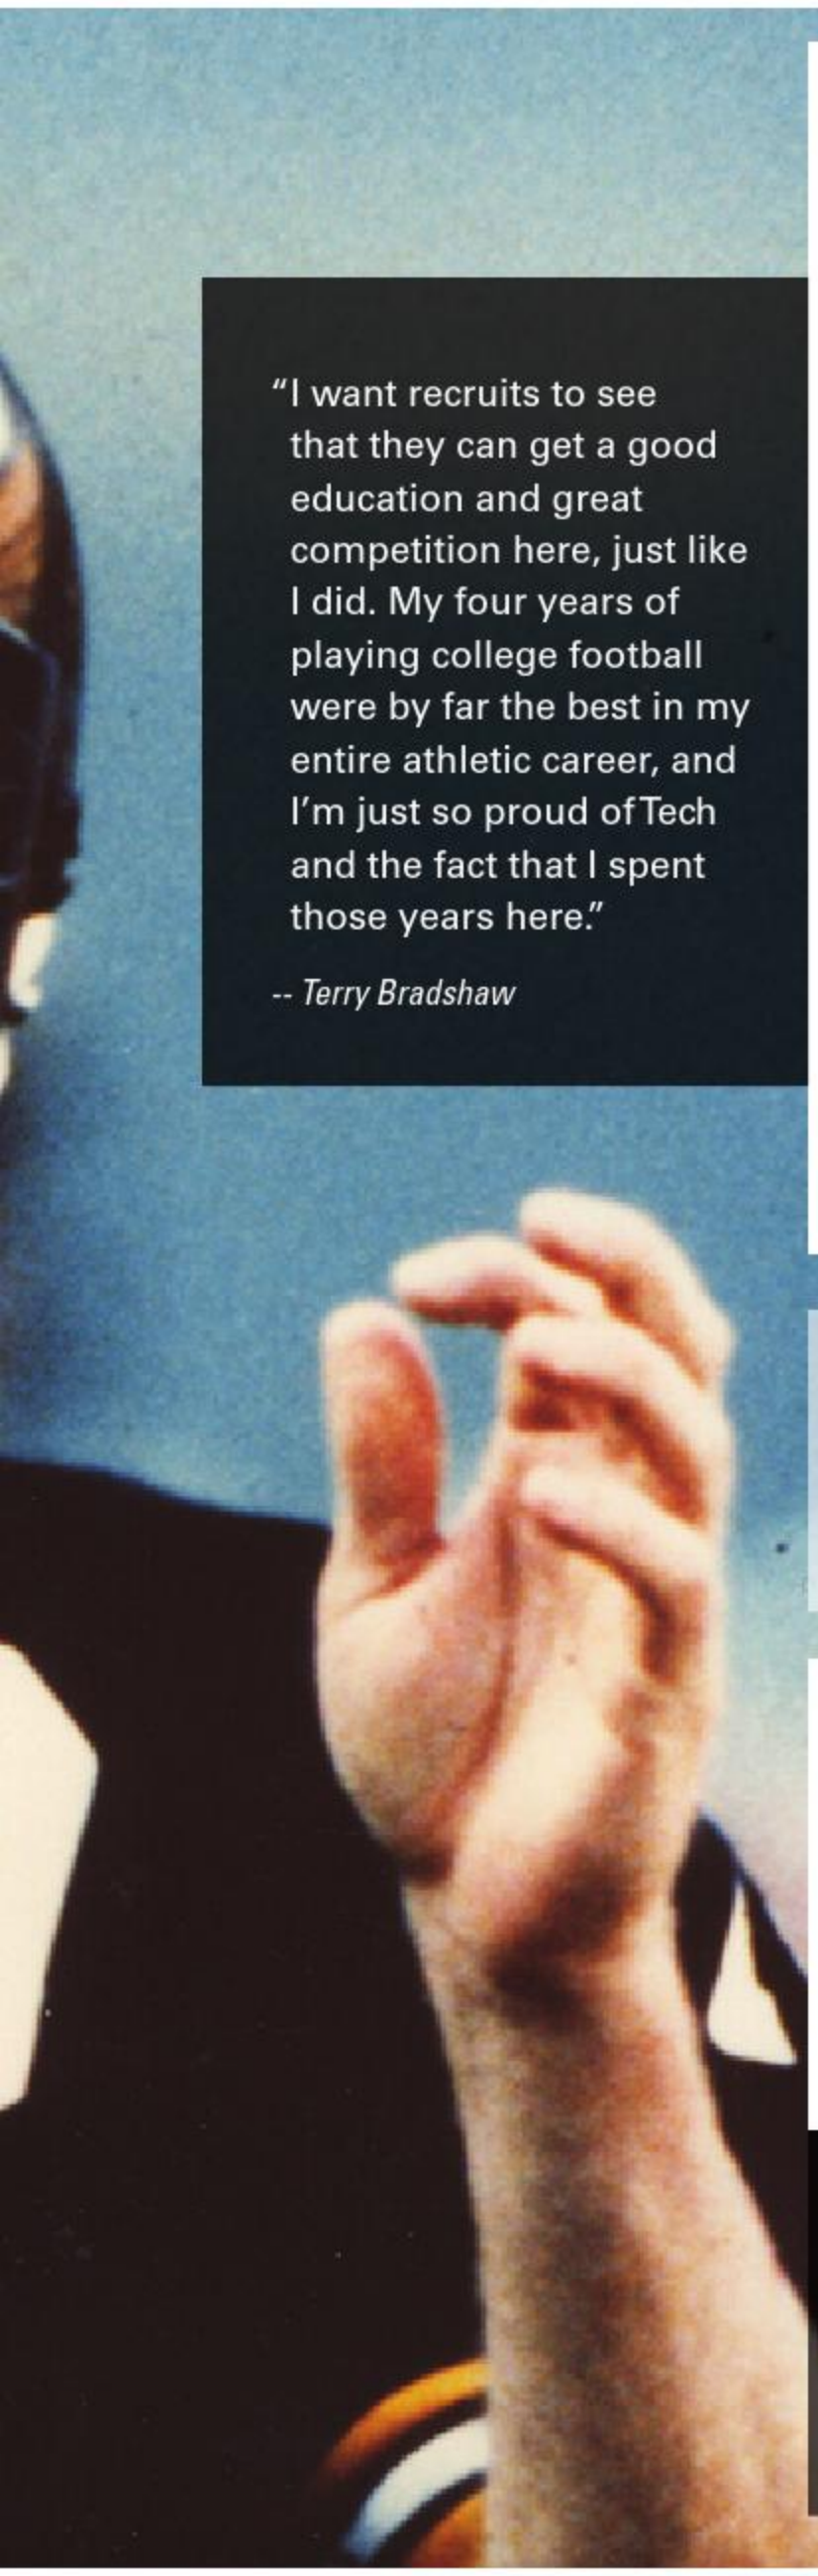
LOUISIANA TECH LEGEND TERRY BRADSHAW

LOUISIANA TECH LEGEND

Terry Bradshaw, one of only two quarterbacks in NFL history to win four Super Bowls, donated priceless items of personal memorabilia to his alma mater. He also serves as one of the chairman for the Quest For Excellence campaign.

- ☆ Super Bowl championship rings from Super Bowls IX, X, XIII, XIV
- ☆ Miniature replica trophies from the four Super Bowls
- ☆ Professional Football Hall of Fame bust
- ☆ College Football and Professional Football Hall of Fame rings
- ☆ Helmet and jersey from Super Bowl victory

All of these items are secured and on display at the Davison Athletics Complex, home of the Bulldog football program.



"I want recruits to see that they can get a good education and great competition here, just like I did. My four years of playing college football were by far the best in my entire athletic career, and I'm just so proud of Tech and the fact that I spent those years here."

-- Terry Bradshaw

FOX NFL Today Show host TERRY BRADSHAW, who returns to his alma mater every April to play in a golf fundraiser bearing his name, addresses the local media about his excitement over the direction of the Bulldog football program and the University.

Terry Bradshaw continues to support his alma mater, currently serving as a co-chairman for the Quest for Excellence capital campaign that is raising $20 million to elevate Tech's athletic facilities.

- Grant Williams — New England Patriots (Super Bowl XXXVI)
- Tramon Williams — Green Bay Packers (Super Bowl XLV)

NFL CHAMPIONS

Before the Super Bowl existed, formerTech players were still winning championships. Tech has had three former players go on to win four NFL Championships.

- Cloyce Box — Detroit Lions (1952 & 53)
- Caleb Martin — Chicago Cardinals (1947)
- Leo Sanford — Baltimore Colts (1958)

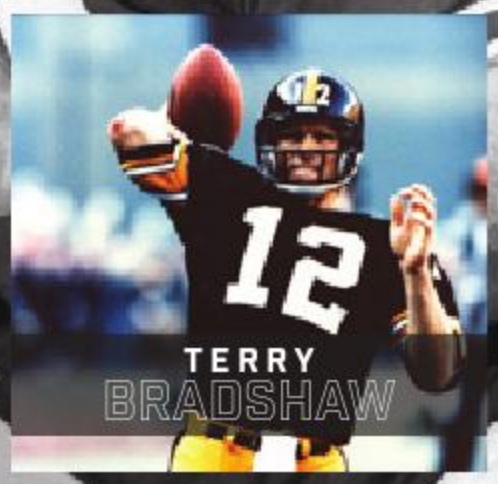
QUARTERBACK UNIVERSITY

LOUISIANA TECH has a long history of producing professional quarterbacks, including Hall of Famers Terry Bradshaw, Matt Dunigan, Mickey Slaughter and Tim Rattay. Most recently, Tech has boasted two NFL quarterbacks in Luke McCown and Tim Rattay.

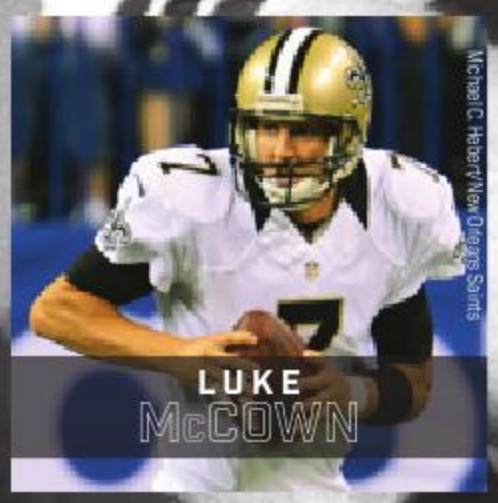


TERRY BRADSHAW is one of only two quarterbacks to win four Super Bowl titles as the Blonde Bomber led the Pittsburgh Steelers during the 1970s and 80s. He is a member of the NFL and College Football Halls of Fame.

MATT DUNIGAN was inducted into the Canadian Football League Football Hall of Fame in 2006 after a stellar 14-year professional career. He finished his career with 43,857 passing yards and 306 touchdowns.

MICKEY SLAUGHTER played for the Denver Broncos from 1963 through 1966 after being selected as the 50th overall pick in the 1963 draft. He is a member of the Louisiana Tech Hall of Fame.

TIM RATTAY spent nine years in the NFL with the San Francisco 49ers, Tampa Bay Buccaneers and the Arizona Cardinals following a record-setting career at Louisiana Tech. Rattay ended his Bulldog career ranked in the Top 5 in NCAA history in passing yards and total offense.



LUKE McCOWN begins his 12th season in the NFL, his third with the New Orleans Saints. McCown was one of the most prolific passers in NFL history, ending his career ranked in the Top 10 in NCAA history in passing yards, total offense and passing touchdowns.

In just his second season at the helm of the Bulldogs, Holtz enjoyed a five-win improvement from his inaugural campaign as the 15-year coaching veteran led LA Tech to a 9-5 record and a Conference USA West Division title in the team's second year as a member of the league. Holtz and the Bulldogs capped off the 2014 season with a 35-18 win over Big Ten opponent Illinois in the Zaxby's Heart of Dallas Bowl at Cotton Bowl Stadium on Dec. 26, 2014.

In 2014, Holtz engineered an offense that was ranked fourth most improved with an average of 37.4 points per game, while Louisiana Tech was the national leader in points off of turnovers on the defensive side of the ball.

In his first season, Holtz inherited a team that lost 35 seniors with seven being invited to NFL camps (two through the NFL Draft) and brought together the team as it entered a new conference (Conference USA) under a new President and new Athletics Director, going 4-8.

Holtz had spent the past three seasons as the head football coach at the University of South Florida. He has also served as the head coach at the University of Connecticut and East Carolina University where he won back-to-back Conference USA titles with the Pirates in 2008 and 2009. He also led his teams to five consecutive post-season bowl games between 2006 and 2010.

"I am extremely excited about the opportunity to have a coach of the caliber and experience of Skip Holtz leading our football program into the future," said Reneau during the introductory press conference. "The success he has had throughout his career as a head coach is solid and will offer a unique opportunity for our student-athletes to learn from one of the best."

Holtz was hired following a national search led by then Louisiana Tech President-Elect Dr. Les Guice.

"Coach Holtz is a talented coach with a solid record of success and experience," said Guice. "He has great knowledge of the game, tremendous character, exceptional leadership abilities, and a professional approach that will serve him well as head coach at Louisiana Tech.

Holtz has participated in 16 postseason games in his coaching career, including eight as a head coach and eight as an assistant coach. Of the eight games as head coach, six occurred in the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) and two occurred in the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS).

In his first season at South Florida, Holtz promptly led the Bulls to their fifth consecutive eight-win season, making them one of just 15 teams nationally that had won at least eight games during that time span and one of only 10 teams in BCS leagues to accomplish the feat. In addition, USF played in its sixth consecutive bowl game, a 31-26 victory over Clemson in the Meineke Car Care Bowl. At the time, USF was one of just six programs nationally that had reached postseason play in each year as a BCS league member. In addition, with the victory, USF was one of just four programs that had won three consecutive bowl games.

In 2010, USF accomplished numerous firsts under Holtz. The Bulls won at Cincinnati and at Louisville for the first time in program history and beat Rutgers in Tampa for the first time. In addition, USF traveled to Miami and defeated the Hurricanes in an overtime thriller, 23-20, marking the Bulls first win over Miami in program history.

The 2011 season showed major improvement on the field, if not in the record, as USF finished 5-7 thanks to numerous heartbreaking defeats. After starting 4-0, including a huge win at Notre Dame to open the season, the Bulls dropped six of their final seven games by a combined 28 points or 4.7 points per game. Included in those six losses were four 3-point defeats, three of which came on the final play of the game. USF was the only team in the nation that lost three games at the final gun.

Looking passed the wins and losses, the Bulls improved in virtually every statistical category, especially on offense. USF improved its national ranking in total offense 75 spots from 2010 to 2011, the largest jump of any school in the country. The biggest improvement came in the passing game, where USF improved by 85 yards per game. Only two teams saw a greater jump in the passing offense national rankings. In addition, the Bulls improved 39 spots in rushing offense. Defensively, the Bulls finished second nationally in TFL and fourth in sacks and in the top 40 in run defense, total defense and scoring defense.

Holtz went to USF after five seasons at East Carolina, where he won back-to-back Conference USA Championships in 2008 and `09 and finished with a 38-27 record. Holtz also spent five years as head coach at Connecticut, where he amassed a 34-23 record.

Holtz led ECU to unprecedented heights, including four-straight winning seasons, a quartet of bowl game appearances and the back-to-back league crowns.

A once-proud program, Holtz quickly revived the Pirates, which had stumbled to record just three wins in a 25-game period in the two-plus seasons prior to his arrival in 2005.

He promptly instilled a sense of pride, commitment, character and discipline into a Pirate team that went on to reward its loyal and passionate fan base with the school's first-ever run of four consecutive bowl invitations and the program's first four-year streak of winning seasons since the 1970s.

The drastic turnaround at ECU, which included a 7-6 finish in 2006, an 8-5 ledger in 2007, a 9-5 mark in 2008 and another nine-win campaign in 2009, coincided with dramatic school-record attendance increases at Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium.

While the initial success in 2005 relied heavily on a wide-open offensive assault, it was a no-nonsense and fundamentally-sound defensive effort that launched the Pirates back into college football's competitive arena a year later.

Holtz followed by using a combination of both in 2007, offering a well-balanced offense and a run-stopping, ball-hawking defense to lead East Carolina to its highest Conference USA win total in school history at that time. The Pirates ended up just one victory shy of earning a berth in the league championship game, despite playing one of the toughest schedules in program history, which was loaded with four Bowl Championship Series members.

In addition to guiding ECU to its first postseason win since 2000 with a 41-38 victory over No. 24 Boise State in the Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl, Holtz fine-tuned the efforts of running back Chris Johnson, who was college football's national statistical champion in all-purpose yards. Johnson also became the program's second first-round draft choice (first since 1992) when the Tennessee Titans selected him with their initial pick in April, 2008. Johnson went on to be named the 2009 NFL Offensive Player of the Year.

In 2008, Holtz earned Conference USA Coach of the Year honors, while leading the Pirates to a spot in the Conference USA Championship game. ECU defeated Tulsa to claim the program's first conference title in 32 years, earning a bid to the AutoZone Liberty Bowl. During that season, Holtz led the Pirates to a No. 14 ranking in the polls and victories over No. 17 Virginia Tech and No. 8 West Virginia.

Holtz continued his success at East Carolina in 2009, leading the Pirates to a second consecutive Conference USA Championship. They became the first team in C-USA Championship game history to post consecutive victories.

Prior to his time in Greenville, Holtz spent six seasons at South Carolina. He wore several hats during his tenure with the Gamecocks, coaching the quarterbacks his first four seasons, before handling the tight ends in 2003 and then returning to guide the signal-callers in `04. He displayed his all-around abilities as a coach in working closely with the Gamecock offense in addition to handling a variety of duties as assistant head coach under his father, the legendary Lou Holtz.

While at South Carolina, Holtz was recognized as an Assistant Coach-of-the-Year in 2001 by the All-American Football Foundation. That year, the Gamecocks ranked second in the Southeastern Conference in rushing offense, and under Holtz's tutelage, senior Phil Petty went on to lead South Carolina to 17 victories in his last 23 starts, including back-to-back Outback Bowl wins over Ohio State in 2001 (24-7) and `02 (31-28).

Holtz came to South Carolina after a successful five-year stint as head coach at fellow BIG EAST school, Connecticut. While at UConn, he led the Huskies to their best season in school history, up to that point, in 1998 and was recognized as one of the top young coaching talents in the country.

Holtz has been credited for developing high-powered and prolific offenses throughout his coaching career. During his last season at Connecticut, he led the Huskies to a then-school-record 10 victories and an appearance in the quarterfinal round of the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs. His team ranked 11th nationally in scoring offense and averaged nearly 36 points per game.

During his five-year tenure as head coach at UConn, Holtz guided the Huskies' program to national top 25 rankings the last four seasons and unprecedented success in the school's 100-year football history, which provided a firm foundation for the school's eventual move to the FBS level in 2002.

The success Holtz earned on the field at Connecticut during his first head coaching tenure was matched by his involvement in the community as a successful speaker, clinician and humanitarian - often donating his time and effort to many charitable and educational organizations. He served as the honorary chairman for Camp Courant in Hartford for four consecutive years, helping fund-raising efforts to send more than 1,000 under-privileged area children to recreational and educational camps during the summer. Holtz was also actively involved with the American Diabetes Association, serving as an honorary chairman and member of the Board of Trustees for two years.

Holtz was honored in 1996 with the National Football Foundation Man-of-the-Year Award and was a member of the Foundation's ethics committee. He was also the recipient of the Franciscan Life Center's St. Francis Award in 1995, an honor given for his dedication and support of Christian values and outstanding athletic achievements.

Prior to taking the head coaching job at UConn, Holtz worked on the offensive staff under his father at Notre Dame. He spent four years at Notre Dame and served as the Fighting Irish's offensive coordinator during the 1992 and `93 seasons.

During those years, Holtz was in charge of one of the country's most potent offensive attacks - a period in which the Irish compiled a 21-2-1 record. The 1992 Notre Dame offense ranked third nationally in total offense, averaging better than 470 yards per game. The 1993 Irish offense, despite the loss of All-America running backs Jerome Bettis and Reggie Brooks, ended the season ranked No. 9 in scoring offense (36.6 points per game). During Holtz's two seasons as offensive coordinator at Notre Dame, the Irish offense averaged nearly 37 points per game.

Holtz has also served on the coaching staffs at Florida State and Colorado State. While serving on Bobby Bowden's FSU staff in 1987 and `88, the Seminoles rolled to a 22-2 record, captured the Sugar and Fiesta Bowl titles and earned a No. 2 and No. 3 national rank, respectively.

In all, he has been involved in eight New Year's Day bowl games during his coaching career. Prior to his stint at South Carolina, the overall record of teams he had been associated with as an assistant coach was an impressive 67-15-2.

Born March 12, 1964, in Willimantic, Conn., Louis "Skip" Holtz spent the first two years of his life in Connecticut, while his father served as the top football assistant on the Huskies' staff from 1964-65. He was a prep quarterback at Fayetteville (Ark.) High School, while his father was the head coach at the University of Arkansas.

He attended Holy Cross Junior College in South Bend, Ind., for two years before transferring to Notre Dame in 1984. Holtz earned his bachelor's degree in business management in 1986 and was a football letterwinner for the Irish that same year, appearing in all 11 games as a special teams member and backup flanker.

Skip and his wife, Jennifer, are the parents of three children: Louis Leo (Trey) Holtz III, Chad Fitzgerald Holtz and Hailey Elizabeth Holtz.

In January 2015, Blake Baker was promoted to defensive coordinator and linebackers coach for Louisiana Tech after joining the LA Tech family the previous year as the safeties coach.

Baker took over the defensive responsibilities following former coordinator Manny Diaz's departed for the same position at Mississippi State in January.

In his first season with the Bulldogs, Baker helped lead LA Tech to a 35-18 victory over Illinois in the Zaxby's Heart of Dallas Bowl and a Conference USA West Division title with a 9-5 overall record in 2014. The Bulldog defense led the nation in 2014 with 26 interceptions and 42 turnovers gained under Baker's guidance.

Baker came to LA Tech after spending one month at Boise State in a non-coaching role and after helping guide Arkansas State to a Sun Belt Conference co-championship and a GoDaddy Bowl win over Ball State in 2013. He coached a squad that was ranked third in the Sun Belt in scoring defense (26.2 points per game) and third in pass defense (232.9 yards per game). He coached All-Sun Belt Conference Second Team honoree Sterling Young who registered 80 tackles, two interceptions, two pass break-ups and three fumbles recovered on the season.

"I am very excited to have Blake Baker join our staff," Holtz said. "Blake will be a great fit with our staff and University, having worked with [defensive coordinator] Manny Diaz before and having a strong familiarity with the state of Louisiana. He is a tireless worker, whether it is coaching kids on the field to success or recruiting kids to the program. He will be a great asset to our coaching staff and the LA Tech family."

Baker went to A-State after spending 2010 through 2012 as a defensive graduate assistant coach at the University of Texas. He worked closely with the both the Longhorns' linebackers and defensive backs, two position groups that included eight All-Big 12 selections over the last two years. He also helped coach All-American linebacker and Lott Trophy finalist Emmanuel Acho and cornerback Quandre Diggs, the 2011 Big 12 Defensive Freshman of the Year.

He was a part of the Texas coaching staff in 2011 that led the Longhorns to a No. 11 national ranking in total defense, yielding just 306.8 yards per game. The 2011 Longhorns' defense also ranked among the top 20 teams in the nation in rush defense (96.2 ypg), pass efficiency defense (111.0) and tackles for loss (7.4 pg).

Texas won 17 games in Baker's two years on the coaching staff, including a 21-10 victory over California in the 2011 Bridgepoint Education Holiday Bowl and a 31-27 win against Oregon State in the 2012 Valero Alamo Bowl. Baker not only worked with Harsin the last two years at Texas, but also with current Longhorns head coach Mack Brown and Florida head coach Will Muschamp during his tenure at the school.

Prior to joining the Texas staff, Baker spent the 2009 season as a wide receivers coach at Clear Springs High School in Houston, Texas, before taking over duties as linebackers coach the following spring.

The Houston native was a four-year letterman and three-year starter at Tulane from 2000-04, helping lead the Green Wave to a win in the 2002 Hawaii Bowl. He earned his bachelor's degree from Tulane in 2008.

Baker is married to the former Roslyn Jones of Mandeville, La., and the couple has one daughter.

"HE IS A TIRELESS WORKER, WHETHER IT BE COACHING KIDS ON THE FIELD TO SUCCESS OR RECRUITING KIDS TO THE PROGRAM. HE WILL BE A GREAT ASSET TO OUR COACHING STAFF AND THE LA TECH FAMILY."

Ronnie Bradford enters his third season as the defensive backs coach and special teams coordinator at Louisiana Tech after joining the staff in January 2013.

In 2014, Bradford and the Bulldogs captured the Zaxby's Heart of Dallas Bowl title after a 35-18 victory over Illinois at Cotton Bowl Stadium in Dallas. That season, Bradford helped lead LA Tech to a 9-5 overall record and Conference USA West Division title, as the Bulldog defense ranked in the Top 10 nationally in interceptions (1st), turnovers gained (1st), fumbles recovered (5th) and defensive touchdowns (9th).

In his first year in Ruston, Bradford guided talented group of cornerbacks including two - Adairius Barnes and Bryson Abraham - that recorded multiple interceptions in games during the 2013 season. Barnes led the Bulldogs with four interceptions returned for 70 yards, including a pick-six at UTSA.

Bradford was most recently the safeties coach for Memphis during the 2011 season when the Tigers registered 12 interceptions returned for 161 yards and 30 pass break-ups for a total of 42 passes defended. The Memphis defense forced and recovered 18 fumbles that season.

"Ronnie Bradford brings a different dimension to our staff because of his 10 years of playing experience in the National Football League," said Holtz. "His NFL coaching background and his experience in special teams are the things that really attracted me to him."

Prior to his short stint in Memphis, Bradford spent one season with the University of California football staff in 2010 as an administrative assistant on the defensive side of the ball. The Cal defense led the Pac-10 and ranked in the top 25 nationally in per-game averages for sacks (2.83 spg, No. 13), total defense (319.08 ypg, No. 18) and pass defense (187.00 ypg, No. 21) during his one season with the program. Cal was also second in the conference in opponents' third down conversion percentage (34.7 percent). The team's pass efficiency defense and scoring defense, which held opponents to 17 points or less in eight of 12 games, were both third in the Pac-10, as well as 31st and 40th nationally.

"I am excited about the opportunity to join the staff at Louisiana Tech," Bradford said. "I have watched the great platform that this program has built the last few years and I am looking forward to helping the program sustain the success it has recently had. Coach Holtz is putting together a great staff and I am really excited about working with such great kids on this team."

Before he joined the collegiate coaching ranks, Bradford was a seven-year assistant coach in the NFL. He was a defensive assistant with the Kansas City Chiefs in 2009 and prior to that he spent six years on the Denver Broncos staff, where he served in a variety of capacities both on defense and special teams. In his final year in Denver in 2008, Bradford coached the team's defensive backs, mentoring a group that featured nine-time Pro Bowl and three-time first-team All-Pro selection cornerback Champ Bailey, and two-time Pro Bowl pick Dré Bly.

He spent the 2004-06 campaigns as Denver's special teams coach and was the club's assistant special teams coach in 2003. Over that four-year span, the Broncos qualified for the postseason on three different occasions, including the 2005 campaign when Denver reached the AFC Championship Game. During that same four-year time frame, kicker Jason Elam ranked third in the NFL in both made field goals (107) and points scored (479).

Bradford also played for 10 seasons in the NFL with Denver (1993-95), Arizona (1996), Atlanta (1997-2001) and Minnesota (2002). He was a member of the Falcons' squad that claimed the 1998 NFC title and advanced to Super Bowl XXXIII, where he registered an interception off Broncos' quarterback John Elway. Bradford played in 133 regular season NFL games, accumulating 523 tackles, 13 interceptions that he returned for 65 yards and one TD, 2.0 sacks (-19 yards), 70 passes defended, four forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries.

Bradford was a two-year starter and four-year letterwinner in college at Colorado and was a first-team All-Big 8 selection as a senior in 1992. As a sophomore, he helped guide the Buffaloes to an appearance in the National Championship game versus Notre Dame, where he blocked a PAT attempt in the final minutes to preserve a 10-9 victory at the Orange Bowl. He graduated from Colorado in 1995.

He is married to the former Trish Mortenson and the couple has three children: Tony, Kaylee and Justin.

"HIS NFL COACHING BACKGROUND AND HIS EXPERIENCE IN SPECIAL TEAMS ARE THE THINGS THAT REALLY ATTRACTED ME TO HIM."

Kurt Hester enters his third season at Louisiana Tech after head football coach Skip Holtz named him as the athletic department's Head Strength and Conditioning Coach in June 2013.

Hester joined the Louisiana Tech Family after serving as a National Director of Training for the D1 Sports Training Center in Nashville, Tenn. since 2008. He worked with training several professional athletes from leagues such as the National Football League (NFL), Major League Baseball (MLB), National Basketball Association (NBA), Major League Soccer (MLB), National Hockey League (NHL) and the NFL Combine classes. One NFL player notable to Tech fans that Hester has worked with is former Bulldog quarterback Luke McCown.

"Kurt has phenomenal respect across the industry," Holtz said. "We are thrilled to have him join the Louisiana Tech Family. His background, experience and knowledge is a huge asset and brings him instant credibility with the University's student-athletes. He is going to have a huge impact in our athletic department and I am looking forward to him working with all of our student-athletes."

Concurrent to his tenure at D1 Sports Training, Hester also worked as the Director of Training at the Manning Passing Academy as he designed a training program for over 1,300 high school athletes and delivered a specific training seminar for high school and college coaches.

From 1997-2008, Hester was the owner and Director of Performance at HS2 Athletic Performance in Mandeville. He developed and mentored area coaches for college and professional coaching careers with several going on to BCS-level schools and NFL teams. Over 500 athletes he worked with received collegiate scholarships during that time as he oversaw the development of over 400 junior and senior high students per day.

Hester was an assistant strength coach at LSU from 1995-98, working with the speed development program for then-football coach Gerry Dinardo and worked primarily with the LSU baseball team as it won two national championships under legendary coach Skip Bertman. Hester also worked with the men's basketball, women's soccer and women's golf programs as well as with the varsity cheerleaders.

He graduated from Tulane University in 1995 with a Bachelor's of Science degree in exercise physiology. He also served as a graduate strength coach at Tulane for two years.

Hester has certifications as a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS) from the National Strength & Conditioning Association and also has his Speed Agility & Conditioning certification as well as his Level 1 certification from the United States Weightlifting Association.

Hester is married to the former Seana Durman. The couple have three children: Sydney, Rieleah and Remy.

"KURT HAS PHENOMENAL RESPECT ACROSS THE INDUSTRY. HE IS GOING TO HAVE A HUGE IMPACT IN OUR ATHLETIC DEPARTMENT AND I AM LOOKING FORWARD TO HIM WORKING WITH ALL OF OUR STUDENT-ATHLETES."

Long-time Louisiana Tech assistant coach Ed Jackson is in his sixth year as the Assistant A.D./Character Education and is beginning his 23rd season as a part of the Tech staff.

For years Jackson has been actively involved as the counselor and sponsor for the university's Fellowship of Christian Athletes and his current role enables him to continue to mold the lives of Tech student-athletes.

Jackson played collegiately for Louisiana Tech in the early 1980s, but he never dreamed that a quarter of a century later he would still be a part of the Bulldog program.

In addition to his role as the character education coordinator, Jackson also works with the team as an assistant strength and conditioning coach. He will be trying to instill the same life lessons he learned as a player at Tech that helped him achieve so many years of success as a player, coach, husband, father and man of strong faith.

During his playing days at Tech, Jackson earned All-Southland Conference honors and first team All-Louisiana honors and was a member of the 1977 and 1978 Independence Bowl teams.

Jackson played professionally in the NFL for the Oakland Raiders, in the USFL for the Tampa Bay Bandits and Orlando Renegades and in the CFL for the Toronto Argonauts.

After his professional playing career ended in 1985, Jackson began his coaching career at Hinds Community College where he served as the defensive line coach from 1987 to 1991 and the defensive coordinator in 1992. During those six years, Jackson coached eventual NFL stars in Leon Lett, Marvin Washington, John Copeland, Pervis Hunt, Grady Jackson and Gary Walker.

Jackson returned to his alma mater in 1993 when he was hired by Joe Raymond Peace as the defensive ends coach. After four years at that position, Jackson was promoted prior to the 1997 season to assistant head coach by Bulldog head coach Gary Crowton while also moving to the Tech linebackers.

The father of five returned to the Bulldog defensive line in 2000 where he spent the past seven years.

During his 16 seasons as a coach at Tech, Jackson helped lead the Bulldog football program into the 21st century, including a trip into the Associated Press Top 25 in 1999 and a Western Athletic Conference championship title and subsequent bowl berth in 2001.

Jackson was also a finalist for the 1999 American Football Coaches Association Assistant Coach of the Year award.

He earned his bachelor's degree in education from Tech in 1983, and his master's in education administration from Mississippi College in 1989.

Jackson has five daughters: Ashley, Adrianna, Andrea, Aisha and Alexis.

"ED JACKSON LIVES AND BREATHES BULLDOG FOOTBALL. HIS PAST EXPERIENCE AS A PLAYER BOTH AT LOUISIANA TECH AND IN THE NFL RESONATES WITH OUR PLAYERS. ED'S CHARACTER EDUCATION SKILL SET HELPS OUR STUDENT-ATHLETES LEAVE RUSTON AS WELL-GROOMED MEMBERS OF SOCIETY ABLE TO ACHIEVE THEIR DREAMS AND GOALS."

In 2014, the Bulldogs' running back corp totaled more than 2,000 rushing yards as Juluke helped guide Louisiana Tech to a 35-18 victory over Illinois in the Zaxby's Heart of the Dallas Bowl. The Bulldogs also captured the 2014 Conference USA West Division title following a 9-5 season in Ruston.

Juluke helped lead Kenneth Dixon to his second 1,000-yard rushing season of his career in 2014 as the junior racked up 1,299 yards on the ground, while ranking sixth in the nation with 22 rushing touchdowns. With the help of Juluke, Dixon became the all-time leader at Louisiana Tech with 53 rushing touchdowns and 3,410 career rushing yards over the course of the 2014 campaign.

LA Tech's running game helped LA Tech to a No. 13 ranking nationally in scoring offense during the 2014 season, while the Bulldogs were also ranked in the Top 25 in the country in fourth down conversion percentage (15th) and red zone offense (22nd) thanks to Juluke's guidance.

In his first season with the Bulldogs, Juluke helped guide Kenneth Dixon to 917 rushing yards over 10 games played and over 1,900 yards among Tech's tailbacks as a whole.

Juluke came to Louisiana Tech after serving as head coach at Edna Karr High School in New Orleans the last nine years. While at Edna Karr, he compiled an 80-39 record (.672 winning percentage) capped off with a 14-0 mark and a Louisiana state championship in 2012. Over the past four years, Juluke has guided Edna Karr HS to a 49-8 mark (.860 winning percentage).

"Jabbar has been a very successful high school coach in New Orleans, having played in the last three state championships," Holtz said. "The thing that excited me the most about Jabbar when I had the opportunity to sit and talk to him was not just his X's and O's and his knowledge of the game but the way he relates to people. Growing up in the inner city of New Orleans and now building Edna Karr High School to what he has built it to, I think he is a tremendous addition and he gives us a great Louisiana flavor on this staff."

Juluke has guided Edna Karr to three consecutive state championship appearances along with winning seven of the past nine district championships with the other two years finishing as the district runner-up. Over his tenure, Edna Karr has signed over 70 players to collegiate football scholarships.

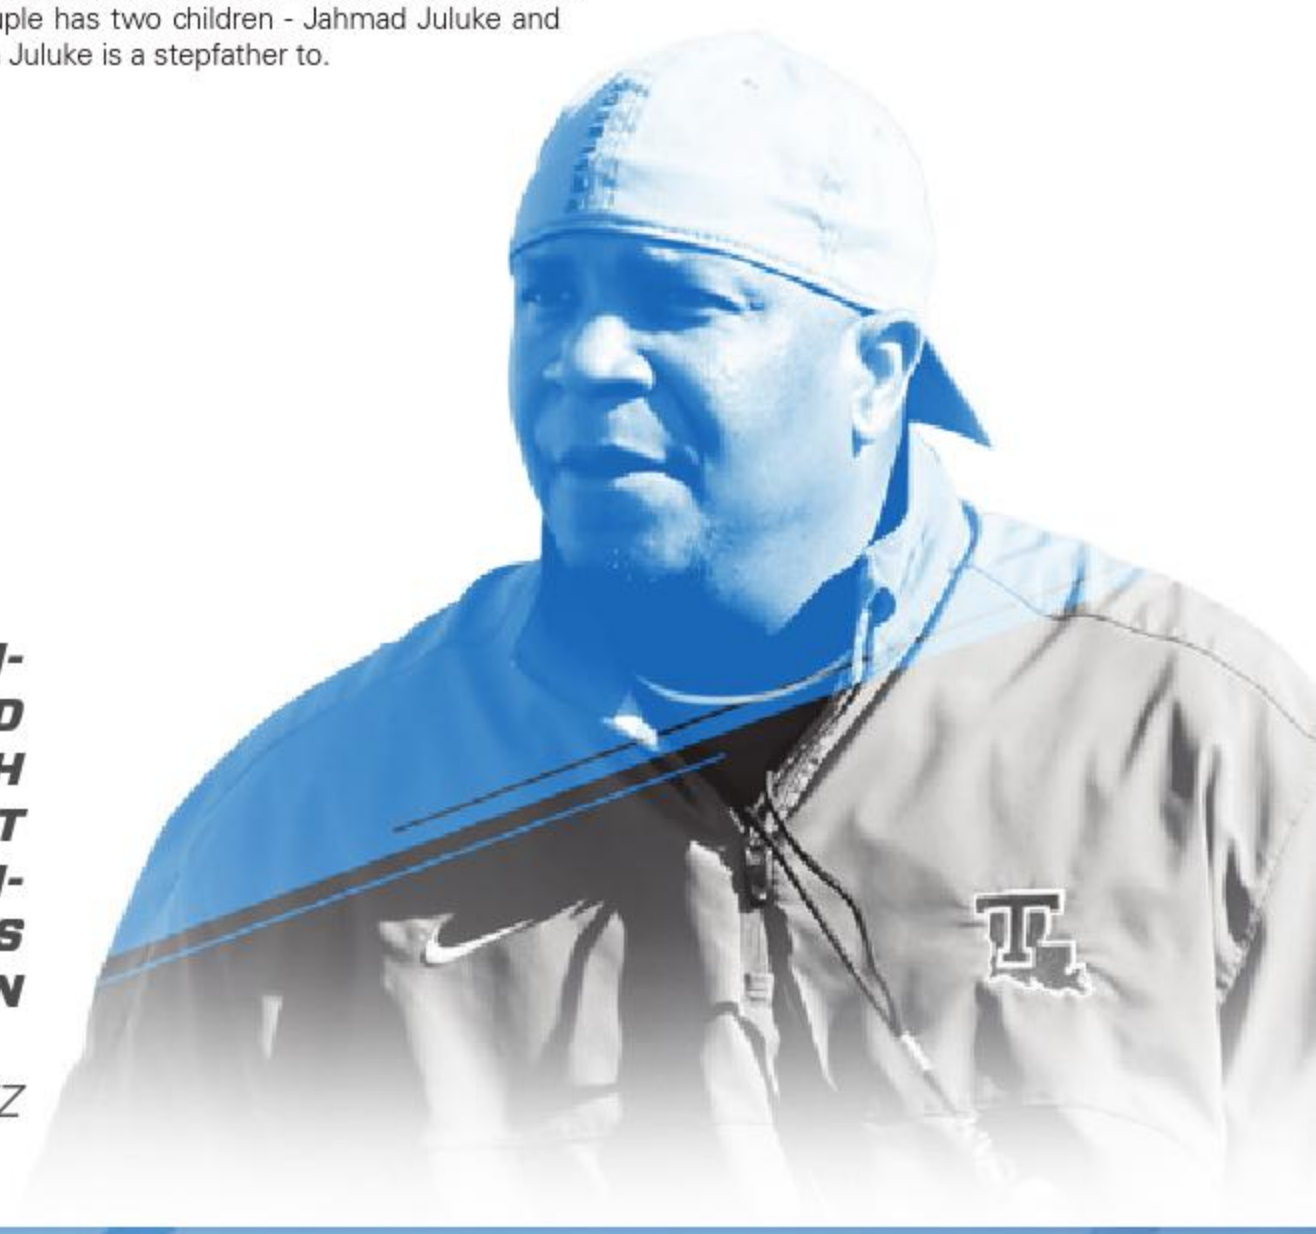
"Growing up in New Orleans, he has been around high school football in New Orleans for a long time. He brings a vast knowledge of the area but also brings a relationship with the high school coaches in the New Orleans area," Holtz continued. "Being the largest city in the state of Louisiana, that is definitely a place where we need to have a footprint for Louisiana Tech."

Prior to serving as head coach at Edna Karr, Juluke was the defensive coordinator for four years at Frederick Douglas High School in New Orleans and was a wide receivers coach at Brother Martin for one year before that. He got his start in coaching as a defensive backs coach and special teams coordinator at O.P. Walker High School in New Orleans where he spent one year before moving over to St. Augustine High School where he was a linebackers coach for two years.

"I am extremely excited to join the Louisiana Tech staff," Juluke said. "Coach Holtz is a very enthusiastic individual and I am looking forward to helping out the program as best I can. I am very humbled to have the opportunity to coach at the collegiate level as it has been a goal of mine for some time. I am very appreciative of the opportunity and I look forward to working very hard for the University to continue the success for this football program."

A native of south Louisiana, Juluke helped lead Southern to a Black National Championship in 1993 as a senior safety on the Jaguars and lettered in both football and basketball. He earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in sociology from Southern in 1999.

Juluke is married to the former Denise Smith. The couple has two children - Jahmad Juluke and Jamari Juluke while Denise has another son, Dyruius, whom Juluke is a stepfather to.



"GROWING UP IN THE INNER CITY OF NEW ORLEANS AND NOW BUILDING EDNA KARR HIGH SCHOOL TO WHAT HE HAS BUILT IT TO, I THINK HE IS A TREMENDOUS ADDITION AND HE GIVES US A GREAT LOUISIANA FLAVOR ON THIS STAFF."

- SKIP HOLTZ

Robert McFarland enters his first season at Louisiana Tech as the offensive line coach for the Bulldogs and brings with him over 20 years of collegiate coaching experience.

McFarland's hiring was announced in January 2015 as the veteran joins the LA Tech family after spending the last three seasons at Copiah-Lincoln (Co-Lin) Junior College.

"I am very excited to add Robert to our staff and the LA Tech Family," Louisiana Tech head coach Skip Holtz said. "He brings a tremendous amount of experience as a head coach, coordinator and offensive line coach in over 25 years of coaching and in 2015 that experience will be invaluable in continuing to build our program. I have known him for a long time and I know he will be a great asset to our program."

During his time at Co-Lin, McFarland served as offensive coordinator and offensive line coach for a prolific offense that reached the Mississippi Association of Community and Junior Colleges (MACJC) championship game behind a 62 percent passing rate with over 3,000 yards passing with 22 touchdowns and seven interceptions by a sophomore quarterback.

In 2012, Co-Lin quarterback Chandler Rogers passed for 3,164 yards and 30 touchdowns in 12 games. In 2013, freshman quarterback Daniel Fitzwater posted 2,684 yards passing with 19 touchdowns in nine games.

McFarland has a long list of achievements and former players who competed in the National Football League. He served as offensive line coach for the United Football League's (UFL) Sacramento Mountain Lions (2011) under head coach Dennis Green and the Florida Tuskers (2010) as the run game coordinator/tight end coach under head coach Jay Gruden. The Tuskers led the UFL in rushing and produced the league's leading rusher.

"Having known Skip for over 25 years, I am excited to have the opportunity to work with him again," said McFarland, who first coached with the Holtz family at Notre Dame. "I grew up in Louisiana and the reputation of Louisiana Tech as a university and as a football program. It is an exciting time to be in Ruston following a successful bowl season and playing in the Conference USA Championship Game. The future is bright for this program and I look forward to work with Skip, the great coaching staff he has assembled and the team he is building."

He spent 2007-2008 as the offensive coordinator/offensive line coach for Iowa State University under then head coach Gene Chizik. He successfully rebuilt the Cyclone offensive line from scratch in 2007 and coordinated an offense that set several school and career records. In 2008, the Cyclone offense set a school record in passing yards per game, second all-time total passing yards, fifth all-time in total offense per game, sixth in total yards, and seventh in scoring. They set season single game school records in three categories. Most impressively, Iowa State cut its sacks allowed from 38 in 2006 to 17 and 2007, despite having only one returning starter on the offensive line.

Serving as head coach at Stephen F. Austin State University in 2005-2006, the Lumberjacks won twice as many conference games in 2006 than previous two years to finish tied for second place in the league. In his two years as the Lumberjacks' head coach, McFarland coached two All-Americans and 26 All-Southland Conference players. In 2005, SFA had the No. 1 passing offense in the Southland Conference and in 2006, the Lumberjacks led the conference in total offense, total defense and scoring defense.

McFarland spent the 2004 season at East Carolina as the offensive line coach. Prior to that he spent four seasons as the offensive line coach and offensive coordinator at the University of Central Florida. During his stay at UCF, McFarland's offensive unit was ranked 11th in the nation in total offense and sixth in the nation in pass offense that season averaging more than 436 yards of offense and 32 points per game in 2002.

His offensive units produced two 1,000-yard receivers and a 1,000-yard rusher in 2002, only the eighth time in NCAA history a team has accomplished that feat.

The Knights finished ninth in the nation among I-A teams in passing offense in 2001 and was 12th in the nation in passing offense in 2000. During his stay in Orlando, McFarland coached six student-athletes who went on to the NFL.

McFarland was the offensive line coach at Stephen F. Austin from 1991 through the 1999 season. During his earlier stint with the Lumberjacks, SFA claimed two NCAA playoff appearances and the 1999 Southland title. The 'Jacks advanced to the semifinals of the I-AA playoffs in 1995. SFA led the league in rushing offense four times with McFarland's offensive line leading the way. SFA also set single-season records for rushing yards (2,193 yards - 1993) and rushing touchdowns (30 - 1999) while McFarland was a Lumberjack assistant. Four of his former offensive linemen also went on to NFL camps.

He has made coaching stops at Kent State under Pete Cordelli, Notre Dame under Lou Holtz and Clemson University under Danny Ford. He has coached teams that have made appearances in the Citrus Bowl, Gator Bowl and Orange Bowl.

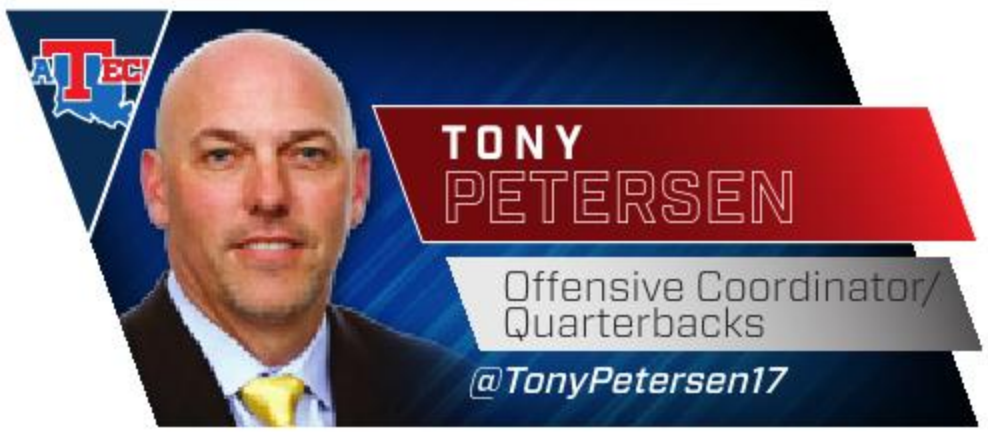
"ROBERT MCFARLAND BRINGS OVER 25 YEARS OF COACHING EXPERIENCE TO LOUISIANA TECH. THAT EXPERIENCE WILL BE INVALUABLE FOR OUR TEAM. I HAVE KNOWN HIM FOR A LONG TIME AND I KNOW HE WILL BE A GREAT ASSET TO OUR PROGRAM."

- SKIP HOLTZ



After joining the Louisiana Tech family on Jan. 16, 2013, Tony Petersen now enters his third season with the Bulldogs as the team's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

A record-setting quarterback at Marshall, Petersen joined the Louisiana Tech Family after serving as the co-offensive coordinator at Marshall for three seasons in the second of two stints at his alma mater. He came to Ruston with over 20 years coaching experience at the NCAA Division I level.

"Tony comes from one of the most prolific offenses in the country this year and behind that he brings over 20 years of experience," Holtz said. "He has had success as a coordinator in the Big Ten Conference and brings a background of wide open offenses and an exciting style of play. I am excited to have someone with such a strong background join my staff and continue the successful style of offense Louisiana Tech is nationally known for."

In 2014, Petersen guided an offense that was ranked fifth in the nation in most improved scoring offense with 37.4 points per game as LA Tech captured the Zaxby's Heart of Dallas Bowl with a 35-18 victory over Illinois at the Cotton Bowl. Under Petersen's offensive guidance, the Bulldogs compiled a 9-5 overall record and Conference USA West Division title. Transfer quarterback Cody Sokol helped the Bulldogs become the 13th best scoring offense in the country, while Petersen helped lead the senior slinger to national rankings of 11th in passing touchdowns and 20th in passing yards.

In his first season at Tech, Petersen inherited an offensive unit that lost eight starters to graduation with a quarterbacks group that had never taken a collegiate snap. That 2013 season saw four wins with another three games decided by 10 points or less.

Peterson's third season on Doc Holliday's staff at Marshall proved to be his best as he mentored sophomore quarterback Rakeem Cato to an incredible 2012 campaign. The Herd's signal-caller became the first underclassman in Conference USA history to earn its MVP honor and was the first Herd player to win the award since the school joined the league in 2005. Cato led the nation in completions/game (33.83) and passing yards/game (350.08) and finished third in TD passes (37), fourth in completion percentage (69.5) and fifth in total offense/game (352.67). He also led C-USA in pass efficiency (147.1). The Miami native's 66.2% career completion mark (588-of-888) is currently a school record, just ahead of Herd legends Chad Pennington (65.1) and Byron Leftwich (63.4).

As co-coordinator, Petersen's offense led the league in scoring offense, passing offense, total offense, pass efficiency, third down conversions and first downs. In the latter two categories, Marshall ranked second nationally.

"I am really excited to join the Louisiana Tech Family," Petersen said. "This is a great program that has done well with a wide open offense. I am excited to continue the standard that has been set and to run a system that was similar to our style of play at Marshall. I look forward to doing everything I can to keep it rolling. I know we lost some senior playmakers but we also have a lot of players ready to take their spot. My goal is to keep this offense high in the national rankings like it has been."

Prior to his second stint at Marshall, Petersen spent the 2009 season as the assistant head coach and wide receivers coach at the University of South Dakota. He spent the previous two seasons as quarterbacks coach at Iowa State University.

Under Petersen, Iowa State quarterback Bret Meyer finished his Cyclone career in 2007 with school record totals for passing yards and total offense.

Prior to coaching at Iowa State, Petersen coached at the University of Minnesota. Petersen served as co-offensive coordinator, quarterbacks coach and eventually the passing coordinator at Minnesota.

Quarterback Bryan Cupito set the new all-time leading passing mark under Petersen. In 2006, the Gophers had a 2,000-yard passer for a fifth straight year, a school record. Petersen also played a crucial role in the progress of Asad Abdul-Khaliq at Minnesota as the quarterback rewrote the Gophers' record books.

During Petersen's eight seasons in his first stint at Marshall, the Thundering Herd qualified for the postseason eight straight times, winning national championships in 1992 and 1996 and Mid-American Conference titles in both 1997 and 1998. Peterson served as wide receivers coach in 1992 and helped in the development of future three-time Super Bowl Champion Troy Brown. Peterson served as quarterbacks coach for five of his previous eight years at MU and worked as the offensive coordinator in 1998. In that capacity, he coached future NFL quarterbacks Chad Pennington and Byron Leftwich.

As a player at Marshall, Petersen was named the 1988 Southern Conference Athlete of the Year and the Southern Conference Offensive Player of the Year in 1987. A free agent signee of the Minnesota Vikings in 1989, Petersen set 16 Southern Conference single-season and career records in passing and total offense, to go along with six Marshall single-season school marks. He threw a record 35 touchdown passes in 1987. Petersen also set NCAA records for most passes in a game without an interception (68) and for most regular season games (11) with more than 200 yards passing. Petersen also played for the Thundering Herd baseball program.

Petersen went to Marshall after a stellar career at Delta Community College in Stockton, Calif. He was drafted by the Kansas City Royals after his first season at Delta C.C.

Petersen earned his bachelor's degree in 1988 and master's degree in 1995, both from Marshall. He and his wife Beth have three children: Andy, Nikki Nelson and Taylor.

"TONY COMES FROM ONE OF THE MOST PROLIFIC OFFENSES IN THE COUNTRY THIS YEAR AND BEHIND THAT HE BRINGS OVER 20 YEARS OF EXPERIENCE."

Louisiana Tech head football coach Skip Holtz announced in early 2015 that Rick Petri has joined the staff as the team's new defensive line coach. Petri joined the LA Tech family after holding the same position at Duke the last four years.

This marks Petri's second stint at Louisiana Tech after serving on the Bulldogs staff in 1992, the program's fourth season in Division I-A (now FBS). That season LA Tech opened the season with a 10-9 win at Baylor and finished the year with an undefeated record at home.

"It is exciting to come back to Louisiana Tech," Petri said. "My wife and I both have fond memories of our time here - even though a few years have passed - and it is always exciting to come back and see a place where you have been, to see how it has changed for the better and you can easily see the good things that are happening. The staff has been very welcoming and Coach Holtz is obviously one of the best in the business. I am excited to spend some time with him and learn from him because you are always learning and adding to what you do and what you believe in. It is an exciting time for both my wife and me."

Petri joins the Louisiana Tech staff after spending the last four seasons as the defensive line coach at Duke where he helped the Blue Devils to 28 wins over four seasons including the 2013 ACC Coastal Division title and three bowl game appearances.

"Rick brings such a wealth of experience with a number of years coaching in the Southeastern Conference," Holtz said of Petri's arrival in Ruston. "He has turned out numerous players in the NFL and brings a lot of experience that will help many of our upperclassmen continue to elevate their game but, at the same time, help bring along some of our freshmen that we are going to need to contribute as we go forward. I could not be more excited about being able to make this work and have Rick join the LA Tech Family."

A college coaching veteran of over 30 seasons, Petri has made coaching stops at Ole Miss, Miami, South Carolina and Kentucky among others throughout his career. He joins a LA Tech program that is coming off an appearance in the Conference USA Championship Game and a Zaxby's Heart of Dallas Bowl win over Illinois.

In both 2012 and 2013, Duke's defensive front that was guided by Petri was spearheaded by ends Kenny Anunike and Justin Foxx. Anunike, who led the Blue Devils in sacks in each of his final three seasons, was a two-time All-ACC pick while Foxx, who served as a captain of Duke's ACC Coastal Division championship team in 2013, finished his 45-game career with 152 tackles, 16.5 tackles for loss and 11.5 sacks.

Anunike, one of just two players in Duke history to lead the Blue Devils in sacks three consecutive seasons, went on to sign a free agent contract with the NFL's Denver Broncos in May of 2014.

In 2011, Petri mentored a youthful Blue Devil defensive front that included just one senior in nose guard Charlie Hatcher, who completed his career with a 30-tackle, two-sack campaign. Petri also tutored Anunike, who was leading the ACC in both sacks and tackles for loss through the first three weeks of the season before suffering a season-ending knee injury in Duke's win over Tulane in late September.

Petri served on Cutcliffe's staff at Ole Miss from 1998-04, helping the Rebels to a 44-29 record and four bowl victories. In 2003, Ole Miss went 10-3, captured a share of the SEC Western Division title and defeated Oklahoma State, 31-29, in the Cotton Bowl. While with the Rebels, Petri coached the defensive tackles and tutored a pair of first team All-SEC selections in Kendrick Clancy and Jesse Mitchell. Clancy went on to be a third round pick of the Pittsburgh Steelers in the 2000 NFL Draft.

Petri went to Durham after spending the 2010 campaign at ACC member Miami. That year, the Hurricane defensive unit ranked among the league's leaders in pass defense (1st), pass defense efficiency (1st), opponent third down percentage (2nd), opponent first downs (2nd) total defense (3rd), sacks (3rd), and scoring defense (5th). Under Petri's guidance, senior Allen Bailey earned All-ACC honors after leading the Hurricanes in quarterback sacks.

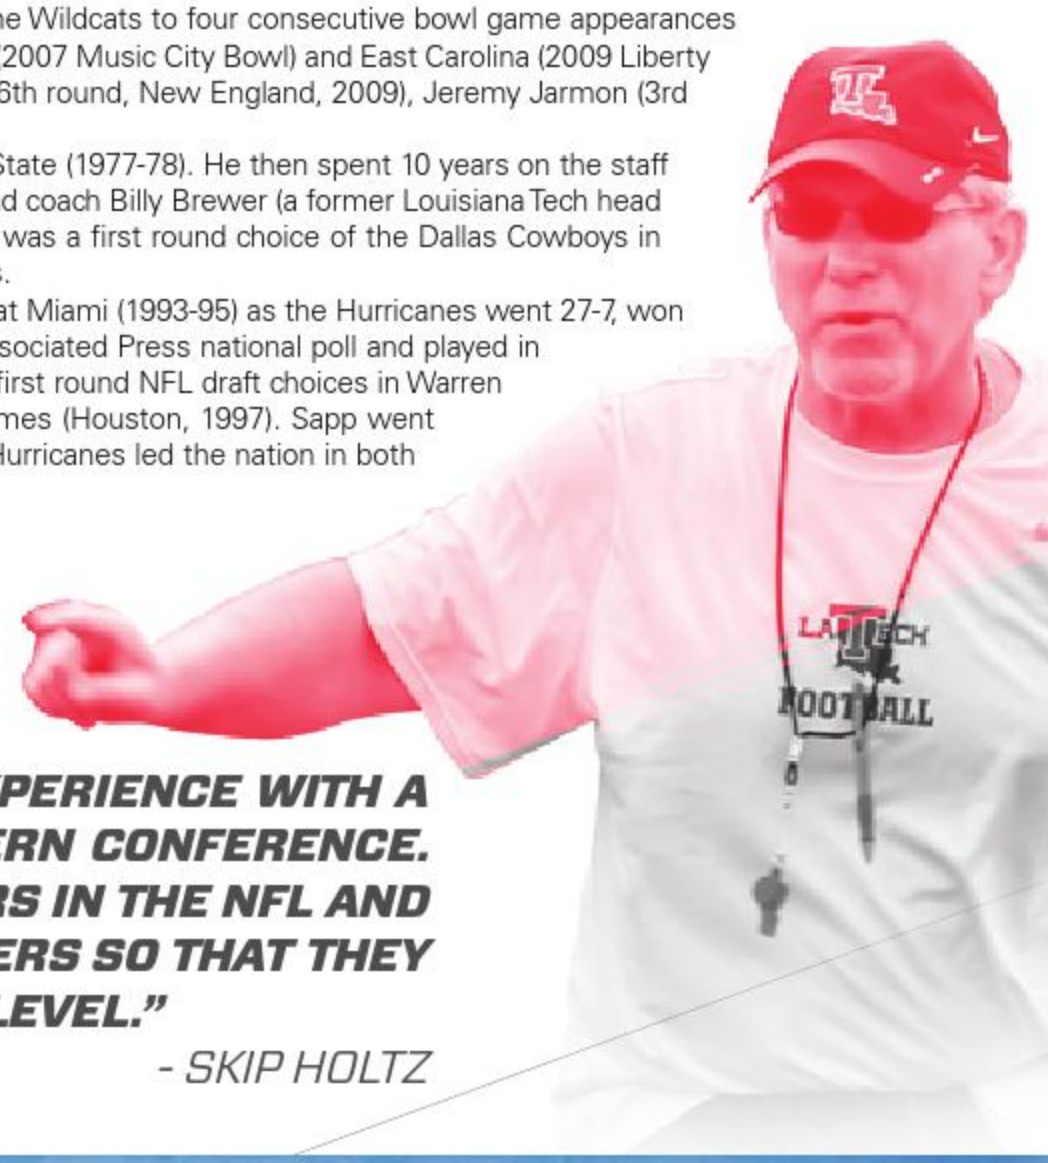
From 2005-09, Petri was on the staff at Kentucky where he helped the Wildcats to four consecutive bowl game appearances that included victories over Clemson (2006 Music City Bowl), Florida State (2007 Music City Bowl) and East Carolina (2009 Liberty Bowl). In Lexington, Petri coached three future draft picks in Myron Pryor (6th round, New England, 2009), Jeremy Jarmon (3rd round, Washington, 2010) and Corey Peters (3rd round, Atlanta, 2010).

A native of St. Louis, Mo., Petri got his start in coaching at Pittsburg State (1977-78). He then spent 10 years on the staff at Arkansas State before a three-year (1989-91) stint at Ole Miss under head coach Billy Brewer (a former Louisiana Tech head coach). During his first stint in Oxford, Petri coached Kelvin Pritchett, who was a first round choice of the Dallas Cowboys in 1991 and spent 14 seasons with the Detroit Lions and Jacksonville Jaguars.

After one season at Louisiana Tech (1992), he enjoyed three seasons at Miami (1993-95) as the Hurricanes went 27-7, won two BIG EAST championships, finished all three seasons ranked in the Associated Press national poll and played in both the Fiesta and Orange Bowls. In addition, Petri coached three future first round NFL draft choices in Warren Sapp (Tampa Bay, 1995), Kenard Lang (Washington, 1997) and Kenny Holmes (Houston, 1997). Sapp went on to earn NFL Defensive Player of the Year honors in 1999. In 1994, the Hurricanes led the nation in both scoring defense and total defense.

From 1996-98, Petri tutored the defensive ends at South Carolina where he helped develop John Abraham, a first round pick of the New York Jets in the 2000 NFL Draft and multi-year Pro Bowl honoree.

Petri is a 1976 graduate of the University of Missouri-Rolla. He and his wife, Marsha, have two sons, Brad and Kory.



"RICK BRINGS SUCH A WEALTH OF EXPERIENCE WITH A NUMBER OF YEARS IN THE SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE. HE HAS TURNED OUT NUMEROUS PLAYERS IN THE NFL AND HE WILL BE ABLE TO DEVELOP OUR PLAYERS SO THAT THEY CAN ELEVATE THEIR GAME TO THE NEXT LEVEL."

One of the most prolific quarterbacks in NCAA history and one of the most decorated in Louisiana Tech history joined Skip Holtz's staff in 2013 as eight-year NFL veteran Tim Rattay now enters his third season coaching the outside receivers.

"Tim brings a vast experience around the game of football," Skip Holtz said. "His father was a high school coach so he grew up around the game. He was a college player and then played 10 years professionally and has had the opportunity to coach at the professional level the last few years. He is a Louisiana Tech guy; this is his school, this is where he played and this is where he wanted to be. I am really excited we have the opportunity to give him the chance to get into college coaching at his home at Louisiana Tech."

In just his second season, Rattay helped lead the Bulldogs to a Conference USA West Division title and the 2014 Zaxby's Heart of Dallas Bowl championship following a 35-18 win over Illinois at the Cotton Bowl. LA Tech ended the season 9-5 and Rattay helped the Bulldogs to a No. 13 ranking nationally in scoring offense, while Tech was also fifth in the country in most improved scoring offense with 37.4 points per game in 2014.

Rattay joined the LA Tech staff after spending the prior two seasons as the wide receivers coach for the United Football League's (UFL) Las Vegas Locomotives. He is a member of the Louisiana Tech Athletics Hall of Fame as he was enshrined as part of the Class of 2007.

"I am super excited to get back to Louisiana Tech," Rattay said. "It is a place that has given me so much and it is a program on the rise. So many good things have happened to Tech in the last 10 years and there are a lot of good things still to come for Louisiana Tech Football. I am just glad to be a part of it and I want to thank Skip Holtz for the opportunity to come back home."

Rattay returns to his alma mater where he rewrote the Louisiana Tech record books while permanently etching his name in the NCAA record books during his three-year career with the Bulldogs from 1997 through 1999. Spurned by most Division I programs due to his undersized stature, Rattay possessed an uncanny ability to dissect defenses with his pin-point accuracy and exploded onto the national scene in 1997 as he passed for 358 yards and three scores in the Bulldogs 30-23 win over Bowling Green.

It was just the beginning of a three-year run in Ruston that saw Rattay earn two NCAA Total Offense titles while passing for 12,746 yards and 115 touchdowns. His collegiate career ended with him owning every LA Tech passing and total offense record while ranking No. 2 in NCAA history in total offense (12,618), No. 2 in passing touchdowns and No. 2 in passing yards.

While the Phoenix, Arizona native led Tech to 23 wins, including memorable victories over Alabama (twice) and California, arguably his biggest moment came when he combined with Troy Edwards to embarrass the defending national champion Nebraska Cornhusker's defense as he passed for 590 yards and four scores in the inaugural Eddie Robinson Classic in 1998.

Following his collegiate career, the All-American was selected in the seventh round of the 2000 NFL Draft by the San Francisco 49ers where he spent eight years in the league with the 49ers, Tampa Bay Buccaneers and Arizona Cardinals before retiring from the NFL in 2007.

During his NFL career, Rattay recorded a number of impressive performances, including breaking the 49ers single game completions record with 38 in a 31-28 win over the Arizona Cardinals in 2004 (Joe Montana held the previous mark with 37). He also became the only player in NFL history to throw three consecutive passes all going for touchdowns, a feat he accomplished while with the Cardinals in 2007.

He led the Buccaneers to the franchises biggest comeback ever. Trailing eventual NFC champion Chicago by 21 points in the third quarter on Dec. 17, 2006, he tossed three fourth quarter touchdowns to send the game into overtime where the Bears eventually won 34-31.

Rattay is also one of only three 7th-round or undrafted quarterback since 1995 to pass for more than 400 yards in a game, joining Matt Cassel and Tony Romo.

Following the completion of his NFL career, Rattay spent two seasons playing for the UFL's Locomotives where he served as the backup in 2010 and the starter in 2011 before suffering a season-ending injury.

He is married to the former Allison Walker, who was a Louisiana Tech volleyball player during her college days. The couple has three kids: Riley, Taylor and Sloane.

"HE IS A LOUISIANA TECH GUY; THIS IS HIS SCHOOL, THIS IS WHERE HE PLAYED AND THIS IS WHERE HE WANTED TO BE."

Karl Scott enters his first season at Louisiana Tech as the new safeties coach for the Bulldogs after head coach Skip Holtz announced the addition to his staff on Feb. 13, 2015.

Scott joins the LA Tech family after spending the previous three seasons at Southeastern Louisiana where he coached the linebackers and was promoted to defensive coordinator for the 2014 season.

"Karl is a young and energetic coach with a very bright future," Holtz said of the addition. "He has worked his way up and is a rising star in this field. We are fortunate that he chose to join us at Louisiana Tech as a position coach a year after he led his team to the top defense in their league as defensive coordinator. He has such a bright future and I am excited he is joining the LA Tech family."

Scott recently completed his third season as an assistant on the Southeastern Louisiana University staff and his first as defensive coordinator after spending the previous four seasons as an assistant at Tusculum (Tenn.) College. Prior to taking over as defensive coordinator, the Houston, Texas native coached the Lion linebackers while also serving as the team's travel coordinator.

In 2014 as defensive coordinator of Southeastern Louisiana, Scott led a unit that finished the year leading the Southland Conference in total defense while ranking seventh in the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS). Scott's defense was 11th in the nation in turnovers gained (28), fifth in the nation in red zone defense (.667 percentage) and eighth in the nation in scoring defense (17.7 ppg).

In his first season at the helm of the Southeastern defense, the Lions repeated as Southland Conference champions, made their second trip to the NCAA playoffs and finished ranked 12th and 14th, respectively, in the final FCS Coaches and Sports Network national polls. Scott's defense finished the season leading the nation in passing deficiency (94.30), while leading the Southland in total (293.2 ypg) and scoring (17.7 ppg) defense.

Under Scott's tutelage, both senior linebacker Isiah Corbett and junior defensive back Harlan Miller earned All-America honors. Corbett and Miller were joined on the All-Southland Conference team by fellow SLU defenders Denzel Thompson, Jacob Newman, Tyler Stoddard, A.J. Bowen, Drew Misita, Jordan Batiste and Micah Eugene.

Scott's linebacker corps was a key factor in Southeastern's 2013 Southland Conference championship campaign. Leading the way was Cqulin Hubert, who was named Southland Conference Defensive Player of the Year after posting a team-high 90 tackles (including 11 for loss) for a Lion defense that led the league in scoring defense.

In addition, juniors Corbett (league-high 16 TFL, seven sacks) and Justin Church (8 TFL, five sacks) earned All-Southland Conference honors, while Misita contributed 80 tackles.

Scott led an active group of linebackers in 2012 that featured one of the leading tacklers in the Southland Conference (Kaleb Muse) and one of the top pass rushers in the league (Devan Walker).

Muse led Southeastern with 80 tackles on the season with Hubert (60), Walker (46) and Misita (43) among a group of eight players with 40 or more stops.

Walker, who played his final season at linebacker after three seasons at defensive end, finished as the Lions' top player in tackles for loss (12.5) and sacks (7) while garnering All-Southland Conference honors and being invited to compete in the Texas vs. Nation Collegiate All-Star Game.

Before he arrived in Hammond, Scott served as recruiting coordinator, defensive backs coach and linebackers coach in his four-year stint with Tusculum, a Division II school.

In five years in collegiate coaching at Tusculum and Delta State University, Scott was associated with programs that won two conference championships, made a pair of trips to the NCAA Division II Playoffs and earned two national rankings. In his first two years at Tusculum, he was responsible for the linebacker corps.

Scott made an immediate impact in his first Tusculum campaign, mentoring two All-Conference and All-Region linebackers in Justin Scott and Jarvis Littlejohn. Both players each recorded over 100 tackles as the Pioneers won the South Atlantic Conference championship. Scott garnered All-America recognition, while establishing school season (22) and career (51) marks for tackles for loss. Justin Scott also finished his career with seven recovered fumbles, a new school best.

Prior to Tusculum, Scott spent one season at Delta State, where he served as a graduate assistant coach for the Statesmen in 2007. In his lone season at DSU, he helped the Statesmen to a 10-2 record and a Gulf South Conference championship, while advancing to the second round of the NCAA Division II playoffs and earning a No. 10 national ranking.

Scott helped orchestrate one of the top defenses in the nation, while mentoring All-American linebacker Michael Eubanks. Eubanks was a national finalist for the Harlon Hill Trophy, which recognizes the National Player of the Year in Division II. Eubanks, who finished third in the Harlon Hill balloting, ended his collegiate career as the NCAA II leader in sacks (39) and third all-time in career tackles for loss (67.5).

He also coached all-conference standouts Lardester Hicks and Anthony King in 2007, while serving on the coaching staff for DSU head coach and former Tusculum defensive coordinator Ron Roberts.

The Statesmen led the nation in pass efficiency defense (77.9) and was second in the country in total defense (227.4 yards per game), scoring defense (13.9 points per game) and team pass sacks (4.0 sacks per game). DSU was also third in the land in rushing defense, allowing just 67.3 yards per contest on the ground.

Scott played his collegiate career at McMurry University in Abilene, Texas, where he graduated in 2007 with a degree in Exercise and Sports Studies. Following his graduation from McMurry, he served on the coaching staff at Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene where he coached the linebackers.

The safeties coaching position was made available as former safeties coach Blake Baker assumes the defensive coordinator and linebackers responsibilities.

"KARL IS A YOUNG AND ENERGETIC COACH WITH A VERY BRIGHT FUTURE. HE IS A RISING STAR IN THIS FIELD AND WE ARE FORTUNATE TO HAVE HIM JOIN THE LA TECH FAMILY."

Joe Sloan enters his third season as the inside receivers coach and first as the assistant head coach at Louisiana Tech after joining head coach Skip Holtz and the Bulldog family on Jan. 8, 2013.

Formerly a graduate assistant at South Florida, Sloan joined the Louisiana Tech Family after having spent the previous eight years with Skip Holtz, either as a player or as a coach.

"Joe has both played and worked for me and he brings a relentless work habit and attitude along with a youthful enthusiasm for the game," Holtz said of Sloan. "He is going to be one of the young stars in this business and I am excited to have him on our staff."

In 2014, Sloan helped guide the fifth-most improved scoring offense in the nation as the Bulldogs captured the Zaxby's Heart of Dallas Bowl title with a 35-18 win over Illinois at Cotton Bowl Stadium in Dallas. The 2014 season resulted in a 9-5 record, five more wins than the previous year, and a Conference USA West Division championship thanks to a 7-1 mark in league play.

In his second season on staff, Sloan played an integral part in LA Tech's nationally ranked offensive numbers, with the Bulldogs ranking 13th in scoring offense, 15th in fourth down conversion percentage and 22nd in red zone offense.

Sloan was an offensive quality control assistant at South Florida from 2010-11 and then spent the 2012 season as a graduate assistant coach for the Bulls.

"I have had the pleasure of working with Skip Holtz for the past eight years both as a player and as a coach. I am looking forward to the opportunity to continue working with him here at Louisiana Tech," Sloan said. "Coach Holtz runs a championship program, and I am excited to help him build on the success of Louisiana Tech Football."

Prior to his tenure at USF, Sloan was an administrative assistant/recruiting for the Spring of 2010, assisting with all aspects of ECU's recruiting efforts.

Sloan finished up his collegiate days at ECU after playing in all 14 games in 2009 with the Pirates. Sloan appeared in 41 career games throughout his final three years at ECU and was the special team unit's placeholder for those three seasons.

During the 2009 season, Sloan assisted with opponent breakdown and scouting reports, organized and ran the offensive scout team during practice, assisted with the weekly game plan development and implementation and participated in all offensive staff meetings.

He earned a redshirt season in 2005 after walk-on tryouts and was a scout team player in 2006 but did not see game action. Throughout his career, Sloan was also a reserve quarterback.

In 2009, Sloan was nominated for the Rudy Award, which honors a student-athlete who demonstrates exemplary "character, courage, contribution and commitment" as a member of their collegiate football team.

In addition, he was a three-time winner of the team's Jerry T. Brooks Award for superior academic achievement from 2007-09. Sloan was also a three-time member of the PCS Phosphate ECU All-Academic Team from 2008-10, the Conference USA Commissioner's Honor Roll and a Conference USA Academic Medal recipient.

Sloan earned a bachelor's degree in business administration, managerial finance from ECU in December 2008, graduating Summa Cum Laude, before earning his MBA in May 2010. Sloan was selected to the ECU Athletic Director's Honor Roll each semester at ECU.

A Chester, Va., native, Sloan starred at Thomas Dale High School prior to arriving at ECU.

"JOE HAS BOTH PLAYED AND WORKED FOR ME AND HE BRINGS A RELENTLESS WORK HABIT AND ATTITUDE ALONG WITH A YOUTHFUL ENTHUSIASM FOR THE GAME."

Ryan Davis enters his first year with the Bulldogs after joining the Louisiana Tech staff in 2015 as an offensive graduate assistant coach.

Davis came to Louisiana Tech after serving in an offensive quality control position at Campbell University where he assisted with special teams while also assisting with opponent breakdowns and scouting reports.

He is a 2013 graduate of Campbell University where he was a defensive back for the Camels and also served on special teams.

MacPherson came to Louisiana Tech after spending time as a merchandiser with PepsiCo, a job he secured after spending the 2014 preseason in the Buffalo Bills camp. He was released in the final round of cuts prior to the start of the 2014 regular season.

The Bills signed MacPherson after a standout career at Syracuse University where he was a four-year starter for the Orange while graduating with cum laude honors in only seven semesters. MacPherson was a team captain his senior season and was named to the ACC All-Bowl Team as well as the ACC All-Academic Team in his final season while receiving All-ACC honors.

MacPherson received his bachelor's degree from Syracuse in 2014. He is the grandson of College Football Hall of Fame inductee Coach Dick MacPherson.

Mike Schrang began his coaching career in 2015 as a defensive graduate assistant coach at Louisiana Tech after wrapping up a successful four-year career as a defensive end for the Bulldogs.

Schrang enters his first season on the coaching staff after receiving his bachelor's degree from LA Tech in 2014 and completing his eligibility after four years with the Bulldogs.

From 2011 to 2014, Schrang registered 69 total tackles (32 solo, 37 assisted) with 3.0 tackles for a loss of 11 yards with four passes defended, including one interception. He was also responsible for one forced fumble and one fumble recovery over the course of his career.

Stuckman came to Louisiana Tech after spending the 2014 season as a graduate assistant at Midwestern State where he worked with the defensive backs.

Prior to his first collegiate job at Midwestern State, Stuckman was a wide receivers coach at Gainesville (Fla.) High School for six months. He spent the 2013 season as a defensive backs and wide receivers coach at Yonge High School in Gainesville, Florida as he made his coaching debut.

Stuckman received his Bachelor's Degree from Grambling State in 2012 where he played on the 2008 and 2011 Southwestern Athletic Conference championship football team, serving as team captain.

THIS IS BULLDOG COUNTRY

JOE AILLET STADIUM

Joe Aillet Stadium has been home to Louisiana Tech football for the past 45-plus years as Bulldog fans have watched legends such as Terry Bradshaw, Roger Carr, Fred Dean, Pat Tilley, Matt Dunigan, William Roaf, Troy Edwards and Tim Rattay all don the Tech red and blue.

Opened in 1968 at a capacity of 23,000, Joe Aillet Stadium -- which wasn't given its current name until Nov. 11, 1972, when it was dedicated in honor of the former Tech coaching legend -- has proven instrumental in some of the biggest wins in the program's 100-plus year history.

The facility was upgraded in 1985 when a luxury sky box was added to the press box and again in 1989, when an additional 7,600 seats were added, increasing the seating capacity to 30,600.

In the summer of 2006 Joe Aillet Stadium received a new surface as FieldTurf Mono -- which is considered the top of the line artificial turf -- was installed by FieldTurf Tarkett. In the summer of 2008, that turf was replaced with a new version to include the athletic department's new logo. In the summer of 2015, Joe Aillet Stadium received another upgraded surface as FieldTurf Revolution was installed in time for the upcoming season.

A brand new, state-of-the-art videoboard was installed in the north end zone in time for the 2009 season, a $2 million addition to the facility. Built by Daktronics, the national leader in scoreboard and videoboard manufacturers, it is 25 feet x 45 feet and can show one display or be split into multiple replays. In addition, the south end zone received a brand new LED scoreboard that all fans can easily see during the day or at night.

Construction on a new South End Zone facility began as ground was formally broken during the T-Day Spring Game in 2014. The removal of two sections of stands dropped the capacity to 27,717 for the 2014 season with capacity set to rise to 28,019 with the addition of 302 seats in a premium club section opening in time for the 2015 season.

As a tribute to the tremendous contributions of the Davison family, Louisiana Tech President Les Guice and Athletics Director Tommy McClelland announced on June 25, 2015 that the University is naming the new south end zone facility at Joe Aillet Stadium in honor of the Davison family. The Davison Athletics Complex will be home to the Bulldog football program as the $20 million-plus facility encloses the south end of the stadium.

The stadium's namesake -- Joe Aillet is a member of the Louisiana Tech Athletics Hall of Fame and the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame -- guided his Tech teams to a 151-86-8 record and nine conference championships from 1940-1966. The winning tradition Aillet established during his days of coaching at Louisiana Tech has continued as the Bulldogs have posted 10 perfect seasons in the facility's history.

From the first game ever played in the stadium, a 35-7 win over East Carolina on Sept. 28, 1968, to a 22-14 victory over SEC foe Mississippi State in 2008, Joe Aillet Stadium has been the site of some of the most magical moments in Louisiana Tech football history.

Joe Aillet Stadium has proven to be a tough place for opposing teams to play for more than four decades. Over the course of the stadium's history, Tech has dominated opponents as the 142-61-2 record indicates a winning percentage of 70 percent. Since Tech moved up to Division I-A in 1989, the Bulldogs have registered a mark of 80-33 at Joe Aillet Stadium, a winning percentage of over 70 percent.

In that inaugural game against East Carolina at Joe Aillet Stadium, a young quarterback named Terry Bradshaw guided the Bulldogs to the victory as Tech fullback Buster Herren scored the first touchdown ever at the stadium on a two-yard run with 6:20 remaining in the second quarter. It was just the first of many memorable moments for Tech fans in Ruston.

On two different occasions over the past 40-plus years, Tech has registered streaks of 18 straight wins at Joe Aillet Stadium.

The first such streak started with a 23-0 win over UL-Monroe in the final game of the 1971 season and ended with a 49-20 win over Tennessee-Chattanooga in the fifth game of the 1975 season. That run by coach Maxie Lambright's teams included two small college and one Division II national championship seasons.

During the late '80s and early '90s, the Bulldogs won their first 18 home games after joining the Division I-A ranks. Tech defeated Northern Illinois 42-21 in the first home game of the 1989 season to begin the streak with the last of the 18 wins being a 17-16 victory over Northern Illinois in 1993.

Included in that string of wins was a 31-30 victory over Colorado State on Nov. 17, 1990, that catapulted the Bulldogs into the 1990 Independence Bowl. Tech trailed 30-14 late in the third quarter before scoring 17 unanswered points, capped by Gene Johnson's 16-yard touchdown pass to Bobby Slaughter with 2:14 to play. The Bulldog defense held the Rams to four and out on their final possession as a wild celebration ensued, which ultimately ended in the goal posts in the south end zone being torn down by Tech fans.

One of the biggest individual matchups in the stadium's history came on Sept. 5, 1998, when two future NFL quarterbacks squared off as Central Florida's Daunte Culpepper led his team to a 64-30 win over Tech's Tim Rattay and the Bulldogs. Culpepper passed for 370 yards and four scores while rushing for 69 yards and two more touchdowns while Rattay passed for 524 yards and three touchdowns.

The 2000 season saw a milestone reached at Joe Aillet Stadium as the Bulldogs under head coach Jack Bicknell recorded the 100th win in the facility's history. True freshman quarterback Luke McCown tied an NCAA Division I freshman record by tossing six touchdowns in the milestone 48-14 victory over UL-Lafayette on Oct. 14, 2000.

Joe Aillet Stadium hosted its first nationally televised game on Dec. 5, 2002, when ESPN came to town to produce Louisiana Tech's game against Fresno State. Although Tech fell in the contest, it was another milestone for the program and the facility it has called home.

The 2004 season opened with another nationally televised home game, as the Bulldogs defeated Nevada 38-21 Sept. 6 on ESPN2. This was just a preview of things to come during the season at Joe Aillet Stadium.

Less than one month later, Tech fans were able to witness one of the greatest games in Joe Aillet Stadium history, as Louisiana Tech downed No. 17 Fresno State 28-21 on Oct. 2. Tech trailed 13-0 early in the second quarter before running back Ryan Moats and the Bulldog defense turned up their level of play. Moats rushed for 236 yards and four scores, including the game-winner with just under four minutes to play, which was set up by an interception deep in Fresno State territory.

The win was sealed when current Green Bay Packers star Tramon Williams intercepted Paul Pinegar with less than :30 remaining, starting a wild celebration that saw the goal posts in both end zones torn down.

The 2011 season saw disappointing lows early on but a wet championship finish. After leading Houston 34-7 with 20 minutes to play, Tech dropped a heart-breaking 35-34 decision to the Cougars but ended the year with seven straight wins, including two at home, as the Bulldogs clinched the 2011 WAC Championship with a 44-0 rout of New Mexico State in a driving rainstorm in late November.

These games and many more are what have made Tech fans the real winners over the years.

As the warm fall evenings approach and another year of Bulldog football begins, Joe Aillet Stadium will once again host some of the best college football the nation has to offer.

At the corridor inside the brand new Davison Athletics Complex in the southwest corner of Joe Aillet Stadium where the team enters and exits the field on game days, stands a bronze Bulldog statue named the Spirit of '88.

The statue commemorates the 1988 Bulldog football team that blazed the path into Division I-A football for Louisiana Tech.

That 1988 team had to endure one of the most difficult schedules in school history. In what was the nation's 11th toughest schedule that year, the Bulldogs faced five Division I-A bowl teams including Houston, Florida State and Texas A&M.

The results were as expected: losses like 60-0, 56-17 and 66-3 ... but as a team, the Bulldogs grew. Those experiences likely played a key role in Tech finishing 5-4-1 the following year, its first in I-A, and 8-3-1 in 1990's Independence Bowl season.

The statue, which every Tech player touches as he walks down the ramp before every home game, also brought good fortune to the Bulldogs at home. On Oct. 14, 1989, when it was unveiled, Tech proceeded to pummel a very good Northern Illinois team, 42-21. That was just the start of one of the best runs in Tech football history.

Over the next four-plus seasons, home games were few and far between, but each one resulted in a win. The Bulldogs eventually reeled off 18 consecutive home victories, tying the all-time stadium record set by head coach Maxie Lambright's great teams of the early 1970s.

Some wins have been more magical than others. The endings to three of the biggest wins in school history have taken place in the south end zone ... almost as if the Spirit of '88 has played an integral role.

In only Louisiana Tech's second season in the Division I-A ranks, the Bulldogs trailed Colorado State 30-14 late in the third quarter and their bowl hopes looked bleak. However, 17 unanswered points later, Tech had rallied for a 31-30 win over the bowl-bound Rams to earn their own Independence Bowl berth.

The winning touchdown pass from Gene Johnson to Bobby Slaughter in the final minutes came fittingly in the south end zone, just in front of the Spirit of '88.

Eleven years later, Tech clinched a share of its first Western Athletic Conference title with a 48-42 win over Boise State at Joe Aillet Stadium. With the Broncos driving towards what looked like a game-winning score late in the contest, the Spirit of '88 magic struck once again.

Ryan Dinwiddie's potential game-winning touchdown pass bounced off the helmet of a Tech defender and high into the air before Bulldog defensive lineman Brandon Avance plucked it out of the air, giving Tech the victory.

Some might say it's a coincidence that the two biggest wins in the program's Division I-A history had been decided in the south end zone under the watchful eyes of the Spirit of '88.

However, the third time proved it was more than just chance.

On a warm Oct. 2 evening in 2004, Louisiana Tech found itself trailing No. 17 ranked Fresno State 21-20 late in the fourth quarter.

Fresno State had the football and the momentum, trying to move out of its own end zone -- the south end zone -- against a Tech defense and its 12th man, or should we say Dawg.

On third down Fresno State quarterback Paul Pinegar was intercepted by Byron Santiago who returned the football down to the 16-yard line.

Two plays later, Ryan Moats gave Tech a 28-21 lead and the eventual win as he rushed eight yards to the right corner of the south end zone. The Bulldogs had defeated the 17th-ranked team in the nation.

A Joe Aillet Stadium crowd of almost 20,000 celebrated wildly with the Tech players, coaches and the Spirit of '88.

From 1989 to 2013, the Spirit of '88 stood at the bottom of the ramp in the south end of Joe Aillet Stadium. Due to construction on the Davison Athletics Complex during the 2014 season, it was temporarily relocated, but continued to be available for the team to touch before it takes the field.

For the first time in its history, the newly-mobilized Spirit of '88 accompanied the Bulldogs on a pair of road trips during the 2014 season. The bronze statue made an appearance in Huntington, West Virginia, for the Conference USA Championship game before traveling to the Zaxby's Heart of Dallas Bowl at Cotton Bowl Stadium in Dallas, where LA Tech came away with a 35-18 victory over Illinois.

Some may say the powers of that bronze Bulldog are a fluke. Tech fans won't agree. The numbers say 80 wins and just 33 losses at Joe Aillet Stadium since the Spirit of '88 was unveiled.

So fluke or not, the Bulldogs will continue to touch it each home game and hope the wins continue.

JOE AILLET STADIUM

INDEPENDENCE STADIUM

Independence Stadium and Louisiana Tech have a long, successful history together as the Bulldogs have played 71 games in Shreveport, including four trips to the Independence Bowl.

All-time the Bulldogs are 45-23-3 (.655) in games played in Independence Stadium. Northwestern State is the most common opponent for Tech in Shreveport as the two programs met 48 times with the Bulldogs claiming a 34-12-2 mark in those games and a 33-12-2 mark in Independence Stadium.

Although the majority of the games that Tech has played in Shreveport came during the old State Fair Games against Northwestern State, starting in the late '30s and ending in the late '80s, Tech has played some other big-time college football games at the site.

In the last two decades, Louisiana Tech has faced Northern Illinois (2008), Houston (1988), Maryland (1990), Baylor (1996), California (1997), Texas A&M (1999 and 2012), Oklahoma State (2002) and Miami (2003) at Independence Stadium. Thrilling last-minute victories against California (41-34) and Oklahoma State (39-36) highlight the Bulldogs' successful history in Shreveport while the 59-57, four-and-a-half hour loss to No. 22 Texas A&M in 2012 will not be forgotten as one of the most exciting Bulldog games to ever be played in Shreveport.

In all, Tech has played 20 different teams at Independence Stadium, and the Bulldogs have appeared in four Independence Bowls, beating Louisville 24-14 in 1977, losing 35-13 to East Carolina in 1978, tying Maryland 34-34 in 1990 and defeating Northern Illinois 17-10 in 2008.

Louisiana Tech opened the 2003 season at Independence Stadium as the Bulldogs played host to five-time national champion Miami on Aug. 28, 2003, in a nationally televised game on ESPN, which saw a Louisiana Tech regular season home attendance record of 43,279.

Independence Stadium originally opened as State Fair Stadium in 1925. It has gone through numerous renovations and expansions over the years with the most recent being the installation of FieldTurf in late 2010.

Conference USA: Positioned for the Future

- Founded in 1995, C-USA is made up of 14 growing institutions, in large and thriving markets, with tremendous upside potential.
- Tens of thousands of students have competed in athletics at Conference USA schools, with a vast majority of those graduating.
- C-USA membership includes institutions in 10 of the Top 75 television markets, seven in the Top 40 and four in the Top 25 media markets according to SNL Kagan. C-USA home markets encompass more than 13.3 million TV households, a 31 percent increase to the 10.1 million homes prior to realignment in 2013.
- C-USA is a highly-recognized national brand. The league has great television partnerships with Fox Sports Media Group, CBS Sports Network, Sinclair Broadcasting Group/American Sports Network and ESPN.
- With a 4-1 record, C-USA clinched the best winning percentage (.800) in bowl games among all leagues for the third time in four years. C-USA now has a record of 15-6 in bowl games over the past four years.
- C-USA has 10 bowl affiliations through the 2019 season, in addition to our inclusion in the College Football Playoff System.
- Five C-USA men's basketball teams and five women's basketball teams advanced to the postseason in 2015.
- Conference USA has recognized more than 30,000 student-athletes for their academic achievements. Since 2006, the number of student-athletes qualifying for the Commissioner's Honor Roll (3.0 GPA or better) has increased by more than 70 percent. Additionally, the number of Academic Medalists (3.75 or better) increased 135 percent in six years.
- Since 2008-09, Conference USA has acknowledged more than 210 student-athletes through the Spirit of Service Award, highlighting community outreach and athletic and academic achievements.

SUCCESS ON THE PLAYING FIELD

Conference USA performers have achieved great success in competition, placing the league among the top conferences in the nation.

Football

- 88 teams have earned bowl bids
- Eligible for the College Football Playoff
- Conference USA has 11 bowl affiliations through the 2019 season, securing a minimum of five berths annually. Conference USA has primary bowl tie-ins with the Arizona Bowl, Boca Raton Bowl, Gildan New Mexico Bowl, Hawaii Bowl, Miami Beach Bowl, Popeyes Bahamas Bowl, R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl, St. Petersburg Bowl and Zaxby's Heart of Dallas Bowl, along with secondary arrangements with the Independence Bowl and the Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl.

SUCCESS OFF THE FIELD

C-USA institutions are among the nation's best in academic performance of student-athletes, bolstered by the fact that student-athletes at league schools have a higher graduation rate than the general student population. Among C-USA's 5,000 student-athletes, there are champions off the playing field as well. In 20 years, nearly 30,000 student-athletes have been named to the Commissioner's Honor Roll or received the Commissioner's Academic Medal, indicative of outstanding achievement in the classroom.

C-USA ON TV

C-USA enjoys significant television exposure through partnerships with FOX Sports Media Group, CBS Sports Network, ESPN and American Sports Network (ASN). The multi-tiered selection process that is rooted in partnering with all four networks has substantially increased the number of national and regional appearances for football, men's and women's basketball, and all other conference sports.

C-USA membership include institutions within eight of the Top 40 media markets and four in the Top 25 according to Nielsen. C-USA home markets this year will include more than 13 million TV households, a 30 percent increase from two years ago.

C-USA DIGITAL NETWORK

The C-USA Digital Network officially launched in August of 2011. Network programming includes live streaming of non-televised events, video on demand, a weekly C-USA studio show, podcasting, regular-season and championship event highlights, and conference-produced feature stories. In its first year, 1,164 events were streamed live and 8,126 videos were posted and available on the C-USA Digital Network, and those numbers have more than doubled. Monthly and yearly subscriptions provide fans access to events offered on all of the C-USA member institution's athletic websites as well as C-USA network programming.

C-USA IN THE COMMUNITY

The conference's current footprint is concentrated with 14 members in 10 states and a combined area population of more than 30 million. With a commitment to community involvement, the conference developed several initiatives to maintain strong ties in C-USA cities, as well as with fans and alumni across the country. C-USA schools also place a priority on giving back to their communities through volunteer service with local and national organizations. Individually, student-athletes are recognized each season through the Spirit of Service award.

GOVERNANCE

Conference USA has significant representation in the NCAA governance structure. The presidents of the member institutions serve as the league's Board of Directors.

2015 C-USA FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Conference USA will host its 11th football championship game in 2015.

The event is slated for Saturday, December 5, and will be televised by ESPN or ESPN 2. The team with the highest league winning percentage will serve as host site for the game.

The title game will feature champions from the East and West divisions of the league. Six different schools have hosted the first 10 championship games.

Marshall won its first Conference USA Football Championship last season with a 23-16 win over Louisiana Tech in Huntington, W. Va. In 2013, Rice won its first C-USA Football title with a victory over Marshall at Rice Stadium. Southern Miss won the 2011 C-USA Championship, when the nationally-ranked Golden Eagles defeated previously undefeated Houston on the Cougars home field. Former members East Carolina, Tulsa and UCF each won two championship games, while Houston claimed one crown.

C-USA TIEBREAKER
Home field for the C-USA Championship Game will be awarded to the team that posts the highest regular season winning percentage against conference opposition. The first tiebreaker is the winner of a head-to-head match-up.
If still tied, the most recent College Football Playoff Selection Committee poll will be used if one team or both teams are ranked. If they remain tied, highest average computer ranking will be used.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS
Members of the media that wish to cover the C-USA Championship game will be required to request credentials through the league's online credential application system available at conferenceusa.com/Media Center.

Details about the C-USA Championship Game will be available throughout the season on conferenceusa.com. For additional information, please contact C-USA Media Relations at 214/774-1300.

C-USA BOWL OVERVIEW 2015-2019
Conference USA will have 11 bowl affiliations through the 2019 season, securing a minimum of five berths annually and offering fans a number of great destinations across America and beyond.

Conference USA has agreements with three bowls in the state of Florida: the Boca Raton Bowl, the Miami Beach Bowl and the St. Petersburg Bowl, along with an agreement with the Popeyes Bahamas Bowl near the coast of the Sunshine State. C-USA maintains longtime relationships with the Zaxby's Heart of Dallas Bowl and the R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl in the central region as well as the Gildan New Mexico Bowl in the southwest and the Hawaii Bowl in the far West. New this year will be an agreement with the new Arizona Bowl in Tucson, Ariz.

Conference USA has secondary agreements with two bowls also located right within the league's footprint, giving teams the opportunities to participate in the Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl in Fort Worth, Texas and the Independence Bowl in Shreveport, La.

In these bowls, Conference USA will have the opportunity to face opponents from the American Athletic, Big 12, Big Ten, Mid-American, Mountain West and Sun Belt Conferences.

C-USA BOWL 2015 SYNOPSIS
Conference USA has secured guaranteed commitments with seven bowl partners for the 2015 season, as well as one secondary agreement: The Arizona, Gildan New Mexico, Miami Beach, Popeyes Bahamas, R+L Carriers New Orleans, St. Petersburg and Zaxby's Heart of Dallas Bowls are primary agreements. The Independence Bowl in Shreveport, La., is a secondary agreement, should the ACC or SEC not be able to provide a bowl-eligible team. There is no set selection order among C-USA's bowl partners.

As a member of the College Football Playoff, Conference USA will be a part of one of the CFP bowls if it produces the highest rated champion from among the American Athletic, C-USA, Mid-American, Mountain West and Sun Belt Conferences.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL PLAYOFF

The Playoff
During 2014-15 season, college football entered a new era when postseason playoffs began. The format is simple: top four teams, two semifinals played in bowl games, and a national championship game played in a different city each year. Each semifinal will be played during the New Year's holiday with the national championship game in prime time on a Monday night at least a week later.

The Selection Committee
A selection committee will choose the four teams for the playoff based on their performance during the regular season, including, strength of schedule, head-to-head results, championships won, and other factors. The teams will be seeded so that #1 will play #4 in one semifinal and #2 will meet #3 in the other, with the winners advancing to the national championship game.

The Rotation
The semifinals will rotate among six different bowls, extending the experience to more fans. In the years when the bowls are not hosting semifinals, the bowls will feature eight other teams in four compelling matchups.

For the 2015-16 season, the Peach Bowl (Dec. 31), Fiesta Bowl (Dec. 31), Rose Bowl presented by Northwestern Mutual (Jan. 1) and Allstate Sugar Bowl (Jan. 1) will host its regular bowl games, while the Capital One Orange (Dec. 31) and Goodyear Cotton Bowl (Dec. 31) will host semifinals. The College Football Championship will be held on Monday, Jan. 11 in Glendale, Ariz.

C-USA and the College Football Playoff
As a member of the College Football Playoff, Conference USA will be a part of one of the College Football Playoff bowls if it has the highest rated champion from among the American Athletic, C-USA, Mid-American, Mountain West and Sun Belt Conferences.

#4/3 OKLAHOMA SOONERS 48

LOUISIANA TECH BULLDOGS 16

GAYLORD FAMILY-OKLAHOMA MEMORIAL STADIUM
NORMAN, OKLA.

NORMAN, Okla. - Oklahoma entered Saturday night's game ranked as high as No. 3 and the Sooners showed why, rolling up 436 yards of offense in a 48-16 win over Louisiana Tech in front of 85,063 at Gaylord Family-Oklahoma Memorial Stadium in Norman.

In his first career start, LA Tech's Cody Sokol threw for 191 yards and two touchdowns in a 22-for-36 performance, throwing only one interception. The Bulldogs ended up winning the turnover battle as Oklahoma's Trevor Knight was intercepted by Houston Bates while Vontarrius Dora recovered an OU fumble.

The Sooners were paced by five touchdowns scored on the ground by three Oklahoma running backs while Knight was 19-for-34 for 253 yards with one touchdown pass.

Kentrell Brice led the Bulldog defense with nine total tackles (six solo, three assisted) while Le'Vander Liggins added seven solo tackles.

The Sooners often controlled the line of scrimmage, racking up 183 yards on the ground while a tough defense held Tech's talented running backs to a total 54 yards on 29 attempts on the ground.

Oklahoma scored on its first drive of the game but needed a 4th down conversion to keep its initial drive alive. Keith Ford ran for a 22-yard score with 10:22 left in the first quarter after Trevor Knight's pass to Dimitri Flowers bailed the Sooners out of a 4th-and-short situation in Tech territory.

On its next possession, OU drove 54 yards in five plays in a drive that was capped off by a Sterling Shepard 16-yard touchdown catch from Knight to give OU the 14-0 lead.

In his first field goal attempt on the collegiate level, LA Tech's Jonathan Barnes had a 51-yard attempt blocked by Oklahoma as the Sooners ran it back to the Tech 42-yard line. That eventually set up a five-yard touchdown run by Ford to give OU the 21-0 advantage with 33 seconds left in the first half.

A Sokol interception early in the second quarter gave Oklahoma the ball at midfield and the Sooners would drive to the Tech 22-yard line but a big hit by Xavier Woods at the line of scrimmage followed by an incomplete pass by Knight would force Oklahoma's Michael Hunnicutt to kick a 39-yard field goal for the 24-0 Sooner lead.

Near the end of the half, Oklahoma would drive down again and score, this time the touchdown coming off of a one-yard run by Alex Ross.

Tech would finally get on the board with eight seconds left as Jonathan Barnes connected on a 36-yard field goal.

Oklahoma struck quickly in the second half as Alex Ross scored on an eight-yard run. The Sooners reached the end zone in only 1:29, driving 75 yards in five plays.

Tech's defense had held OU to 4th-and-long with the Sooners set to punt but an illegal substitution flag on the Bulldogs gave OU 4th-and-3 instead of 4th-and-8. The short distance prompted Oklahoma to pull its punter off the field and the Sooners converted the fourth down. The Bulldogs would still hold OU to a field goal as Hunnicutt connected on a 37-yard kick, giving the Sooners the 41-3 lead.

LA Tech mounted a nine-play, 59-yard drive in a four-plus minute time span that straddled the third and fourth quarters with Kenneth Dixon breaking a tackle and back flipping into the end zone for a touchdown with 14:49 left in the game.

The Sooners would respond with Ross running the kickoff back 80 yards to set up the seven-yard touchdown run by Samaje Perine three plays later as OU extended its lead to 48-10.

LOUISIANA TECH BULLDOGS 48
UL-LAFAYETTE RAGIN' CAJUNS 20

CAJUN FIELD
LAFAYETTE, LA.

LAFAYETTE, La. - For Louisiana Tech, it was just another Louisiana Saturday Night. LA Tech (1-1) racked up 533 yards of offense and never trailed while Kenneth Dixon set a new Tech and Conference USA record for the longest rush as the Bulldogs ran by in-state rival Louisiana-Lafayette (1-1), 48-20, Saturday night in front of 25,607 fans at Cajun Field.

The win extended Tech's winning streak over ULL to seven games, the longest by either side in an in-state rivalry that dates back to 1910. Tech now leads the overall series, 47-33-6, in Louisiana's second-longest standing rivalry among in-state teams.

Dixon's 99-yard touchdown run marked the first score in the game and the longest rush by any Louisiana Tech or Conference USA player in history. The junior running back would run for 184 yards and two touchdowns.

Quarterback Cody Sokol was impressive behind center, passing for 295 yards and two touchdowns in a 22-for-33 performance.

Overall, Louisiana Tech forced three turnovers with a pick-six by Xavier Woods and fumble recoveries by Le'Vander Liggins and Lloyd Grogan.

C.J. Cleveland led the Bulldogs defensively with 14 total tackles, 10 unassisted and four assisted, while Bryson Abraham and Woods each had six total tackles to help lead LA Tech to a victory.

With just over four minutes remaining in the first quarter, ULL pinned LA Tech deep on a punt, downing the ball on Tech's one-yard line, but on the first play of the drive Dixon took the ball and raced 99 yards untouched to give the Bulldogs the 7-0 lead. Dixon's run set a new school and Conference USA record for the longest rush.

UL-Lafayette responded on its next drive as Alonzo Harris punched in the tying touchdown from six yards out on the first play of the second quarter.

After trading possessions, Louisiana Tech's Tony Johnson forced a turnover on downs as ULL attempted a 4th-and-1 conversion on LA Tech's 39-yard line. Following that stop, the Bulldogs drove down the field for a score capped off by Hunter Lee's 16-yard touchdown catch from Sokol as the Bulldogs took a 14-7 lead with 4:33 left in the first half. Lee was responsible for 45 yards receiving on four catches in that nine-play, 61-yard drive.

The Bulldogs would add to their lead in the first half as Jonathan Barnes kicked a 28-yard field goal with 10 seconds remaining in the second quarter giving Tech the 17-7 lead, the Bulldogs first halftime lead since a 36-13 win over Southern Miss in the Rivalry in Dixie last year in Ruston.

On the second play from scrimmage in the second half, Sokol connected with Sterling Griffin for a 78-yard touchdown pass - a career-long mark for both players - as Tech took the 24-7 lead just 49 seconds into the half.

Louisiana-Lafayette was mounting a drive in the third quarter before Woods picked off Terrance Broadway and ran it back 46 yards for a touchdown with 3:45 left in the third quarter.

Dixon would not be done for the night as he would run for a touchdown from 32 yards out with 13:32 left in the game, giving the Bulldogs a 38-7 lead.

After Grogan forced and recovered a fumble, the Bulldogs were set up for Barnes to kick a 42-yard field goal with 11:03 left in the game, edging Tech's lead out to 41-7.

ULL would finally strike back in the fourth quarter as Broadway found Effrem Reed for a 20-yard touchdown pass to cut LA Tech's lead to 41-14 with 9:34 remaining in the game.

Louisiana Tech continued to tack on points later in the fourth as the Bulldogs put together an 11-play, 75-yard drive, which resulted in a two-yard rushing touchdown by Jarred Craft to make it 48-14 in favor of LA Tech.

The Ragin' Cajuns completed the scoring for the night as ULL's Brooks Haack connected with Gabe Fuselier for a four-yard touchdown as time expired to make it a 48-20 final score.

LOUISIANA TECH BULLDOGS 42

NORTH TEXAS MEAN GREEN 21

APOGEE STADIUM
DENTON, TEXAS

DENTON, Texas - Cody Sokol threw five touchdown passes and Louisiana Tech's offense came alive again as the Bulldogs showed their road grit for the second time in five days by rolling over North Texas, 42-21, in front of 16,998 at Apogee Stadium in Denton Thursday night.

Sokol connected with eight different Bulldog receivers to claim the first Conference USA victory of the season as the senior was 20-for-31 on the night with 243 yards and five touchdowns, including two touchdown passes to Paul Turner, as LA Tech (2-1, 1-0 C-USA) never trailed North Texas (1-2, 0-1 C-USA) in the game. Sokol is the first LA Tech quarterback to throw for five touchdowns since Colby Cameron did so on Oct. 13, 2012 versus Texas A&M.

"Offensively, we got off to a slow start, but Cody Sokol settled down after he got hit a couple time and came out here and played well," head coach Skip Holtz said. "There are some guys that are making some plays on the perimeter and obviously there are some things we have to get better at as well, so we are still a work in progress. We have to continue to develop depth because it is a long season."

Turner ended the night with three receptions for 34 yards and two touchdown receptions, while Trent Taylor reeled in five receptions for 54 yards and a touchdown. In Carlos Henderson's first action of the season, the wide receiver caught a team-high six passes for 40 yards. Hunter Lee also reached the end zone with three catches for 52 yards and a score.

Kenneth Dixon ran the ball 19 times, good for 75 yards and a touchdown, which helped the tailback move up to ninth place all-time in LA Tech history with 222 career points. Dixon also cracked the top 10 in career rushing yards in school history, ranking 10th with a total of 2,412 career yards.

On the defensive side of the ball, Nick Thomason led the Bulldogs with seven total tackles as LA Tech held North Texas to just two total yards of offense in the first quarter. Tech also held North Texas scoreless in the first half for the first time since the 2012 season.

"We are pretty physical on defense and we can do a lot of things," Holtz said of what he learned from his team tonight. "Right now, I think we can do a lot of things. The defense is playing with some energy and some pride. There is a lot that goes into this defense. I have been going up against it for 30 days and I still can't figure it out."

Both teams were held scoreless in the first quarter before the Bulldogs would mount a 10-play, 60-yard drive on their first possession in the second frame as Josh Gaston caught his first collegiate pass - which just happened to be for a touchdown - on a four-yard gain in the red zone as Tech took the 7-0 lead.

After holding North Texas to a three-and-out, Louisiana Tech quickly drove back down the field going 67 yards in four plays as Sokol found Hunter Lee for a 28-yard score.

After another Mean Green three-and-out, Louisiana Tech went up 21-0 behind a 53-yard drive that ended with Paul Turner's first career touchdown catch on a five-yard reception in the end zone. NT would gain its first non-penalty first down of the half on its last drive of the second quarter, but would still be forced to punt as Tech held an opponent in the first half for the first time since blanking New Mexico State in the first half in 2012.

Tech's defense set up Dixon's 37th career touchdown as Terrell Pinson forced and ran back a fumble to the North Texas two-yard line setting up Dixon's run on the first and only play of the drive as the Bulldogs took the 28-0 lead.

North Texas struck for the first time on its next drive as Josh Greer scored from five-yards out with 4:15 left in the third quarter, cutting Tech's lead to 28-7. UNT was aided by a big play on Greer's pass to Carlos Harris, accounting for 23 of the 59 yards on the drive.

Two big runs for Kenneth Dixon set up Turner's second touchdown catch of the night as he reeled in a 21-yard pass from Sokol to give LA Tech the 35-7 advantage with 1:46 left in the third quarter.

Tech recovered what is technically considered a fumble as Gerald Shouse's punt ricocheted off a North Texas player. Beau Fitte recovered the football which set up Cody Sokol's fifth touchdown pass of the game, this time a 12-yard strike to Trent Taylor on the first play of the drive, pushing Tech's lead to 42-7.

With under four minutes to go in regulation, North Texas running back Antoinne Jimmerson punched it in for a three-yard rushing touchdown for the Mean Green, which capped off a nine play, 71-yard scoring drive to cut LA Tech's lead to 42-14.

North Texas would reach the end zone one final time in the game as Erick Evans capitalized on a five play, 64-yard scoring drive with a nine-yard rushing touchdown with 34 seconds left to give LA Tech a 42-21 victory over the Mean Green.

NORTHWESTERN STATE DEMONS 30
LOUISIANA TECH BULLDOGS 27

JOE AILLET STADIUM
RUSTON, LA.

RUSTON, La. - Louisiana Tech committed five turnovers, including three in the fourth quarter, and Northwestern State capitalized each time, including Chris Moore's 47-yard field goal as time expired to lift the Demons to a 30-27 upset win over the Bulldogs before 26,004 fans at Joe Aillet Stadium Saturday night.

Moore's game-winner split the uprights as Northwestern State won the 78th meeting ever between the two schools and the first in 20 years.

The game-winning kick came after the Bulldogs (2-2) committed their fifth turnover of the night - and second in their final two offensive plays of the game - as Cody Sokol's pass was tipped by Imoan Claiborne and intercepted by Adam Jones at the Tech 49 with 52 seconds to play in the game.

Following the interception, NSU moved the ball down to the Tech 30 on two completions by Zach Adkins to Cody Jones, setting up the final play of the night.

"We did things tonight that we haven't done this year; the turnovers, the penalties," said Tech head coach Skip Holtz. "I said coming into this game it was all about us. I thought we competed; I didn't have any issues with our effort. We simply made way too many mistakes. I give Northwestern State a lot of credit. They played extremely hard and took advantage of our mistakes."

Tech appeared poised to fight off the valiant effort by Northwestern State numerous times in the fourth quarter. Dixon's five-yard touchdown run with 8:35 to play in the fourth quarter gave the Bulldogs a 27-17 lead, as the run capped a six play, 38-yard drive following a Kentrell Brice interception of Adkins.

Northwestern State (2-2) immediately countered, driving 58 yards on 10 plays and scoring on De'Mard Llorens 14-yard run off the right side with 4:20 to play in the game. Moore's extra point cut the Tech lead to 27-24.

After NSU kicked off to the Bulldogs, LA Tech turned to the ground game and Dixon. Back-to-back runs by the junior tailback tallied nine yards and set up a third down and one play with less than three minutes to play. However, on the third down run, Dixon earned the first down but then fumbled the ball as NSU's Marion Chapman recovered for the Demons on the Tech 35.

Once again, NSU capitalized. Adkins drove the Demons down to the Tech 10 where the Bulldogs defense forced a Moore 29-yard field goal that tied the game at 27-27 with 1:05 to play, setting up the final sequence of events for the night.

The game started out as many folks had predicted. Kenneth Dixon put the Bulldogs on the board early as he caught a 38-yard pass from Sokol and ran up the sideline into the end zone giving Tech the 7-0 lead.

Dixon had another touchdown reception but the score was waived off as Tech was called for offensive pass interference. After being pushed back by consecutive penalties and failing to move the chains, Jonathan Barnes came on to hit a 38-yard field goal as Tech extended its lead to 10-0.

With 6:15 left in the second quarter the Demons finally got on the board, intercepting Cody Sokol on the NSU 29-yard line then driving 47 yards to set up the 41-yard field goal by Chris Moore, cutting Tech's advantage to 10-3.

Penalties stalled another LA Tech drive late in the second quarter but Jonathan Barnes added to Tech's lead as he kicked a 44-yard field goal with seven seconds left in the half, pushing Tech's lead to 13-3.

Garrett Atzenweiler would pull Northwestern State within a field goal with 4:20 left in the third quarter as he ran for a four-yard touchdown, capping off a 12-play, 54-yard drive to cut Tech's lead to a 13-10 Bulldog advantage.

The Bulldogs would respond with a 10-play, 60-yard drive capped off by a 3-yard run by Dixon to push the Bulldogs' lead to 20-10.

A muffed punt return by Trent Taylor would give the Demons the ball on the Tech 27-yard line and it would take NSU only two plays to score, punching it in from 10-yards out on an Atzenweiler run to cut Tech's lead to 20-17.

Kenneth Dixon tied Arry Moody in Tech history with his 36th career rushing touchdown with 8:35 remaining in the game to push Tech's lead back out to 10, this time scoring from 5-yards out.

But that would be the last thing that would go Tech's way. Northwestern State would respond with a touchdown off a 14-yard run by De'Mar Llorens and then a Dixon fumble would give the Demons the ball at the Tech 35-yard line. While the Bulldog defense would hold Northwestern State to a field goal to tie the game, 27-27, bad luck would still befall the Bulldogs.

AUBURN, Ala. - Louisiana Tech committed two costly turnovers that spotted No. 5/5 Auburn 14 points and the Bulldogs could not overcome the early miscues in a 45-17 loss at No. 5/5 Auburn Saturday afternoon in front of 87,451 at Jordan-Hare Stadium.

Cody Sokol passed for 216 yards in a 20-for-35 performance with his lone interception coming off a pass tipped at the line of scrimmage by Auburn's defensive line. Trent Taylor caught eight passes for 80 yards while Kenneth Dixon was responsible for 50 all-purpose yards with 29 rushing and 21 receiving while running for two touchdowns.

LA Tech (2-3) was able to move the ball after a slow first quarter with 321 total yards on 68 plays while the Bulldogs held on to the ball for almost 32 minutes.

Tony Johnson led a Tech defense that held Auburn to a 6-for-14 completion rate on third down as he tallied 10 tackles. Xavier Woods, Terrell Pinson and Kentrell Brice each added eight tackles.

"I thought schematically, our defense played extremely well," Louisiana Tech head coach Skip Holtz said. "I thought Manny Diaz had a great plan. I thought our players executed it. I thought our defense played their tails off. The same things that bit us in the toe this week is the same thing that bit us in the toe last week."

Auburn's first score was set up courtesy of a Cody Sokol tipped pass that was intercepted by Montravius Adams and returned to the 5-yard line, setting up a five-yard touchdown run by Artis-Payne at the 8:28 mark in the first quarter.

The Tech defense stood tall early in the second quarter as Auburn reached the red zone but failed to convert a first down after that, forcing the Tigers to kick a 25-yard field goal for the 10-0 lead with 11:49 remaining in the first half.

Tech had a chance to pull within a touchdown with 5:48 left in the second quarter but Jonathan Barnes would miss a 37-yard field goal wide right marking Louisiana Tech's first missed scoring opportunity in the red zone this year.

Auburn's Duke Williams made an acrobatic, one-handed catch on an 18-yard pass from Nick Marshall that was initially tipped by Tony Johnson giving the Tigers the 17-0 lead with 1:36 left in the second quarter.

Louisiana Tech was driving down the field and Trent Taylor had made a first down catch but fumbled the ball away, giving Auburn the ball on Tech's 37-yard line. The Tigers struck quick after a six-yard loss then a six-yard gain with a 37-yard touchdown pass from Nick Marshall to Quan Bray to extend the lead to 24-0 with 34 seconds remaining in the first half.

The Bulldogs got the ball back with good field position as Carlos Henderson had a 27-yard kickoff return that was pushed even farther downfield due to a 15-yard personal foul called on Auburn. With five plays, LA Tech was able to drive 63 yards to set up a 25-yard field goal by Jonathan Barnes to get on the board as time in the first half expired, cutting Auburn's lead to 24-3.

Kenneth Dixon would leap over a pile for a one-yard touchdown run with 6:54 left in the third quarter to cut Auburn's lead to 24-10 and LA Tech's defense would hold Auburn scoreless in the third quarter - a first for the Tigers this season.

Early in the fourth quarter, Quan Bray caught a 44-yard pass from Nick Marshall to push Auburn's lead to 31-10. After the Tigers forced Tech to punt, Bray struck again with a 76-yard punt return for a touchdown.

Dixon would score again, this time from nine-yards out to cut the lead to 38-17 before Auburn would drive down once again with Jeremy Johnson throwing a 15-yard touchdown pass to C.J. Uzomah giving the Tigers a 45-17 advantage.

LOUISIANA TECH BULLDOGS 55
UTEP MINERS 3

JOE AILLET STADIUM
RUSTON, LA.

RUSTON, La. - Louisiana Tech dominated in every phase of the game for four quarters as the Bulldogs ran rough shot through UTEP, 55-3, Saturday night before 18,157 fans at Joe Aillet Stadium.

The 52-point margin of victory was the largest by a Tech team since a 63-10 win over Mississippi Valley State in the season opener in 2000. It was also the largest margin of victory in a conference game since a 61-6 win over UL-Monroe in 1953.

"This was by far our most complete game of the year," said Tech head coach Skip Holtz.

Maybe the understatement of the night.

The Bulldogs defense held a Miners (2-3, 0-1 C-USA) team averaging over 30 points per game to only a field goal. UTEP running back Aaron Jones entered the game ranked seventh in the nation averaging almost 150 yards per game on the ground but managed only 63 yards on 18 carries. Tech forced five turnovers by a UTEP team that had committed only one all season. The Bulldogs also sacked quarterback Jameill Showers three times - he had only been sacked once all season.

Offensively, Tech scored on nine of its first 12 possessions and outgained UTEP 443 yards to 224 - the Miners managed only 30 yards of total offense after halftime. Tech outrushed UTEP 256 to 81.

Tech's dominance started from the opening kickoff.

Tech scored the first 28 points of the game and took a 28-3 lead into the halftime locker room. And unlike two weeks ago when the Bulldogs saw a smaller halftime lead evaporate in a loss to Northwestern State at home, this time the Bulldogs put the nails in the proverbial coffin in the third quarter.

With the victory, Tech enters its bye week with a 3-3 overall record, but more importantly, with a 2-0 mark in Conference USA action. Tech sits atop the West Division standings alone as it will prepare to host UTSA Oct. 18.

Louisiana Tech struck first as the Bulldogs marched 53 yards on their first possession following a UTEP punt, scoring in eight plays as Kenneth Dixon ran it in from four yards out. Six of the eight plays on the drive were rushes as the Bulldogs established the run game early.

Early in the second quarter Xavier Woods picked off Jameill Showers for his third interception of the season. Only two plays later, Sokol faked a handoff to Dixon and ran around the right tackle untouched for 32 yards and a touchdown to push Tech's lead out to 14-0.

Another Woods' interception set up another two-play scoring drive for the Bulldogs as this time Sokol connected with Carlos Henderson on a 69-yard touchdown pass to push the Bulldogs' lead out to 21-0 with 9:39 remaining in the second quarter. Henderson ended the night with two catches for 100 yards while also adding one rush for 27 yards.

Although Tech led by three touchdowns, UTEP tried to fight their way back into the game. The Miners marched 57 yards on 14 plays and appeared ready to put points on the board. However, a 28-yard field goal attempt by Jay Mattox was blocked by Lloyd Grogan and recovered by Adairius Barnes. Barnes then returned the ball 15 yards before lateraling it to Le'Vander Liggins who ran the final for 54 yards for a touchdown as Tech led 28-0 with 5:08 remaining in the quarter.

UTEP was able to get on the board with 22 seconds left in the half as Mattox connected on a 36-yard field goal and the teams entered halftime with LA Tech leading, 28-3.

Tech opened the second half with the football. It proceeded to take almost six minutes off the clock and added a 45-yard field goal by Jonathan Barnes to extend the Bulldogs' lead to 31-3. The score capped a 13-play, 41-yard drive that ate 5 minutes and 53 seconds off the clock.

On the ensuing possession Tech would turn another UTEP turnover into points as Tony Johnson forced and Houston Bates recovered a fumble to set up a one-play scoring drive as Sokol found Hunter Lee for a 20-yard touchdown pass, extending the Bulldog lead to 38-3.

Barnes would connect on a field goal on Tech's next drive, hitting a 39-yard kick to push Tech's lead to 41-3.

Another Miner turnover would set up a quick scoring drive for the Bulldogs as Tech pushed its lead to 48-3. Marcus Gaines made his first career catch a memorable one as he made an impressive one-handed catch in the end zone despite tight coverage for a touchdown.

Tech added an 18-yard touchdown run by Jarred Craft with 3:20 to play in the game to finish the scoring.

UTEP threatened to score late but as time winded off the clock Colby Brown intercepted Showers' pass to complete the dominating performance, from start to finish.

Sokol ended the night 6-of-16 for 173 yards and 3 touchdowns while Lee (3-55-1), Henderson (2-100-1) and Gaines (1-18-1) led the Tech receivers. Dixon finished with 86 yards and one score on the ground while Sokol (60 yards, 1 score) and Craft (44 yards, 1 score) helped pave the way.

UTSA ROADRUNNERS 20

JOE AILLET STADIUM
RUSTON, LA.

RUSTON, La. - On a day where points were at a premium due to the stellar play of the two defenses, Louisiana Tech turned three third-quarter turnovers into 21 points as the Bulldogs held on for a 27-20 victory over UTSA 18,071 fans at Joe Aillet Stadium.

With the win, Tech (4-3, 3-0 C-USA) maintains its lead in the West Division standings, heading into next weekend's showdown at Southern Miss.

Tech linebacker Terrell Pinson spearheaded the turnover barrage for the Bulldogs, returning a shotgun snap fumble two yards for a TD and then registering back-to-back interceptions which were also converted into scores.

Pinson's TD with 11:33 to play in the third quarter gave Tech (4-3, 3-0 C-USA) its first lead of the game as Jonathan Barnes point after attempt gave the Bulldogs a 13-10 advantage. On a third-down-and-12 play from the UTSA 15-yard line, freshman quarterback Austin Robinson had the shotgun snap sail through his hands. As the ball bounced towards the end zone, Pinson outraced Robinson, grabbed it on a bounce and hit paydirt.

On UTSA's ensuing possession, Pinson struck again. On a second-down-and-11 play from the Roadrunners 49-yard line, Pinson intercepted Robinson and returned it to the UTSA 40-yard line. The Bulldogs offense capitalized as Cody Sokol hit Sterling Griffin for a 19-yard TD down the middle of the field. Barnes PAT made the score 20-10 with 9:01 remaining in the third quarter. Griffin led Tech receivers with six catches for 70 yards and one score.

The UTSA defense limited Sokol most of the day as the senior completed 14-of-31 passes for 157 yards and one touchdown. He was intercepted one time.

Pinson recorded the turnover trifecta on the Roadrunners next possession, as Robinson's pass sailed over the intended receiver's hands and Pinson picked it out of the air, racing 19 yards to the UTSA 11-yard line.

Tech running back Kenneth Dixon scored two plays later from three yards out as the Bulldogs led 27-10. Dixon finished the day with 121 yards and one score on 28 carries in the game.

Tech scored the three touchdowns in a four-minute span. Thanks to the Tech defense, the Bulldogs offense only had to drive a total of 51 yards for the three touchdowns

Late in the third quarter UTSA (2-5, 1-2 C-USA) faced a third down and 30 on their own 42 yard line, and it appeared as if the Bulldogs would force another punt. However, Robinson hit Jarveon Williams on a screen pass and Williams turned what appeared to be a five-yard gain into a 31-yard play as he reversed the field and raced to the Tech 27-yard line.

The Bulldog defense eventually held as Sean Ianno booted a 27-yard field goal, cutting the deficit to 27-13 with 14:50 to play in the fourth quarter.

Following a three-and-out by the Bulldog offense, UTSA marched to the Tech 35-yard line after converting a fourth-down-and-1. The Roadrunners then used some trickery as wide receiver Kam Jones caught a lateral from Robinson and then tossed it 35-yards downfield to a wide open Kenny Harrison for the score. Ianno's PAT made it 27-20 with 11:17 to play.

The Bulldogs defense stood tall on UTSA's next possession and following a short punt from deep in its own end, Tech took over on the Roadrunner 43 with 8:09 to play. After picking up a couple of first downs, Tech's offense eventually stalled as Jonathan Barnes came on with a chance to give Tech a double digit lead. However, Barnes' 40-yard field goal attempt missed wide right as UTSA took over with 3:08 to play.

Three first downs later, UTSA moved inside of Tech territory with a chance to tie. However, the Bulldogs defense continued to pressure Robinson, who was sacked three times on the day and who was harassed all day. On a fourth-down-and-10 play from the Tech 33, Robinson hit Josiah Monroe on a quick out. Monroe was tackled by Bryson Abraham five yards short of the first down, sealing the win for the Bulldogs and avenging last year's 30-10 loss in San Antonio.

The first two quarters saw more post-play action than in-game action. Numerous times following the completion of plays, officials were forced to separate players as multiple personal foul penalties were called. For the game Tech was penalized 10 times for 85 yards and UTSA eight times for 85 yards.

UTSA built a 10-6 halftime advantage on an Ianno 23-yard field goal and a 53-yard touchdown run by Robinson on a busted play. Barnes hit field goals of 21- and 33-yards for Tech's only points of the opening two quarters.

For the game, UTSA outgained Tech 324-278. Four big plays accounted for 158 of UTSA's total yardage as the Tech defense allowed only 166 yards on UTSA's other 68 snaps.

Freshman Russell Farris led Tech with nine tackles while Vernon Butler (8 tackles), Vontarrius Dora (7 tackles, 1 sack, 2.5 TFL) and Pinson (7 tackles, 1 FR, 2 interceptions) were also leaders on the defensive side of the football.

Williams led UTSA on the ground with 10 carries 73 yards while Robinson added 49 yards and one score. Robinson completed 18-of-29 passes for 138 yards and zero touchdowns.

LOUISIANA TECH BULLDOGS 31
SOUTHERN MISS GOLDEN EAGLES 20

M.M. ROBERTS STADIUM
HATTIESBURG, MISS.

HATTIESBURG, Miss. - Louisiana Tech (5-3, 4-0 C-USA) defeated Southern Miss (3-5, 1-3 C-USA), 31-20, on Saturday afternoon for the Bulldogs' first win in Hattiesburg since the 1982 season thanks to a 400-yard passing day by Cody Sokol and three total touchdowns by Kenneth Dixon.

The C-USA victory also marked the first time LA Tech has recorded back-to-back wins over Southern Miss since the 1976-77 seasons. The Bulldogs defeated USM, 36-13, in Ruston last season.

Sokol became the first quarterback since Colby Cameron in 2012 to pass for over 400 yards as the senior was 27-46 for 423 yards and three touchdowns, including a career-long 84-yard connection with Dixon for LA Tech's first touchdown of the game to begin the second half.

LA Tech had 453 total yards on offense in the win, as Dixon caught six passes for a career-high 124 yards and two touchdowns, as well as rushing for 41 yards and a touchdown.

For the first time since 2009, LA Tech's defense held Southern Miss to negative rushing yards as the Golden Eagles had -31 rushing yards in the game. The last time the Bulldogs did so was when they held Hawai'i to -7 yards on Sept. 30, 2009.

A shanked punt by Logan McPherson gave Southern Miss a short field on USM's second drive of the game, allowing the Golden Eagles to drive 41 yards in four plays for the first score off an 18-yard run by George Payne for a 7-0 USM lead.

Early in the second quarter Louisiana Tech would drive down as close as the five-yard line but be unable to reach the end zone, prompting Kyle Fischer to kick a 23-yard field goal to cut the Southern Miss lead to 7-3.

Louisiana Tech wasted no time getting on the board in the second half, scoring in less than a minute into the third quarter. Kenneth Dixon caught a short pass from Sokol, made a man miss and got help on a key Trent Taylor block to record the 84-yard touchdown reception - the longest catch of his career - to put LA Tech on top, 10-7.

Midway through the third quarter, Southern Miss drove down and threatened to reach the end zone before back-to-back Tony Johnson sacks - the second of which aided by a dropped snap - forced the Golden Eagles to settle for a 44-yard field goal by Corey Acosta to tie the game, 10-10.

Tech would give the ball to the reliable Dixon again with less than a minute remaining in the third quarter as he was wide open on a five-yard pass for his second receiving touchdown of the day.

Southern Miss would drive down inside the 10-yard line again against LA Tech but the Bulldog defense again would stymie the Golden Eagle offense as USM would settle for a 26-yd field goal by Acosta, cutting Tech's lead to 17-13 with 9:31 remaining.

On LA Tech's next drive, Carlos Henderson would go up in the end zone to haul in a 29-yard touchdown pass from Sokol to extend the Bulldogs' lead to 24-13.

LA Tech ended its scoring for the day with a five-play, 37 yard drive that resulted in a one-yard touchdown run by Kenneth Dixon for his third total touchdown of the afternoon to give the Bulldogs a 31-13 lead with just over four minutes remaining in the fourth quarter.

Down by 18, the Golden Eagles responded by capping off a seven-play, 75 yard scoring drive with a 16-yard touchdown pass from Weeks to Michael Thomas to cut LA Tech's lead to 31-20 with under three minutes remaining in regulation.

WKU HILLTOPPERS 10

JOE AILLET STADIUM
RUSTON, LA.

RUSTON, La. - Louisiana Tech head coach Skip Holtz talked all week about a high-powered offense that puts up video game numbers playing at Joe Aillet Stadium Saturday. Little did he know, he was talking about his own team as a prolific outing by the Bulldog offense paired with a dominating performance by the defense resulted in a 59-10 rout over Western Kentucky.

The win moves Louisiana Tech (6-3) to 5-0 in Conference USA play and keeps the Bulldogs atop C-USA's West Division standings while also claiming bowl eligibility in Holtz' second year with the program.

WKU (3-5, 1-4) had entered the game ranked fifth in the nation in total offense but was held to season lows in passing (145 yards), total offense (297 yards) and points scored (10). Saturday marked the first time the Hilltoppers - which ranked fourth in the nation in scoring offense entering the game - had been held scoreless in a half this season.

"This was an offense that was averaging 550 yards a game, 410 yards a game passing, scoring 40 some points, 53 percent, third down," Holtz said after the game. "The numbers are video game type numbers. We threw them out in front of our team and said, `This is the challenge we have, but they still have to play us. They put up these numbers against everybody else, but we just have to go out there and play our game.'"

Tech's dominating defense provided constant pressure to WKU quarterback Brandon Doughty, who entered the game with having thrown only four interceptions and left having thrown four more. The defense also added eight pass break-ups and 10 tackles for a loss of 40 yards, marking the fourth straight game Tech has registered at least 10 tackles for a loss.

Of his four picks, two came at the hands of Le'Vander Liggins who pitched the ball to Xavier Woods on both plays to continue the play for a total of 56 yards.

"We practice it every day," said Liggins as he explained the pitches to Woods. "We practice tip balls, pitch backs. We just have to make sure if there's one man to beat, let's beat him."

Adairius Barnes also posted two interceptions in the game. The Bulldogs now have five different defensive backs on roster on six different occasions that have recorded two interceptions in a single game.

Meanwhile LA Tech quarterback Cody Sokol provided the offensive fireworks fans were expecting to see out of one quarterback in the game, passing for five touchdowns and 335 yards in a 30-for-42 performance. He also ran a touchdown in from three yards out.

Sokol became just the fifth quarterback in Louisiana Tech history to throw five touchdown passes in a single game and did so with two others watching; Tim Rattay is an assistant coach for the Bulldogs while Luke McCown was on hand for the game and was honored on the field during the second quarter.

If Sokol was on fire it was because Trent Taylor was the ignition, catching nine passes for a career-high 113 yards and three touchdowns while Paul Turner had 84 yards receiving on nine catches with a touchdown of his own.

"Trent was one of those guys that got here as a true freshman and he already had it," Holtz said of the sophomore receiver. "I mean, he got it. He came in. His competitive nature, his balance, his hands, his ability to change direction, run routes. He's smart. He's intelligent. He sets routes up. I mean, he's a student of the game. I mean, he has done a great job."

Sokol's fifth touchdown pass went to Kenneth Dixon, who registered 49 yards receiving as well as 77 yards rushing and another score.

Dixon's touchdown reception was the first of three in the third quarter for Louisiana Tech, a period the Bulldogs have dominated in having now outscored opponents 118-27 in that period this season.

It wasn't just all offense and defense for Tech as Carlos Henderson found his way to the end zone, returning a kickoff 96 yards for the score, the 10th-longest kickoff return in school history. Henderson also caught two passes for 26 yards in the game.

The Bulldogs got on the board first, converting an Adairius Barnes interception into seven points as Dixon had a 48-yard score, his first rushing attempt, less than four minutes into the game. Kyle Fischer kicked a career-long 51-yard field goal nearly 10 minutes later.

Doughty would find Taywan Taylor for a 46-yard touchdown pass as time expired in the first quarter but WKU allowed Henderson to take it to the house as the second quarter began. Tech would never let its lead fall below 10 points again.

UAB BLAZERS 24

LEGION FIELD
BIRMINGHAM, ALA.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. - Cody Sokol threw for 200 yards and two touchdowns and Kenneth Dixon ran for three scores as Louisiana Tech overpowered UAB, 40-24, Saturday morning at Legion Field.

The win keeps Louisiana Tech (7-3, 6-0 Conference USA) in the race for the C-USA West Division crown while UAB (5-5, 3-3) fell to 0-5 against the Bulldogs all-time.

Dixon's three touchdowns and 79 rushing yards all came within the first half before he left with an undisclosed injury, pushing the junior into fourth all-time at Louisiana Tech with 2,948 career rushing yards.

Sokol was 19-for-33 for 200 yards and two scores, finding eight different receivers for a catch throughout the game. His leading target, Trent Taylor, caught eight passes for 58 yards and a touchdown.

Tech's defense, which registered at least eight tackles for a loss for the seventh consecutive game, limited UAB to 326 total offensive yards as the Blazers averaging almost 450 yards per game in league entering the game. Tony Johnson led the defense with 10 total tackles and a fumble recovery while Xavier Woods blocked a kick, had a 34-yard interception return and registered five total tackles including one for a loss.

Louisiana Tech scored on all but one possession in the first half while blocking a UAB field goal and holding the Blazers to 10 points at halftime.

In the second half, UAB took advantage of a couple miscues by the Bulldogs on special teams with a fumble recovery on a punt return by Trent Taylor for a touchdown and had a chance to score again after recovering a Carlos Henderson fumble on the ensuing kickoff but Tech's Vernon Butler would recover a Jordan Howard fumble to prevent a score in the red zone.

After LA Tech was forced to punt on its next possession, UAB would fumble its punt return with Johnson recovering the ball. That would set up a seven-play drive that ended with Sokol's 10-yard touchdown pass to Taylor. A bad snap led to a failed conversion attempt as the Bulldogs led, 30-17.

After a Kyle Fischer 49-yard field goal and the teams trading punts, Woods' interception return to the UAB nine-yard line set up a Sokol touchdown pass to Henderson for the 40-24 advantage. UAB would return the next kickoff for 100 yards for the Blazers' final score of the game.

NORFOLK, Va. - Kenneth Dixon ran for 106 yards and a touchdown and eclipsed the 3,000 yard rushing mark in his career, but the celebrations were muted in a 30-27 overtime loss at Old Dominion's Foreman Field on Saturday.

Louisiana Tech (7-4, 6-1 C-USA) dropped its first league game of the season as it struggled to contain Old Dominion's Taylor Heinicke in the second half and overtime as the Bulldogs could not hold on to a 24-14 halftime lead.

Heinicke, one of the top quarterbacks in the country, was 29-for-40 for 302 yards and two touchdowns but also threw four interceptions on the day including two to Tech's Adairius Barnes.

Old Dominion (5-6, 3-4 C-USA) kept its slim bowl chances alive with the win and prevented LA Tech from clinching Conference USA's West Division. The Bulldogs now face Rice next Saturday with the winner advancing to the C-USA Championship Game opposite Marshall.

Dixon was Tech's main target in overtime, gaining 17 all-purpose yards, but a pass to Paul Turner in the end zone would fall incomplete, prompting Kyle Fischer to kick a 25-yard field goal for a 27-24 Bulldog lead.

ODU responded with an eight-yard touchdown pass from Heinicke to David Washington to seal the comeback victory in the first meeting between the two schools.

Dixon recorded his 15th game running for over 100 yards, while Trent Taylor led the receivers with 92 yards on five catches and a touchdown.

Tech's defense registered 11 tackles for a loss of 36 yards on the Monarchs while Bryson Abraham and Kentrell Brice joined Barnes for a total of four interceptions. Abraham's interception came with under a minute remaining in the fourth quarter as ODU had the chance to get a win in regulation, but LA Tech took over on its own five-yard line.

The Bulldogs held a 24-14 lead at halftime as Dixon surpassed the 3,000 career rushing mark in the second quarter as the junior broke a 7-7 tie in the second quarter with a seven-yard touchdown run to give Tech a 14-7 lead.

Marlon Seets scored nearly three minutes later as Tech led 21-7 before Heinicke found Washington for a 26-yard touchdown pass to cut the Bulldog lead to 21-14. As time expired, Tech's Kyle Fischer converted a 43-yard field goal attempt.

Trent Taylor had the first score of the game with a 10-yard touchdown pass from Sokol to give LA Tech a 7-0 lead with three seconds remaining in the first quarter.

Louisiana Tech held the ball for less than two minutes in the entire third quarter but the Bulldog defense never yielded, allowing only a 46-yard field goal by ODU's Satchel Ziffer to cut the Tech lead to 24-17.

LOUISIANA TECH BULLDOGS 76
RICE OWLS 31

JOE AILLET STADIUM
RUSTON, LA.

RUSTON, La. - Louisiana Tech scored the most points it ever has against a conference opponent and tallied 677 total yards as the Bulldogs clinched the Conference USA West Division in a 76-31 rout over defending C-USA Champion Rice Saturday in front of 18,029 at Joe Aillet Stadium.

The win secures a spot in the Conference USA Championship Game for Louisiana Tech (8-4, 7-1 C-USA) opposite Marshall (11-1, 7-1) on Dec. 6 with the game location still to be determined by the league office. The win also marked career win No. 100 for LA Tech head coach Skip Holtz.

"One hundred wins is huge," Holtz said of his milestone. "This football team is really special to me because I do not know that I have had a football team that has had to overcome so much, with the schedule, new faces, new coaches and everything to make this year work. This group of guys is really special. They will always have a special place in my heart."

The win was secured when the Bulldogs scored 41 unanswered points after Rice (7-5, 5-3) cut the Tech lead to four 36 seconds into the second half off a Mario Hull touchdown catch. Tech put away Rice during that 41-point stretch that included two fumble recoveries for scores, two rushing touchdowns and two of Cody Sokol's four touchdown passes on the day.

Sokol threw for 387 yards and four touchdowns with one interception and found three different receivers - Paul Turner (122), Trent Taylor (120) and Carlos Henderson (114) - for over 100 yards each. The redshirt senior quarterback's 29 touchdown passes this season ties Luke McCown (2001) for sixth in the school's single season charts.

Sokol completed 20 passes on 32 attempts to six different receivers and did not take a sack in the game. Of his 20 completions, five were for 35 yards or more as Tech's offense capitalized on big plays.

Kenneth Dixon ran for 137 yards and three touchdowns and surpassed the 1,000-yard rushing mark on the year. He is only the third running back in school history (Ryan Moats, Daniel Porter) to tally multiple 1,000-yard seasons in his career after running for 1,194 in 2012.

"It is a good feeling, but we are just focused on the next one and that is Marshall," said Dixon of the win and the chance to play 14 games this season, the most Louisiana Tech has ever played as a member of the Football Bowl Subdivision. "The celebration is for Coach Holtz because he is such a great coach. He got to his 100th win this week. That is a great celebration and we were also celebrating the West [Division] Conference Championship. You know we were turnt up."

Louisiana Tech's defense forced four turnovers against a Rice team that had only committed three through seven conference games this season. Colby Brown, Le'Vander Liggins and Terrell Pinson each recorded an interception while Beau Fitte's fumble recovery was returned for a touchdown.

After scoring 20 points off of three of Rice's four turnovers, Louisiana Tech increased its national lead with 150 points off turnovers this season.

The 677 yards of total offense Louisiana Tech racked up Saturday ranks seventh in school history while the 76 points is the second-most ever scored by a Conference USA team.

The Bulldogs only trailed once, 3-0, after Rice's James Hairston hit a 35-yard field goal just over five minutes into the game but Dixon would score the first of his three rushing touchdowns on the day on the next possession and Tech would not relent the lead for the remainder of the game.

LA Tech had a 21-3 lead after the first quarter behind Henderson's 72-yard touchdown catch and Turner's 35-yard touchdown catch. Tech would head to the locker room with a 28-17 advantage after Dixon scored again after Rice reached the end zone twice in the second quarter. Then Hull would bring the Owls within four less than a minute into the second half on a three-play, 60-yard drive before the Bulldogs offense exploded.

Overall, the Bulldogs outscored Rice 48-14 in the second half. The 45-point margin marks the first time since 1910 a Louisiana Tech team has beaten three opponents by at least 45 points with all three wins this season coming against conference opponents.

HUNTINGTON, W. VA.

HUNTINGTON, W.Va. - Marshall's touchdown in the final two minutes of the Conference USA Championship propelled the Thundering Herd past the Louisiana Tech Bulldogs for a 26-23 victory.

The Bulldogs (8-5, 7-1 C-USA) never trailed until Marshall quarterback Rakeem Cato connected with Deon-Tay McManus for the game-winning touchdown, a five-yard catch with 1:50 to play.

The LA Tech defense forced four turnovers against the Herd (12-1, 7-1 C-USA), and running back Kenneth Dixon made the most of those on the offensive side, scoring three touchdowns, two off Herd turnovers and one following a punt block. He rushed for 156 yards on 20 carries and now ranks second in Bulldog history for career rushing yards with 3,347, just five yards shy of the school record.

The Bulldogs turned early Marshall miscues into scoring opportunities, jumping out to a 10-0 lead in the first quarter. LA Tech capitalized on a pair of third-down penalties for the Herd en route to a 26-yard Jonathan Barnes field goal on the Bulldogs' opening drive.

LA Tech added to its lead later in the first quarter after DeAngelo Brooks recovered the first fumble of his career. On the first play from scrimmage, Dixon sprinted 33 yards for the touchdown, adding to the Bulldogs' nation-leading 157 points off turnovers.

Marshall responded with a six-yard touchdown to McManus, cutting LA Tech's lead to 10-7 as the second quarter began.

The Herd's second turnover on a misplayed punt paved the way for Dixon's 30-yard dash to the endzone to make it a 17-7 LA Tech lead. The forced turnover marked the nation-leading 38th of the season for the Bulldogs, while the touchdown marked the 58th of Dixon's career, setting a new school record.

Marshall's Justin Haig nailed a pair of field goals late in the second quarter to bring the Herd within four at halftime, trailing 17-13. Haig would add another in the Herd's opening drive of the second half to trim the Bulldogs' lead to one.

Momentum shifted back to the Bulldogs when Paul Turner blocked a punt, leading to Dixon's third touchdown of the game. LA Tech took a 23-16 lead after missing the extra point.

The two teams traded fumbles early in the fourth quarter before Haig added his fourth field goal of the contest to make it a 23-19 game with 8:34 remaining.

The Bulldogs missed a 49-yard field goal with five minutes to go before McManus' second touchdown of the day to put Marshall on top, 26-23.

LOUISIANA TECH BULLDOGS 35
ILLINOIS FIGHTING ILLINI 18

ZAXBY'S HEART OF DALLAS BOWL
COTTON BOWL STADIUM
DALLAS, TEXAS

DALLAS (AP)- Louisiana Tech's Houston Bates had a career day against his former team - his 4 1-2 sacks in the Heart of Dallas Bowl matched the number he had in three seasons at Illinois.

Bates, who graduated and transferred to finish his eligibility closer to home was chosen MVP of the game after the Bulldogs beat the Illini 35-18 on Friday.

"It wasn't Houston Bates vs. Illinois. It was Louisiana Tech vs. Illinois," Bates said.

Kenneth Dixon scored one of his two touchdowns on an 80-yard reception and Xavier Woods scored on a 69-yard interception. The Bulldogs (9-5) also got touchdown runs of 16 yards from Jarred Craft and 28 yards from Blake Martin on a dark, overcast day at the Cotton Bowl stadium.

Illinois (6-7) struggled early with penalties and missed field goals, but got within three points on David Reisner's 43-yard field goal early in the fourth quarters. But Dixon scored his second TD from one yard out with six minutes left to make it 28-18 and the Illini couldn't answer.

Illinois appeared to have gotten a break when LaKeith Walls sacked Cody Sokol, causing him to fumble. Jihad Ward returned it 19 yards before Dixon forced a fumble and Sokol recovered. That drive was capped by Dixon's TD.

"The way the guys played, Kenneth and Cody and throughout the whole season, it's truly outstanding," Bates said. "It's something I'm going to live for the rest of my life. And if I die tomorrow, my life would be complete."

Tech coach Skip Holtz then asked Bates to skip the humble answer and say what it really meant to him to win.

"Unbelievable," Bates added with a huge smile.

"I know it's been an emotional week for him," Holtz said, "and I know it's been an emotional week to see him go out and do the things that he did."

Bates had an additional sack in the closing minutes negated when a teammate couldn't get off the field in time and the Bulldogs were penalized for having 12 players on the field.

Dixon became Louisiana Tech's career leader in yards rushing, finishing with 63 for a total of 3,410 in three seasons.

He is also the only FBS player with both a run and a reception of at least 80 yards this season.

Louisiana Tech went into the game tied for first place among FBS schools with 25 interceptions and first with 40 total turnovers forced. With Monday's two Illini turnovers, Tech converted turnovers into 198 points this season.

"I was just not giving up on the play," Dixon said. "I mean, he got the ball. He was running. I got behind him and just tried to do my best to get the ball back."

"I saw Kenneth coming and, what went through my head?" Holtz said. "`Get `im, Kenneth! Get `im! Get `im! Get `im!' And he got there. Great strip on the ball."

"That's the game of football to me," Illinois coach Tim Beckman said of the turnovers. "I think they've been very opportunistic in what they've done this year. We need to become that better, our defense. No question those were big, huge plays."

Tech led 21-9 lead at halftime after Reilly O'Toole's pass was returned for a touchdown by Woods midway through the second, but Illinois responded with a 3-yard scoring run by Donovonn Young. The 2-point conversion failed, though, but Reisner banked in a field goal to cut the Bulldogs' lead to 3.

O'Toole threw a 25-yard touchdown pass to Jon Davis early in the second quarter. He was 24 of 39 for a season-high 295 yards with one touchdown and one interception.

Taylor Zalewski kicked a 27-yard FG in the first quarter for Illinois, which committed eight first-half penalties for 53 yards and missed two field goals attempts and an extra point.

Sokol, who began his collegiate career in the Big Ten at Iowa, completed 14 of 28 passes for 247 yards and one touchdown.

On Woods' interception, the pass was thrown ahead of Dudek, whose uniform appeared to be held by Tech's Bryson Abraham just before Woods made the grab.

"Reilly threw the ball where I was supposed to be," Dudek said. "Which I probably would have been had I not been held, but the ref didn't call it."

One of the main building blocks of success for a football program is stability in the coaching staff, and for 40 years, Louisiana Tech had not only stability but incredible talent.

Joe Aillet remains the winningest football coach in Louisiana Tech history and was one of the most respected in the country during his 26-year coaching career with the Bulldogs. Aillet produced a record of 152-86-8 and won or shared 12 conference championships between 1940 and 1966. He served as Tech's athletic director for an additional four years.

A member of several national coaching halls of fame, Aillet was instrumental in forming the Louisiana High School Coaches Association in the 1930s and the Gulf States Conference in 1948.

Maxie Lambright replaced Aillet in 1967 and remained at Tech through 1978, producing a "Golden Era" of Bulldog football which included seven conference titles, three national championship seasons and two Division I bowl games. He produced 11 All-Americans and sent a dozen Bulldogs into the pros.

He also built the nation's longest college football winning streak at 23 games during 1973 and 1974.

Another building block at Louisiana Tech was Maxie Lambright. Lambright coached the 1972 Bulldogs to a 12-0 record as Louisiana Tech won the National Football Foundation national title with a 35-0 win over Tennessee Tech in the Grantland Rice Bowl. The following season, Lambright's Bulldogs claimed the Division II national title defeating Western Kentucky 34-0 in the championship game.

BULLDOG HISTORY

The names ring like a Who's Who in the National Football League: Terry Bradshaw, Pat Tilley, Roger Carr, Mike Barber, Fred Dean, Matt Stover, Willie Roaf, Doug Evans, Tim Rattay and Troy Edwards.

They are just a few of the many great players who have donned a Louisiana Tech Bulldog uniform over the past century, and their accomplishments at Tech are even more impressive.

Starting with its very first game in 1901, Louisiana Tech has become a household name in collegiate football circles.

And over the years Louisiana Tech has produced numerous conference titles, numerous all-American honors, numerous professional players and two national championship titles.

This year's players and coaches should only add to an already impressive resume.

Although so much emphasis is placed on the present, with 108 seasons of Tech football in the record books, it's important to remember so many great moments, so many great players and so many great coaches that have already made Tech's history on the gridiron successful.

From the very first team to last season's squad, Tech football can be described with three words: TRADITION OF EXCELLENCE.

1901: First Recorded Intercollegiate Football Game

Louisiana Tech intercollegiate football history began with that 1901 season, as Edwin Barber — the first athletic coach employed by the young university — led the Bulldogs on the playing field.

And although records of some of the first years in Tech history are incomplete, Barber's team lost the only two games for which results do exist, falling to Louisiana State 57-0 and Arkansas 16-0. However, the Tech tradition had begun.

The November 1902 Industrialist, the first student publication at Tech, reported that Coach Frank Singleton led the second team to "a fairly successful season," although the record of that Bulldog squad is not known.

1904: First Recorded Intercollegiate Football Win

Coach E.G. Pierce led the 1904 Bulldogs to the first recorded win in school history with a 6-0 victory against Louisiana State during a 1-3 season. The game not only marked the inaugural win in Tech history, but also the first shutout.

Tech's first winning season was posted in 1906 as Z.T. Young led the Bulldogs to a 2-1-3 record with wins over Ouachita Baptist and the Ruston Athletic Club.

The following season, Coach George Watkins and the Bulldogs registered a 9-1 mark, which is still the most wins by a first-year head coach in Tech history. During that season, Tech outscored its opponents 248-37, with the lone setback coming against Louisiana State.

It is not known where those first Bulldogs played their games, but beginning with the 1904 season, all Tech athletic events were held in an athletic park, with a grandstand, located next to Harper Hall and present-day Howard Auditorium.

1910: First perfect season (7-0)

During this decade of Bulldog football, Prince coached Tech for seven seasons, including the school's first perfect year in 1910 with a record of 7-0. Prince was the first coach at Tech to coach for multiple seasons, finishing his career with a record of 24-16-5.

His 1911 and 1915 teams also posted winning records, recording marks of 4-2-1 and 3-1-2, respectively.

1916: First Recorded Game at Independence Stadium

In 1916, Coach A. Flack took over for Prince, but the Bulldogs struggled, going 2-4 with wins over Ouachita and Northwestern State. V.S. Pugh took over the coaching duties in 1917 and led Tech to a 2-3 season.

However, Prince came back and coached Tech for one last season in 1919 as Tech lost to Henderson State and Northwestern State in the only two recorded games.

Coaches: R.F. Clark (1920-1921); William Dietz (1922-1923); Phillip Arbuckle (1924); R.C. Kenney (1925); Hugh Wilson (1926-1927); F.A. Rockwell (1928-1929)
Conference Affiliation (Years)/Titles: Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association (1925-1929)/None

Coach R.F. Clark helped start the 1920s right for Tech fans as his two Bulldog teams registered winning records of 5-1 and 6-0 in1920 and 1921. After Clark's 1920 team lost the first game of the season 12-0 to Northwestern State, he proceeded to win 11 consecutive contests over the span of the next two years.

William Dietz picked up where Clark left off in 1922 and 1923 as the Dietz-led Bulldogs posted records of 5-1-1 and 6-2, including a 100-0 win over Clark College in 1922 and a 66-7 victory over Northwestern State in 1923.

After struggling through a 1-6-1 season in 1924 under Coach Phillip Arbuckle, Tech began its first athletic affiliation, becoming a member of the multi-state Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association in 1925 under Coach R.C. Kenney.

Hugh Wilson coached the Bulldogs to a 5-2-2 record in 1926 and a 3-5 mark in 1927, a year that was highlighted by a game played against Mississippi College at Forsythe Park, the first intercollegiate football game played in Monroe.

1928: New Football Field Built

Then, in the fall of 1928, a new Tech athletic field was built immediately adjoining the men's gymnasium on the current site of A.E. Phillips Laboratory School. The field was dedicated on Homecoming day Nov. 5, before the game with UL-Lafayette (UL-Lafayette won 45-6).

The nickname Bulldogs and school colors of red and blue were decided upon sometime during the early years of the university. However, T.J. "Cotton" and Henry Matthews, two Tech freshman brothers from Bossier City, donated Tech's first live bulldog in 1930.

On the playing field, Coach George Bohler led Tech into the 1930s as the Bulldogs posted a 3-6 season in 1930 before rebounding to record the school's third perfect season at 7-0 in 1931.

1935: 5,000 Seat Football Stadium Built

In 1934, according to The Tech Talk, the Louisiana Legislature appropriated $25,000 for a concrete stadium to be built beginning in January 1935. The stadium seated 3,000, and wooden bleachers holding an additional 2,000 were built on the east side of the field.

Again, Tech — under the guidance of Coach L.P. McLane — and UL-Lafayette dedicated the facility as Tech won the game 25-0 on its way to an 8-1 season. It also marked the first night game played at Louisiana Tech.

1937: Johnny Wyss Named Tech's First All-American

The 1937 season brought two more firsts for Louisiana Tech football as the school's first sellout came Sept. 17, 1937, in the season opener against Oklahoma City. Following a 6-3-2 season, Bulldog guard Johnny Wyss was named Tech's first All-American.

The 1939 season brought with it a new coach and a new conference as Ray Davis took over the Bulldog coaching duties, guiding Tech to a 5-6 mark in the school's first year as a member of the Louisiana Intercollegiate Conference.

1940: Joe Aillet Era Begins

It is no coincidence that the first 10 years of Joe Aillet's tenure as football coach at Tech was one of the winningest decades percentage-wise in Bulldog history.

1948: Tech joins Gulf States Conference; Gulf State Championship

Aillet, who is still the school's winningest coach with 152 wins, took over in 1940 and promptly led the Bulldogs to four conference titles during the decade, three as a member of the Louisiana Collegiate Conference and one as a member of the Gulf States Conference which Tech joined in 1948.

Aillet, who was instrumental in forming the GSC, was the first president of the league.

Aillet, who is a member of the National Football Foundation's College Football Hall of Fame as well as being a charter member of the Tech Athletic Hall of Fame, led Tech to a 6-4 record in 1940 before guiding the Bulldogs to the school's first conference title in 1941 with a mark of 5-4-1.

Tech also won the LCC title in 1945 (6-4) and 1947 (5-4), while capturing the GSC title in 1948 (7-2-1) and 1949 (7-2).

Amazingly, Joe Aillet's second decade as the Bulldogs' head coach was more successful as his teams won an incredible 70 percent of their games during the 1950s while claiming six Gulf States Conference titles.

Tech registered 10 winning seasons during the 1950s, never losing more than four games in a year. Tech captured its first GSC title of the decade during 1952, when the Bulldogs went 6-1-2, including wins over Florida State and Memphis State.

Aillet also led Tech to Gulf States titles in 1953 (6-3), 1955 (9-1), 1957 (6-4), 1958 (7-3) and 1959 (9-1).

During the era, Tech had 33 players earn All-Gulf States Conference honors including the family foursome of Tommy (three times), Pat (twice), Bobby and Joe Hinton (twice).

However, early on it was the same old winning ways for Joe Aillet and his Bulldogs as Tech opened the era with yet another Gulf States Conference title and an 8-2 record.

After recording marks of 5-4, 4-4 and 6-3 over the next three seasons, the Bulldogs captured another GSC title in 1964 with a 9-1 record. A 14-7 loss at the hands of Southern Mississippi kept the Bulldogs from obtaining the perfect record.

Following another 4-4 season in 1965, the change began. Aillet's 1966 squad, his last at Tech, fell to 1-9, breaking a streak of 21 consecutive years of non-losing seasons under the Tech legend. Aillet's 26-year tenure as the Bulldogs head coach was over after 152 wins and 12 conference titles.

1967: Maxie Lambright Era Begins

In 1967, Tech hired Maxie Lambright to take over the duties and after posting a 3-7 record in his first season, the Bulldogs resumed their winning ways in 1968 with a 9-2 record, thanks in large part to a young quarterback named Terry Bradshaw.

1968: First Game played in Joe Aillet Stadium

During the 1968 season, the Bulldogs also moved into a new home, the 23,000-seat present-day facility named Tech Stadium, which was renamed Joe Aillet Stadium on Nov. 11, 1972, in memory of the Tech coach who had passed away the previous year.

Lambright, Bradshaw and the Bulldogs ended the decade claiming the 1969 Gulf States Conference title with an 8-2 mark, the school's last GSC championship.

Forty-eight Bulldogs earned All-Gulf States Conference honors during the 1960s, while Bradshaw, Tom Causey, Jerry Griffin, Joe Hinton, John Williamson, and Mickey Slaughter all earned All-American honors.

1969: Grantland Rice Bowl Appearance

It could easily be said that the 1970s was the premier decade in the long history of Louisiana Tech football.

1971: Pioneer Bowl Appearance

After opening the era with a 2-8 mark in 1970, Lambright guided the Bulldogs to a 9-2 record and a conference title in 1971, Tech's first season as a member of the newly formed Southland Conference. However, that was just the beginning.

1972: Grantland Rice Bowl Appearance

The next three seasons are considered the greatest three-year stretch in Tech football history. Lambright led the 1972 team to a perfect 12-0 record, and the Bulldogs defeated Tennessee Tech 35-0 in the Grantland Rice Bowl to claim Co-National Champion honors along with Delaware as chosen by the National Football Foundation.

1973: Camellia Bowl Appearance

The 1973 team would not be outdone, as Lambright and the Bulldogs finished the season 12-1 and defeated Western Kentucky 34-0 in the Division II National Championship game in Sacramento, Calif.

1974: Pioneer Bowl Appearance

Finally, the 1974 team made it three in a row by winning the United Press International College Division National Championship despite losing to Central Michigan, 35-14, in a Division II national semifinal game.

1977: Independence Bowl Appearance

The following season, Tech joined the Division I ranks for the first time, and two years later, the Bulldogs played in their first bowl game, defeating highly favored Louisville, 24-14, in the Independence Bowl in Shreveport.

1978: Independence Bowl Appearance

Tech made a return trip to the Independence Bowl in 1978 but was defeated by East Carolina, 35-13. The loss marked the end of another era at Tech, as Maxie Lambright retired from his 12-year coaching career with a 95-36-2 record, trailing only Aillet in number of victories as Tech football coach.

Larry Beightol was hired in 1979 and led Tech to a 3-8 record in his only season as the Bulldogs' head coach.

With the success Tech had during the 1970s, it is no wonder the Bulldogs had 66 players earn all-conference accolades, while the likes of Ron Alexander, Larry Anderson, Mike Barber, Roger Carr, Fred Dean, Ken Lantrip, Ardis McCann, Charles McDaniel, Joe McNeely, Chris Richardson and Billy Ryckman earned All-American honors.

The 1980s proved to be a turning point for Louisiana Tech football as the university made the decision to move up to Division I-A status starting in 1989.

However, the '80s started slowly with two straight losing seasons under new head coach Billy Brewer (5-6 in 1980 and 4-6-1 in 1981). However, Brewer's third and last season was much more successful as the Bulldogs posted a 10-3 record and won the Southland Conference title in 1982, after being reclassified into Division I-AA.

A.L. Williams took over the coaching reins in 1983 and after a sub-par first year (4-7), Williams guided Tech to the Division I-AA National Championship game in 1984.

1987: Tech begins its move to I-A

Tech played in the Southland Conference for the final time during the 1986 season as university President F. Jay Taylor's goal was to leave what he called "mandated mediocrity" — Division I-AA. The Bulldogs competed as a Division I-AA independent in 1987 and 1988 during the "Movin' Up" campaign.

During those two seasons, the Bulldogs fought an uphill battle, playing road games against the likes of Baylor, Mississippi State, Texas A&M, Houston, Wyoming, Kansas State, Southern Mississippi and Florida State in an effort to meet Division I-A scheduling requirements.

Another 6,000 seats were added to Joe Aillet Stadium as part of meeting those same requirements to move up to the next level.

1989: Tech gains I-A status

Finally on Jan. 20, 1989, the call came from the NCAA, and at the football banquet that evening, the official acceptance into Division I-A football was announced by Tech President Dan Reneau. Tech officially began competing in the NCAA's highest classification with the 1989 season opener at UL-Lafayette, a contest the Bulldogs won 40-14 on their way to a 5-4-1 record.

On Oct. 4, 1989, the Spirit of 1988, a bronze Bulldog statue guarding the south entrance to Aillet Stadium, was unveiled to commemorate head coach Joe Raymond Peace's Tech team of 1988, which endured the brutal

1990: Independence Bowl Appearance

Louisiana Tech football opened and closed the 1990s with a bang as the 1990 Bulldog team earned an Independence Bowl berth while the 1999 team earned the school's first ever Associated Press Top 25 ranking.

The 1990s also proved to be the decade for quarterbacks at Tech as the program produced two of the top signal callers in Bulldog history in Jason Martin and Tim Rattay.

Coach Joe Raymond Peace led the 1990 Bulldogs, in only the school's second year as Division I-A Independent, to an 8-3 record during the regular season and an invitation to the Independence Bowl in Shreveport, La. The Bulldogs tied Maryland 34-34 in front of over 48,000 fans in one of the most exciting bowl games of the year.

1993: Tech joins Big West Conference

The following season, the Peace-led Bulldogs dropped the opening game and then proceeded to win eight and tie two the rest of the year. After a 5-6 season in 1992, Tech joined the Big West Conference in an effort to help scheduling and secure a bowl tie.

However, the Bulldogs' three seasons in the conference never yielded much success as Peace's squads compiled a 10-23 mark from 1993-1995.

The 1996 season saw a number of changes and much more success as Tech once again joined the ranks of Division I-A Independents and offensive coordinator Gary Crowton was hired as head coach.

Crowton, who was known for his great offensive mind and wide-open passing attack, molded quarterbacks Jason Martin and Tim Rattay into two of the nation's total offense leaders.

In 1996, Crowton guided Tech to a 6-5 season, including a 38-23 win at Southeastern Conference foe Mississippi State, while Martin had 3,360 yards and 32 touchdowns. It was just a sign of things to come.

Rattay shattered his Tech records the following season, passing for 4,943 yards and 46 scores while leading the Bulldogs to a 6-6 record. Rattay's main target was wide receiver Troy Edwards, who caught 140 passes for 1,996 yards and 27 touchdowns, the latter two marks setting new NCAA records.

In a nationally televised game against defending National Champion Nebraska to open the season, Rattay and Edwards showed a preview of what Tech fans had to look forward to as Rattay passed for a school record 590 yards, while Edwards snared 21 passes for 405 yards, a new NCAA single game record.

After Crowton departed to the NFL's Chicago Bears in 1999, Tech Athletics Director Jim Oakes hired Jack Bicknell III as the 30th head coach in school history.

Bicknell led Tech to an 8-3 season, a 29-28 upset victory over eventual Southeastern Conference champion Alabama and the school's first Associated Press Top 25 ranking. Rattay finished his career ranked No. 2 in NCAA history in career passing yards, total offense and touchdown passes.

The 1999 season was made even more successful with an October announcement that the university would be making an allsports move to the Western Athletic Conference in the fall of 2001.

During the decade of the '90s, 54 Bulldog players earned all-conference honors, while Josh Bradley, Edwards, Marty Kent, Rattay, William Roaf, Bobby Slaughter and Willie Smith were named All-Americans.

Louisiana Tech finished its last season as a Division I-A Independent in 2000 with a 3-9 record. During the season, the Bulldogs played perennial powers such as Kansas State, Penn State, Auburn and Miami. Despite playing a difficult schedule, the Bulldogs were still one of the top offensive teams in the country, finishing 7th in the nation for passing offense.

2001: Tech joins Western Athletic Conference; Humanitarian Bowl Appearance

The Bulldogs made a splash in their new conference by going 7-1 in league play and claiming the 2001 WAC Championship. Louisiana Tech overcame an early conference loss to win its last six conference games to take the WAC title.

The championship earned the Bulldogs a berth in the 2001 Humanitarian Bowl, the school's first bowl appearance since the 1990 Independence Bowl. Despite a 49-24 loss to Clemson in the Humanitarian Bowl, the season was still a success and proved that Louisiana Tech would be a foe to be reckoned within the Western Athletic Conference.

Tech began the 2002 season by defeating eventual Houston Bowl participant and Big 12 foe Oklahoma State to open the season in a thrilling last minute 39-36 contest. However, Tech's early non-conference schedule proved brutal with road losses to Clemson, No. 15 Penn State and No. 24 Texas A&M.

For the seventh straight season the Bulldogs ranked in the nation's top 10 in passing offense while senior running back Joe Smith earned first team All-WAC honors, becoming the first Tech player since 1994 to rush for over 1,000 yards.

The 2003 season started with a nationally televised home contest against defending national champion Miami at Independence Stadium in Shreveport as a Bulldog home record crowd of 43,279 witnessed the historic event.

And although the 2003 season didn't go as planned with Tech finishing 5-7, the Bulldogs did have plenty of bright moments topped by Tech's 20-19 come-from-behind road win over Michigan State, a team that went on to earn a Top 25 ranking and eventually earned a spot in the Alamo Bowl against Nebraska.

Individual highlights included senior kicker Josh Scobee becoming Louisiana Tech's second all-time scoring leader with 339 points. Senior quarterback Luke McCown finished his career ranked in the top 5 in NCAA Division I history in passing yards and total offense.

2004: Tech faces Top 25 schedule; Pulls upset over Fresno State

Tough wouldn't describe Louisiana Tech's schedule in 2004 as the Bulldogs played seven games against eventual bowl-bound teams and six games against teams ranked in the Top 25 at one point of the season.

And although Tech's 6-6 record fell one game short of being bowl eligible, it was still an accomplishment.

The biggest moment of 2004 came in Tech's 28-21 win over No. 17 ranked Fresno State Oct. 2 at Joe Aillet Stadium. Running back Ryan Moats rushed for 236 yards and four scores and the Tech defense intercepted two passes late in the game to seal the victory.

Moats shattered the school record with 1,774 yards rushing and 18 touchdowns before declaring himself eligible for the 2005 NFL Draft (third round, Philadelphia Eagles).

2008: Bulldogs Claim Independence Bowl Championship Title

Louisiana Tech opened its season with a visit from Southeastern Conference foe Mississippi State, the first SEC team to ever come to Joe Ail-

let Stadium. And after the Mississippi-based Bulldogs left after a 22-14 LA Tech win, they might be the last for a while. The win marked the first win over an SEC team since 1999 when Tech topped eventual SEC champion Alabama 29-28 in Birmingham, Alabama.

The Bulldogs continued their winning ways throughout the season, going 7-5 in the regular season and 5-3 in the WAC which was good enough for a second place finish. Included in the seven regular season wins was a 21-0 shutout victory at San Jose State, the first shutout by a Tech team since 1996 and the first road shutout since 1988.

Tech earned its first invite to a bowl game since 2001 as the Bulldogs received an invitation to play in the Independence Bowl against Northern Illinois.

Tech would capture the 2008 Independence Bowl title by virtue of a 17-10 victory over the Huskies, highlighted by a 97-yard kickoff return for a touchdown by Phillip Livas. The Bowl victory was the first bowl win for the Bulldogs since they won the 1977 Independence Bowl.

Running back Daniel Porter became the eighth Louisiana Tech running back to ever rush for over 1,000 yards in a season as he rushed for 1,164 yards and nine touchdowns in 2008. Tech also placed a program record seven players on the All-WAC team, led by first team members in Porter, Livas, defensive tackle D'Anthony Smith and safety Antonio Baker.

In 2009 Porter continued to showcase his rushing talents, becoming the school's all-time leading rusher with 3,352 rushing yards to his credit while Dennis Morris earned all-America honors and was named the College Football Performance Awards' National Tight End of the Year after leading the country in touchdown receptions among tight ends.

2010-Present

Conference Affiliation (Years)/Titles: Division I-A/FBS Western Athletic Conference (2010-2012/One (2011); Conference USA (2013-Present)/C-USA West Division (2014)

Louisiana Tech began the Sonny Dykes era with high hopes for a high octane offense. The engine finally shifted gears midway through Dykes first season with a high offensive output in six of the team's last seven games, including 683 total offensive yards against Idaho, then the fourth-most in school history.

The 2011 season had an ominous 1-4 start (losing the season opener in the midst of Tropical Storm Lee in Hattiesburg) but the team rallied off seven-consecutive wins – the most since 1974 – and finished the year winning the WAC title. Tech came within a possession of upsetting No. 15 TCU in the Poinsettia Bowl game to close the season. Sonny Dykes was named the WAC Coach of the Year, Adrien Cole was named the WAC Defensive Player of the Year and was one of 11 All-WAC honorees and the Bulldogs stunned the country in the midst of its winning streak with a 27-7 throttling of Ole Miss.

Louisiana Tech's 2012 season was a year marked by national attention and record-shattering performances as the team finished the year ranked No. 1 in the nation in total offense, scoring and net punting while Freshman All-American Kenneth Dixon broke three of Marshall Faulk's NCAA Freshman records. Punter Ryan Allen became the first punter to win back-to-back Ray Guy Awards and quarterback Colby Cameron won the 2012 Sammy Baugh Award. Tech reached as high as No. 18 in the rankings and finished the year 9-3 but, in its final season in the WAC, was left out of the postseason as the league only had one bowl tie-in and three bowl eligible teams. In early December Sonny Dykes left Tech for Cal and the Bulldogs hired Skip Holtz to become the program's 33rd head coach and to guide the program into Conference USA.

In the program's second year as a member of Conference USA, Skip Holtz guided the Bulldogs to a C-USA West Division title and an appearance in the C-USA Championship game while moving on to the Zaxby's Heart of Dallas Bowl where Tech registered a 35-18 win over Illinois.

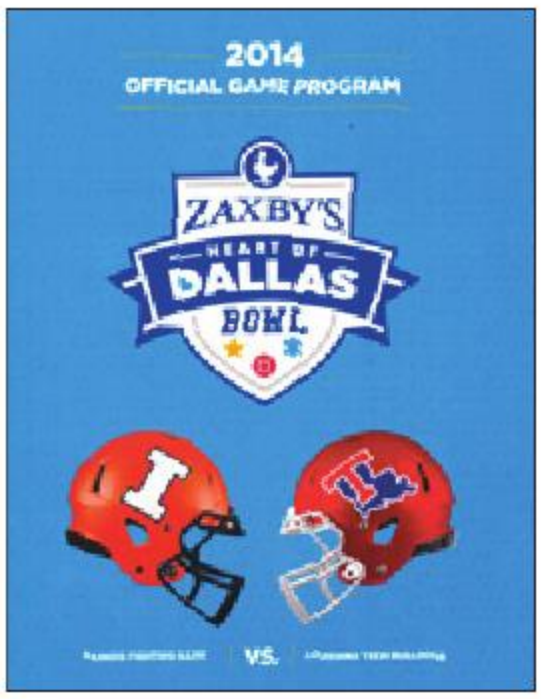
2014 ZAXBY'S HEART OF DALLAS BOWL
COTTON BOWL STADIUM
DALLAS, TEXAS



DALLAS (AP) - Louisiana Tech's Houston Bates had a career day against his former team - his 4 1-2 sacks in the Heart of Dallas Bowl matched the number he had in three seasons at Illinois.

Bates, who graduated and transferred to finish his eligibility closer to home was chosen MVP of the game after the Bulldogs beat the Illini 35-18 on Friday.

Kenneth Dixon scored one of his two touchdowns on an 80-yard reception and Xavier Woods scored on a 69-yard interception. The Bulldogs (9-5) also got touchdown runs of 16 yards from Jarred Craft and 28 yards from Blake Martin on a dark, overcast day at the Cotton Bowl stadium.

Illinois (6-7) struggled early with penalties and missed field goals, but got within three points on David Reisner's 43-yard field goal early in the fourth quarters. But Dixon scored his second TD from one yard out with six minutes left to make it 28-18 and the Illini couldn't answer.

Illinois appeared to have gotten a break when LaKeith Walls sacked Cody Sokol, causing him to fumble. Jihad Ward returned it 19 yards before Dixon forced a fumble and Sokol recovered. That drive was capped by Dixon's TD.

"The way the guys played, Kenneth and Cody and throughout the whole season, it's truly outstanding," Bates said. "It's something I'm going to live for the rest of my life. And if I die tomorrow, my life would be complete."

"I know it's been an emotional week for him," Holtz said, "and I know it's been an emotional week to see him go out and do the things that he did."

Bates had an additional sack in the closing minutes negated when a teammate couldn't get off the field in time and the Bulldogs were penalized for having 12 players on the field.

Dixon became Louisiana Tech's career leader in yards rushing, finishing with 63 for a total of 3,410 in three seasons.

He is also the only FBS player with both a run and a reception of at least 80 yards this season.

Louisiana Tech went into the game tied for first place among FBS schools with 25 interceptions and first with 40 total turnovers forced. With Monday's two Illini turnovers, Tech converted turnovers into 198 points this season.

"I was just not giving up on the play," Dixon said. "I mean, he got the ball. He was running. I got behind him and just tried to do my best to get the ball back."

"I saw Kenneth coming and, what went through my head?" Holtz said. "`Get `im, Kenneth! Get `im! Get `im! Get `im!' And he got there. Great strip on the ball."

"That's the game of football to me," Illinois coach Tim Beckman said of the turnovers. "I think they've been very opportunistic in what they've done this year. We need to become that better, our defense. No question those were big, huge plays."

Tech led 21-9 lead at halftime after Reilly O'Toole's pass was returned for a touchdown by Woods midway through the second, but Illinois responded with a 3-yard scoring run by Donovonn Young. The 2-point conversion failed, though, but Reisner banked in a field goal to cut the Bulldogs' lead to 3.

O'Toole threw a 25-yard touchdown pass to Jon Davis early in the second quarter. He was 24 of 39 for a season-high 295 yards with one touchdown and one interception.

Taylor Zalewski kicked a 27-yard FG in the first quarter for Illinois, which committed eight first-half penalties for 53 yards and missed two field goals attempts and an extra point.

Sokol, who began his collegiate career in the Big Ten at Iowa, completed 14 of 28 passes for 247 yards and one touchdown.

On Woods' interception, the pass was thrown ahead of Dudek, whose uniform appeared to be held by Tech's Bryson Abraham just before Woods made the grab.

"Reilly threw the ball where I was supposed to be," Dudek said. "Which I probably would have been had I not been held, but the ref didn't call it."

#15 TCU HORNED FROGS 31

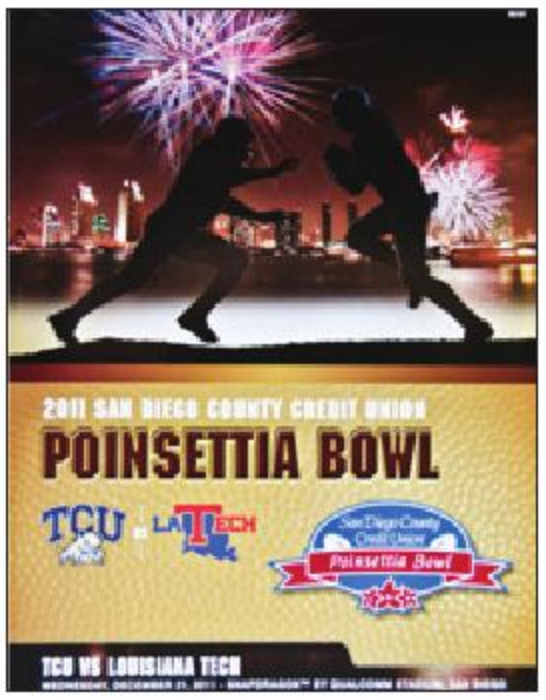
QUALCOMM STADIUM
SAN DIEGO, CALIF.



SAN DIEGO - Fifteenth-ranked TCU scored two fourth quarter touchdowns to complete a 31-24 come-from-behind victory over Louisiana Tech in the 2011 San Diego Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl Wednesday night at Qualcomm Stadium.

With Tech (8-5) leading 24-17 midway through the fourth quarter, TCU running back Luke Shivers completed an impressive 18-play, 72-yard drive with a one-yard plunge with 7:49 to play to tie the game at 24-24.

After a three-and-out by the Bulldog offense on its ensuing possession, TCU (11-2) took the lead on a 42-yard strike from Casey Pachall to Skye Dawson with 4:26 to play. The touchdown came on a third-down-and-five play where TCU caught the Bulldogs blitzing and the speedster Dawson beat the LA Tech secondary for the score.

Quarterback Colby Cameron and the Bulldog offense had one final opportunity but another three-and-out - the third of the second half - forced a Tech punt and TCU ran out the clock by grinding out two first downs via the ground.

The Bulldogs had the momentum in the opening two quarters as Matt Nelson's 23-yard field goal with 8:30 to play in the first quarter gave Tech a 3-0 lead. The score capped a 13-play, 65-yard drive by Tech which was highlighted by a 28-yard pass from Cameron to Quinton Patton that took the Bulldogs down to the TCU 12-yard line.

Following a Hunter Lee fumble inside the TCU 35-yard line late in the first quarter, the Horned Frogs drove deep inside Tech territory and tied the game on a Ross Evans 25-yard field goal with 14:11 to play in the second quarter.

Tech countered immediately with a seven-play, 59-yard drive that was capped by Cameron's two-yard strike to Patton - a play that was initially ruled as an incompletion but that was overturned after instant replay. Nelson's extra point made it 10-3. The drive was highlighted by a 26-yard toss from Cameron to Taulib Ikharo that took the ball down to the TCU four-yard line.

The Bulldogs appeared to have all the momentum heading into half until TCU corner Greg McCoy intercepted a Cameron pass with just over two minutes to play and returned it to the LA Tech 25-yard line. Four plays later, Ed Wesley tied the game on a seven-yard run with only 55 seconds to play in the half.

The two teams entered the locker room tied despite the fact Tech ran 21 more offensive plays than the Horned Frogs and outgained TCU 266-144.

TCU took its first lead of the contest on their opening drive of the second half as Matthew Tucker scored from one-yard out, ending an 11-play, 55-yard drive.

Trailing 17-10, Tech was forced to punt on its next possession but the Bulldogs special teams came up big as Josh Cuthbert recovered a muffed punt by Brandon Carter inside the TCU red zone. Three plays later, Lee hit paydirt from two yards out and the game was tied again at 17-17.

After neither team was able to move the ball on their next possessions, the Bulldog defense came up with a turnover as Quinn Giles intercepted Paschall on the Tech 39-yard line. On a third-down-and 10 play, Cameron found Myles White deep over the middle for a 61-yard touchdown. Nelson's extra point was good as Tech regained the advantage 24-17.

TCU then put together the drive of the night, marching 72 yards on 18 plays and tying the game at 24 on a one-yard run by Shivers. The Horned Frogs recorded six first downs on the drive, converting two fourth down conversions and picking up a huge first down on a defensive pass interference call in the end zone on a third-down-and-goal at the nine.

The Horned Frogs dominated the time of possession in the second half, holding onto the football for 24 minutes and 10 seconds while running 52 offensive plays to LA Tech's 21.

Cameron finished the game completing 21-of-43 passes for 264 yards and two touchdowns with one interception while White (7-110, 1 TD) and Patton (5-67, 1 TD) were his top two targets. Lee rushed 20 times for 64 yards and one score.

Defensively, the Bulldogs were led by Jay Dudley (10 tackles, 1 TFL), Justin Goodman (9 tackles, 1.5 TFL) and Jamel Johnson (9 tackles).

Tech ends the season 8-5, the most wins by a Tech team since 1999. The Bulldogs also won their second Western Athletic Conference championship and participated in their second bowl game in the last four years.

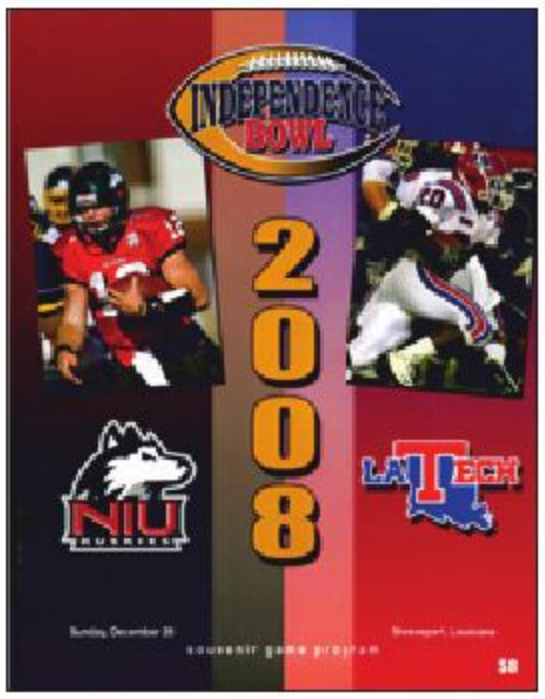
2008 INDEPENDENCE BOWL
INDEPENDENCE STADIUM
SHREVEPORT, LA.



It's no surprise that Louisiana Tech turned to its defense and special teams against Northern Illinois Sunday night at the 33rd Independence Bowl at Independence Stadium.

Those units were instrumental all season in leading head coach Derek Dooley and Co. to its first post-season appearance since 2001 and only its third since the program joined the Football Bowl Subdivision in 1989.

On Sunday night in Shreveport, once again, they came through leading Tech to a 17-10 win over the Huskies.

Phillip Livas, the offensive MVP of the game, got the game started for Tech with a 97-yard kickoff return for a touchdown in the first quarter and then the Bulldogs defense stiffened the rest of the way.

After allowing a NIU touchdown on only its second possession, the Tech defensive unit limited the Huskies to three points over the final three quarters of play.

Senior defensive back Weldon Brown, playing before a home crowd – Brown prepped at Bossier High School – , earned defensive MVP honors after recording a career-high 14 tackles, one fumble recovery, one interception and a key pass breakup on a NIU fourth down play early in the game.

Northern Illinois jumped out to an early 7-0 lead on an 8-yard pass from Chandler Harnish to fullback Kyle Skarb with 1:56 to play in the first quarter. The play culminated an 11-play drive covering 69 yards in 1:56.

The lead was short-lived as "Saturday Night" Livas took the ensuing kickoff, ran straight up the middle before veering left towards the Bulldog sideline and raced 97 yards for a touchdown.

It was Livas' second career kickoff return for a touchdown and the sixth longest in Bulldog history. Livas, who also has two punt returns for scores this season, now has four returns for scores in his career, the second most trailing only Larry Anderson with five.

The kickoff return was the second longest in Indy Bowl history and the first since Duece McAllister returned one for Ole Miss against Texas Tech in 1998.

After a three-and-out by NIU on its next possession, the Bulldogs took a 14-7 lead on an 11-yard Daniel Porter touchdown run with 13:41 to play in the second quarter. The touchdown, which came on a draw play on second and goal, capped a 5-play, 42-yard drive over 2:04.

After another three-and-out by NIU, Tech appeared to have threatened again when senior Patrick Jackson took a handoff and raced over 50 yards inside the Huskies 10-yard line but a holding penalty negated the play.

After a failed third down attempt brought up a fourth down and seven, Tech attempted a fake punt but Quin Harris was tackled a foot short of the line to gain as NIU took over on the Tech 46-yard line.

The game remained 14-7 but the Bulldogs had a golden opportunity to take a bigger lead into the half when Weldon Brown recovered a fumbled punt return by the Huskies with only 36 seconds remaining in the half.

However, after three straight incompletions by Ross Jenkins, Brad Oestriecher had a 41-yard field goal attempt partially blocked by Jake Coffman as the Bulldogs entered the halftime locker room leading by a touchdown.

Oestriecher redeemed himself early in the third quarter as the Bulldogs marched 49 yards on eight plays and took a 17-7 lead on a 33-yard field goal at the 11:54 mark.

NIU answered on its ensuing possession as the Huskies drove 66 yards on 10 plays and connected on a 20-yard field goal by Mike Salerno. The big play for NIU during the drive was a third down completion from Harnish to Marcus Perez that covered 40 yards and gave the Huskies the ball on the Tech 8-yard line.

However, little did anyone know that would be the last of the scoring for either team.

Over the last five offensive possessions of the game for NIU, the Tech defense held the Huskies to only 103 yards and NIU ventured past midfield only once – the Bulldogs defense held on a fourth-down-and-five play on its own 46 yard line with less than two minutes to play.

The Bulldogs on the other hand had a couple of opportunities to add on to their total as Patrick Jackson fumbled inside the NIU 15-yard line after a 34-yard gain on a screen pass from Ross Jenkins midway through the fourth quarter.

Tech also failed to capitalize after Brown intercepted Harnish at the Huskies 37-yard line with 6:25 to play. The Bulldogs lost five yards on their three offensive plays and were forced to punt.

The eight wins is the most by a Bulldog team since the 1999 Tech squad posted an 8-3 mark and the bowl win was the first since the 1977 Independence Bowl.

#15 CLEMSON TIGERS 49

2001 HUMANITARIAN BOWL
BRONCO STADIUM
BOISE, IDAHO

Four third-quarter touchdowns, including two Woody Dantzler scoring passes, were too much for Louisiana Tech to overcome, as the Clemson Tigers downed the Bulldogs 49-24 in the 2001 Crucial.com Humanitarian Bowl before 23,472 fans at Bronco Stadium Dec. 31, 2001.

Trailing only 14-10 at the half, Tech failed to find an answer for Dantzler and company in the third quarter. Dantzler, who finished the afternoon completing 15 of 23 passes for 218 yards and four touchdowns, found running back Bernard Rambert for perhaps the game's biggest play early in the second half.

Leading 21-10, Rambert caught a short pass out of the backfield on third down, and after appearing to be stopped short, spun out of the arms of four Bulldog tacklers and raced 62 yards down the sideline to give Clemson a 28-10 advantage. The play seemed to take all of the life out of the Bulldogs.

A Rambert 21-yard touchdown scamper, followed by an Airese Currie 19-yard jaunt, increased the Tiger lead to 42-10 heading into the final stanza. The loss of All-WAC selections Bobby Gray and Jamie Nichols to first half injuries added to the Bulldogs' defensive difficulties.

After holding Clemson to only 14 points and 207 yards in the first half, the injury-riddled Bulldogs' defense allowed 35 points and 341 yards in the second stanza. Two Bulldog touchdowns in the fourth quarter, a 34-yard Luke McCown pass to Delwyn Daigre and a Joe Smith two-yard plunge, closed the gap to 49-24.

However, Clemson wasn't satisfied with the score. The Tigers drove down the field in the final three minutes and instead of running out the clock, attempted a pass into the end zone with under 30 seconds left before also attempting to run the ball in from the one-yard line on the game's final play.

Tech took an early 3-0 lead in the first quarter on a Josh Scobee 29-yard field goal on the Bulldogs' first possession. Clemson scored the game's first touchdown when Dantzler found tight end Mike Bailey from 10 yards out for a 7-3 lead with 5:48 remaining in the first quarter.

The Bulldogs retook the lead at 10-7 when McCown raced in from 11 yards away midway through the second quarter. However, a 15-yard penalty against Tech on the extra point allowed Clemson great field position on its next drive. Two plays later, Dantzler threw his second touchdown pass of the game and Clemson took a 14-10 advantage into the locker room.

One of the bright spots for Tech was the play of Daigre, who earned the most valuable player of the game award for the Bulldogs. Daigre caught 10 passes for 178 yards and one touchdown in his final game.

Despite the disappointing loss, the Bulldogs finished their season 7-5, including the program's first Western Athletic Conference title.

LOUISIANA TECH BULLDOGS 34
MARYLAND TERRAPINS 34

1990 INDEPENDENCE BOWL
INDEPENDENCE STADIUM
SHREVEPORT, LA.

SHREVEPORT, La. - An Independence Bowl record crowd of 48,325 showed up to see Louisiana Tech and Maryland battle to a 34-34 tie in one of the most exciting games of the bowl season.

Chris Boniol's 29-yard field goal as time expired gave the Bulldogs the tie.

Louisiana Tech, participating in its first bowl game since joining the Division I-A ranks prior to the 1989 season, fell behind 14-0 in the first quarter as Maryland running back Troy Jackson scored on a one-yard run and a two-yard run.

However, the Bulldogs would not let the predominantly Louisiana Tech crowd down as they fought back to tie the game at 14-14 at the half. Tech's first touchdown came with 8:30 remaining in the second quarter on a five-yard Michael Richardson run, and Boniol's extra point made the score 14-7 Terps.

Head coach Joe Raymond Peace's team tied the game with only 0:17 remaining in the first half on a three-yard Jason Davis touchdown run as the two teams entered their respective locker rooms tied at 14.

Jackson scored his third touchdown of the game for Maryland, but the extra point failed as Tech led 21-20. The Bulldogs upped their advantage to 28-20 when Gene Johnson hooked up with Bobby Slaughter on a seven-yard scoring toss.

A Boniol field goal gave Tech a 31-20 lead. Maryland scored two fourth quarter touchdowns to pull ahead 34-31, the last coming with only 0:52 remaining on a 15-yard touchdown pass from Scott Zolak to Barry Johnson on a fourth down play.

Richardson (81 yards, two scores) and Davis (72 yards, one score) led Tech's ground attack, while Johnson and Sam Hughes combined to complete 11 of 17 passes for 115 yards and one score.

EAST CAROLINA PIRATES 35

LOUISIANA TECH BULLDOGS 13

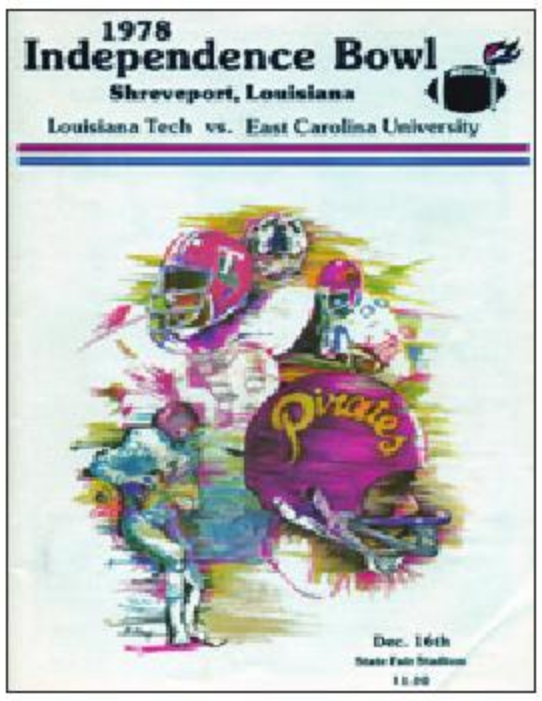
1978 INDEPENDENCE BOWL
STATE FAIR STADIUM
SHREVEPORT, LA.



Tech's return trip to the Independence Bowl was quite different from the first as East Carolina defeated the Bulldogs 35-13. The Pirates forced four fumbles and intercepted Bulldogs quarterback Eric Barkley three times en route to the victory.

ECU took control of the game early, scoring twice in the first quarter. The Pirates pushed their lead to 21-0 on a touchdown run early in the second quarter. The Bulldogs answered less than two minutes later with a 32-yard touchdown strike. Tech cut the lead to 21-10 with a 36-yard field goal less than a minute before the end of the half.

Swilley booted another 36-yard field goal six minutes into the third quarter, but that was the end of the offensive night for the Bulldogs. Pirate running back Theodore Sutton raced 45 yards for a touchdown with just under seven minutes remaining in the quarter.

The Pirates sealed the victory with another touchdown late in the game. ECU rolled up 278 yards rushing on the night, while holding the Bulldogs to only 12 yards on the ground.

LOUISVILLE CARDINALS 14

1977 INDEPENDENCE BOWL
SHREVEPORT, LA.

Tech used a high-powered passing attack and a stingy defense to defeat the favored University of Louisville, 24-14, in the school's first Division I bowl game appearance. Bulldog sophomore quarterback Keith Thibodeaux was named the game's most valuable player, completing 19 of 39 passes for 287 yards and a pair of touchdowns.

The Cardinals looked to take control of the game early when safety Kevin Miller returned a Bulldog punt 60 yards for the game's first touchdown less than two minutes into the contest.

However, that was the end of the road for Louisville as Thibodeaux proceeded to pick apart the Cardinal secondary. The Opelousas native drove the Bulldogs 68 yards to paydirt, tying the score. Running back Charlie Lewis capped the drive, punching it in from one yard out.

Later in the first quarter Thibodeaux hooked up with receiver George Pree for a 41-yard scoring strike to give the Bulldogs a 13-7 lead. Tech never looked back, pushing its lead to 21-7 late in the first when Thibodeaux connected with tight end Larry McCartney from eight yards out and Lewis added the two-point conversion.

Tech added a 21-yard Keith Swilley field goal in the second quarter. Louisville tried to climb back into the game in the third, scoring on a 13-yard run by Miller midway through the quarter.

However, that was all the Bulldogs would allow. Tech forced three fumbles, an interception and held the Cardinals to only 11 first downs. The Louisville offense could muster only 100 yards rushing and an astonishing 61 yards through the air.

POSTSEASON PLAY

1984 NCAA Division I-AA Championship

Montana State 19, Louisiana Tech 6
December 15, Charleston, S.C.

After an impressive run in the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs, Louisiana Tech struggled in the 1984 National Championship game as Montana State defeated the Bulldogs 19-6.

After scoring 131 points in its three previous playoff wins to advance to the title game, the Bulldog offense sputtered all afternoon long in large part because of the stellar play of the Bobcats defense, which sacked Tech quarterback Kyle Gandy 11 times.

Two possessions later, following a blocked punt by Montana State, the Bobcats scored the game's first touchdown as Kelly Bradley hit Joe Bignell for a 17-yard scoring strike. Carter's extra point was wide left, but Montana State still led 9-0.

Montana State's defense held Louisiana Tech without a first down in the opening 15 minutes of play while forcing two Bulldog turnovers.

The second quarter started better for the Bulldogs as Tech marched down to the Montana State 27-yard line before Gandy fumbled and the Bobcats recovered, ending the Tech scoring threat.

Montana State upped its advantage to 16-0 as it drove 80 yards, capped by a Bradley to Bignell 33-yard scoring strike. Carter added a 48-yard field goal right before the half as the Bobcats took a commanding 19-0 lead into the locker room.

After gaining only 62 total yards of offense in the first half, Tech had a little more success in the final two quarters of play. However, Gandy's 10-yard touchdown pass to Mike Sherman with only 0:48 remaining in the game was too little too late as Montana State won the 1984 Division I-AA National Championship.

Gandy finished the afternoon, completing 24 of 38 passes for 287 yards and the one score but was intercepted four times by the Bobcats defense.

Bradley posted stellar numbers for Montana State, completing 32 of 57 passes for 334 yards and two scores while Bignell registered 10 receptions for 130 yards and two touchdowns.

1984 NCAA Division I-AA Semifinal

Louisiana Tech 21, Middle Tenn. 13
December 8, Murfreesboro, Tenn.

Louisiana Tech running back David Green racked up 107 rushing yards, including an 80-yard touchdown run, to help seal a 21-13 win against the Blue Raiders in Murfreesboro, Tenn., to advance to the national I-AA championship against Montana State.

Tech jumped on the board first when Richie Sims returned a blocked punt to take a 7-0 lead in the first quarter. Middle Tennessee got on the scoreboard in the second quarter with a field goal and trailed 7-3 going into the half.

The Blue Raiders took a 10-7 lead in the third quarter on a seven-play, 46-yard drive that ended with a two-yard touchdown by running back Gerald Anderson.

The Bulldogs regained the lead minutes later when quarterback Kyle Gandy connected with Todd Breske on an 11-yard pass that capped a 13-play, 72-yard drive.

Middle Tennessee moved within one point at 14-13 with a field goal in the fourth quarter, but that was as close as the Blue Raiders got. On the next play from scrimmage, Green added his game-sealing run to give Tech the victory.

Gandy hit 16-of-28 passes for 134 yards and one touchdown while Breske led all receivers with 44 yards on four receptions.

1984 NCAA Division I-AA Quarterfinal

Louisiana Tech 44, Alcorn State 21
December 1, Jackson, Miss.

Louisiana Tech took on the SWAC Champs and the nation's No. 1 team in the 1984 quarterfinals in Jackson, Miss.

Both teams were held scoreless in the first quarter, but the Tech offense erupted in the second quarter. Running back Gerry Jones started the scoring on a five-yard run early in the second quarter to give the Bulldogs a 7-0 lead.

Three minutes later, wide receiver Mike Sherman hauled in a 12-yard pass from quarterback Kyle Gandy to push Tech's lead to 14-0. The Bulldogs added two points on a safety as the Tech defense sacked Alcorn's quarterback, Rich Myles, in the end zone. Gandy connected for two more touchdown passes in the quarter, an eightyard pass to Lester Mills and a five-yard pass to Todd Breske, to give Tech a 30-0 lead heading into halftime.

By the time the Braves got on the scoreboard in the fourth quarter, the 'Dogs had rolled up 448 yards of offense and held Alcorn State to minus 67 yards rushing.

Gandy connected for 19-of-31 passes for 287 yards and three touchdowns. Sherman led all receivers with 160 yards on eight receptions while David Green led the running backs with 73 yards on 18 carries and one touchdown.

1984 NCAA Division I-AA First Round

Louisiana Tech 66, Miss. Valley State 19
November 24, Ruston, La.

Tech fans had fun at this game, as the 'Dogs turned the tables on the explosive "run and shoot" of MVSU. Tech rolled up an NCAA playoff record 703 yards of total offense and also set or tied six other playoff marks.

The Bulldogs struck first in the game with a 49-yard George Benyola field goal in the first quarter. Three minutes later, Tech took a 10-0 lead as Todd Breske pulled in a 34-yard pass from quarterback Kyle Gandy.

Mississippi Valley scored its first touchdown at the end of the first quarter to close the gap to 10-6.

The Tech offense picked up in the second quarter as David Green scored on a one-yard run to push the Tech lead to 17-6. Tech's Gerry Jones scored two more touchdowns, an eight-yard pass from Gandy and a five-yard run to give the Bulldogs a 31-6 lead.

However, MVSU was not done with its first-half scoring as future NFL star Jerry Rice scored on a 64-yard pass play as time expired to close the gap to 38-19 at halftime. It was the last time in the game that the Delta Devils scored.

The Tech offense picked up steam in the third quarter, scoring three touchdowns, including a 69-yard run by Cleve Bailey. The Bulldogs added a final score in the fourth quarter as Lester Mills pulled in a six-yard pass by Jordan Stanley.

Tech picked up 408 rushing yards in the game, led by Green who recorded 179 yards on 24 carries and three touchdowns. Gandy connected for 11-of-18 passes for 262 yards and three touchdowns while Breske led the receivers with 119 yards on three receptions and two touchdowns.

1982 NCAA Division I-AA Semifinal

Delaware 17, Louisiana Tech 0
December 11, Ruston, La.

Playing under cold and rainy conditions, the Bulldog offense failed to score against the Blue Hens as Tech was eliminated from the Division I-AA playoffs.

Delaware picked up a 7-0 lead in the first quarter after gaining good field position following a blocked punt. The Blue Hens took over on the Bulldog 24-yard line and five plays later, picked up their first score.

Under the harsh conditions, neither team could move the ball effectively in the first half as Delaware took the 7-0 lead into the locker room at halftime.

Matt Dunigan led the Tech offense, completing 22-of-47 passes for 239 yards. Frederick Brown led the receivers with 66 yards on five receptions while Carlton Jacobs led the running backs with 33 yards on 11 carries.

Louisiana Tech 38, South Carolina State 3
December 4, Ruston, La.

Louisiana Tech rolled up 474 yards of total offense to advance to the 1982 Division I-AA Semifinals.

South Carolina State scored the first three points of the game but that was all, as the Bulldogs amassed 38 points throughout the contest.

The Bulldogs tied the score in the first quarter on a 27-yard field goal by Roberto Dager. Tech added a touchdown early in the second quarter as Gerald McDaniel caught a three-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Matt Dunigan. Dunigan scored on a quarterback sneak with two minutes left in the half to give the Bulldogs a 17-3 halftime lead.

Tech extended its lead in the third quarter as Carlton Jacobs hauled in a threeyard touchdown pass from Dunigan. The Bulldogs scored two more touchdowns in the fourth quarter with Dunigan rushing for a second score and Kyle Gandy hitting Chris Tilley for an 11-yard strike to close out the score at 38-3.

Dunigan completed 19-of-41 passes for 211 yards and two touchdowns. The All-American also rushed for 72 yards on 11 carries for another two touchdowns. Tilley led the receivers with 49 yards on three receptions and one touchdown.

1974 Pioneer Bowl NCAA Division II Semifinal

Central Michigan 35, Louisiana Tech 14
December 7, Wichita Falls, Texas

The Chippewas built a 35-0 lead before Tech, hampered by six interceptions, scored two TDs in the fourth quarter.

Both teams remained scoreless in the first quarter before Central Michigan took control in the second quarter with two unanswered touchdowns to take a 14-0 lead into the half.

CMU added one touchdown in the third quarter and two more in the fourth quarter before the Bulldogs jumped on the scoreboard.

Tech's Arry Moody pulled in a five-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Steve Haynes to put Louisiana Tech on the scoreboard. Moody later scored again on a 15-yard run.

Haynes completed 10-of-23 passes for one touchdown while Moody led the Tech receivers with 45 yards on two receptions and one touchdown.

1973 Camellia Bowl
NCAA Division II National Championship

Louisiana Tech 34, Western Kentucky 0
December 16, Sacramento, Calif.

The Bulldogs blew out the Hilltoppers to win the NCAA's first Division II national championship. Tech amassed 336 yards of total offense, compared to just 76 for WKU. The opponents were held to minus 12 yards on the ground, and Tech picked off four passes.

Tech picked up its first points in the first quarter on a 33-yard field goal by Jerry Pope. Two minutes later, Charles "Quick Six" McDaniel scored on a 1-yard touchdown run to give the Bulldogs a 10-0 lead.

The Bulldogs added to their lead early in the second quarter when Danny Curtis intercepted a Hilltopper pass and returned it 11 yards for a touchdown. A little over a minute later, quarterback Denny Duron connected with Roger Carr on a 36-yard pass to give the Bulldogs a 24-0 lead going into the locker room.

Louisiana Tech added to its lead in the fourth quarter on a 31-yard field goal by Pope and a 28-yard touchdown pass from Steve Haynes to Pat Tilley.

Duron completed 4-of-14 passes for 78 yards and one touchdown while Haynes completed 6-of-13 for 72 yards and one touchdown. McDaniel rushed for 116 yards on 21 carries while Tilley recorded 106 receiving yards on seven catches.

1973 Division II Semifinals

Louisiana Tech 38, Boise State 34
December 8, Wichita Falls, Texas

In a high-scoring affair, Louisiana Tech's Denny Duron connected with Roger Carr on a 21-yard touchdown pass with :12 left in the game to lift the Bulldogs into the 1973 Division II National Championship.

The Broncos took an early lead, scoring two touchdowns in the first quarter before the Bulldogs answered on a touchdown run by Charles "Quick Six" McDaniel.

Tech added to its point total in the second quarter on a field goal by Jerry Pope and another rushing touchdown by McDaniel to give the Bulldogs a 17-14 halftime lead.

The teams traded leads throughout the second half as Boise State scored another touchdown early in the third quarter to take a 20-17 lead.

Boise State and Tech traded scores early in the fourth quarter before the Broncos took their last lead on a touchdown play with 3:42 remaining in the game.

But the time allowed the Bulldogs to march down the field on an 11-play drive capped by Carr's touchdown grab to give Louisiana Tech the 38-34 win.

Duron completed 16-of-30 passes for 259 yards and two touchdowns while rushing 37 yards on 15 carries for another touchdown. Carr led the receivers with 117 yards on five receptions for two touchdowns while McDaniel rushed for 116 yards on 20 carries for two touchdowns.

East Tennessee 34, Louisiana Tech 14
December 13, Baton Rouge, La.

In Terry Bradshaw's final appearance as a Bulldog, he completed 20 passes for 299 yards, but he was sacked 12 times for 143 yards in losses as the Bulldogs fell 34-14 to East Tennessee in the 1969 Grantland Rice Bowl.

The Buccaneers got on the scoreboard first with a touchdown in the first quarter to take an early 6-0 lead. East Tennessee extended its lead to 13-0 in the second quarter on a 37-yard halfback pass for a touchdown and took that lead into the locker room at the half.

Louisiana Tech 33, Akron 13
December 14, Murfreesboro, Tenn.

Playing in the school's first bowl game, the Bulldogs battled sub-freezing temperatures and the Akron Zips but came out with a 33-13 victory.

The Bulldogs didn't waste any time scoring, tallying three touchdowns in the first quarter. Quarterback Terry Bradshaw picked up the first score on a 16-yard run. Moments later, Bradshaw hit Tommy Spinks on a 36-yard pass to give the Bulldogs a second touchdown. Fullback Buster Herren added a third score on a 2-yard run to give Tech a 21-0 lead early in the game.

Akron picked up a touchdown in the second quarter and trailed 21-7 at halftime, then moved within eight points in the third quarter, making the score 21-13.

But the Bulldogs toughened up in the fourth quarter, scoring twice on plays led by Bradshaw. On the first score, Bradshaw shook off several Akron tacklers and hit tight end Larry Brewer on a six-yard scoring strike. Later in the quarter, Bradshaw scored again on an eight-yard run to close out the scoring.

Bradshaw led the Bulldogs offensively, completing 19-of-33 passes for 261 yards and two touchdowns. The young quarterback also led the team in rushing, collecting 35 yards on 12 carries for another two scores. Spinks led the receivers with 12 receptions for 167 yards and one touchtown.

THE LEGEND OF THE BULLDOG

The story takes place in the autumn of 1899 when five Tech students were returning home from school. They came upon an old, hungry bulldog sitting under a tree. The boys fed the dog with what food they had and continued their journey.

When they finally reached their destination, however, they found that the dog had followed them. Being sensitive young men, they sought permission for the dog to stay the night, and the landlord agreed – if the animal remained in the kitchen.

Their overnight guest was the first to awaken. The dog ran from room to room, rousing everyone in the building. Then, after all the other occupants had made their way to safety, one boy remained inside. The bulldog re-entered the smoke-filled house in an apparent attempt to rescue him, not realizing the boy had escaped in a different direction.

After the fire was extinguished and smoke had finally cleared, the boys went inside to see if the dog had indeed made it out to safety. But when they entered they found the lifeless bulldog lying in an unburned corner of one room. He had died from the smoke and the heat.

Naturally, the young men were shaken due to the death of their new friend. So they picked him up and carried him to the place they had found him the previous day. They then dug a grave and wrapped him in two jackets – one red and the other blue.

When the boys returned to school and related their story, the entire campus mourned the death of the homeless dog. The dog with no name had found a place in the hearts of Tech students.

Two years later, Tech organized a football team and decided the team needed not only school colors, but a mascot. A unanimous decision was reached as the bulldog, the first hero of Tech, was given the honor and the red and blue blankets he was buried in were made the school colors.

Louisiana Tech University and President Les Guice share a rich history together that spans five decades and has produced family ties that are deeply rooted in a passion for the Bulldogs and Lady Techsters. From an architecture student stepping on the campus for the first time in 1972 to an appointment as Louisiana Tech's 14th President in 2013, Dr. Guice has shown an unwavering commitment to leadership and service to his alma mater.

One of Dr. Guice's first achievements at Louisiana Tech was earning a bachelor of arts in architecture in 1976. Discovering a passion for engineering under the mentorship of Professor Jack Painter, Dr. Guice went on to earn a master's degree in civil engineering from Tech in 1978. While working on his master's degree, Dr. Guice also discovered a passion for teaching and education as a profession.

Dr. Guice accepted a position as an assistant professor of civil engineering at Louisiana Tech in 1978 and was promoted to associate professor in 1981. A few short years after earning his Ph.D. in civil engineering from Texas A&M University in 1986, Dr. Guice was named the interim department head of civil engineering in Louisiana Tech's College of Engineering in 1988 and earned the permanent department head position and full professorship in 1989. As department head, Dr. Guice initiated the formation of the Civil Engineering Advisory Board and the Civil Engineering Distinguished Alumni recognition program, both of which significantly enhanced alumni participation and significantly enhanced fund-raising for the department.

Throughout the next decade, Dr. Guice would continue to distinguish himself as an academician, researcher, administrator and leader. His dedication to his students, his faculty and the university would lead to his appointment as Dean of Louisiana Tech's College of Engineering and Science (COES) in 1999. As Dean, Dr. Guice continued to encourage and support innovations in the curricula. The College's faculty became increasingly successful in securing external funding for the integrated curriculum which resulted in a transformative redesign of curricula throughout the College.

Dr. Guice's leadership and vision also reinvigorated the Engineering and Science Foundation to more effectively serve the needs of the College. He initiated a new integrated strategic plan, known as "COES 2010," and capital campaign, "Tech's BEST," that led advancement of the college and to funding for an Eminent Scholar Chair, 15 Professorships, $500k Scholarship Fund, and several new laboratories and facilities.

Dr. Guice leadership also helped to guide the Institute for Micromanufacturing (IfM) toward a focus on the emerging field of nanotechnology. With the hiring of key nanotechnology faculty in numerous disciplines, further expansion of research laboratories, establishment of an interdisciplinary engineering PhD program with a nanotechnology track, and initiation of a B.S. in Nanosystems Engineering, the IfM and COES established strong research and education nanotechnology programs that have received national recognition.

In 2004, Dr. Guice's performance and accomplishments as dean of the College of Engineering and Science led to his appointment as Louisiana Tech's vice president for research and development. During his tenure as vice president and as executive vice president in 2012, Louisiana Tech has significantly increased patents, licenses/options, start-up companies, SBIR grants with affiliated companies, and has established strong industry partnerships for commercialization of technologies. Dr. Guice also led the establishment of Louisiana Tech's first two technology incubators, the Rawle and Humana Enterprise Centers.

With a focus on the future and a progressive vision for economic development, Dr. Guice has led the planning and development of the Louisiana Tech Enterprise Campus – a research park connecting the university and downtown Ruston. Enterprise Campus' first building, Tech Pointe, was completed in 2012 and is now home for several companies and organizations, including an Air Force funded Cyberspace Research Laboratory. With the recent completion of Louisiana Tech's new College of Business building and renovation to University Hall as a home for interdisciplinary entrepreneurship and innovation activities, the first phase of Enterprise Campus is nearing completion.

Dr. Guice's reputation for exemplary leadership has not been bound by the campus or the region. Roles in statewide leadership have included election to serve as the founding Chair for the Louisiana Optical Network Initiative (LONI) Management Council, serving as Chair of the Louisiana EPSCoR Committee, and leading the development of a statewide science and technology plan, called FIRST Louisiana. Dr. Guice currently serves as Chair of the Board of Regents Master Plan Research Advisory Council and as chair of the Louisiana Innovation Council.

Among the many awards and recognitions Dr. Guice has earned during his career is the Robert E. Russ Award from the Ruston/Lincoln Parish Chamber of Commerce (2009), Outstanding Civil Engineer from the ASCE Louisiana Section (2008), Louisiana Tech University Civil Engineering Distinguished Alumnus (2007), Louisiana Engineering Society's James M. Todd Technological Accomplishment Award (2007), Governor's University Technology Leader of the Year Award (2006), and Louisiana Engineering Society A.B. Patterson Medal for an Engineer in Management (2004.)

On December 4, 2012, during a special session of the University of Louisiana System Board of Supervisors, Dr. Guice was unanimously voted to serve as the 14th President of Louisiana Tech University. Dr. Guice officially took over as President on July 1, 2013.

As President of Louisiana Tech, Dr. Guice is the chief executive officer of north Louisiana's only Carnegie Foundation national research university and one of only two public universities from Louisiana recognized in the top tier of national universities by U.S. News and World Report. Dr. Guice leads a university that most recently has been ranked #11 in the nation in a list of "Most Underrated Colleges In America" (Business Insider), #17 in the nation in a list of "Low Cost Colleges with High Starting Salaries for Graduates" (Affordable Colleges Online), and #21 in the nation for providing its graduates with the best returns on their investments (AdvisorOne.)

Throughout his career, Dr. Guice has contributed to and played a central role in creating the culture and vision for the future of Louisiana Tech, and continues that commitment as President. Dr. Guice's focus on campus-wide engagement, building and growing relationships, and leadership in forging a path toward advancement of the university's academic and athletic programs, research and commercialization activities, and economic development efforts means that Louisiana Tech University's best days are yet to come.

Dr. Guice is a native of Monroe and grew up in Bastrop. He and his wife, Kathy, have three sons – Kyle, Chad, and Bret – one grandson, Christopher, and twin granddaughters, Elizabeth and Everly.

McClelland, the youngest AD among all Football Bowl Subdivision athletic programs, came to Ruston after serving six years in the same position at McNeese State in Lake Charles.

His first two years in north Louisiana have been successful ones. McClelland's philosophy of developing student-athletes into champions on the playing fields, in the class room and in life is the cornerstone of his leadership style.

While leading Louisiana Tech into the Conference USA era, McClelland impacted the athletics department through fundraising, facility improvements, coaching hires and overall student-athlete development.

Shortly after his hiring, McClelland re-energized the LA Tech fanbase when he joined President Guice in an October press conference revealing the updated plans for the $22 million Davison Athletics Complex located in the south endzone of Joe Aillet Stadium - the centerpiece of the University's Quest for Excellence capital campaign. McClelland completed the fundraising needed for the project, and the new facility opened in August of 2015.

The three-story facility, 70,000-plus square foot building benefits all of Louisiana Tech's student-athletes; it includes a new state-of-the-art strength and conditioning complex utilized by all 16 of the University's athletic programs. The building also houses football coaches' offices, football locker room, team and position meeting rooms, club seating and a multi-functional dining space that can be utilized for athletic and campus events. It will generate an additional $500,000 annually in revenue.

Another marquee addition to the Louisiana Tech athletic facilities during McClelland's tenure is the $1.2 million Paul Millsap Vision presented by Community Trust Bank, a high definition video display board in the Thomas Assembly Center. The project also included a customized sound system for the Thomas Assembly Center and a video board control room, which will be utilized for both football and basketball.

These two major facility improvements and additional smaller scale projects were made possible through a pair of record-setting years in fundraising. During the 2013-14 fiscal year, McClelland spearheaded the efforts in raising more than $10.8 million through both LTAC and Quest for Excellence; more than double any previous year in Tech Athletics history. Included in the record total were five, seven-figure gifts.

The 2014-15 fiscal year saw record totals in Louisiana Tech Athletic Club (LTAC) unrestricted donations – both in dollar figures and in total number of donors. It also included increases in ticket sales in football, men's and women's basketball.

Tech had plenty of success stories on the playing fields during the past two years, led by the Bulldog basketball team winning back-to-back Conference USA regular season titles and advancing into the NIT with impressive road wins over SEC foe Georgia (2014) and Texas A&M (2015). The Dunkin' Dawgs tied the program single season wins record (29) in 2014 and totaled 56 wins during the two year span.

On the gridiron, the Bulldog football team captured the Conference USA West Division title in 2014, recording a 9-5 overall record and barely falling to Marshall in the C-USA title game. Tech earned an invitation to the Heart of Dallas Bowl and promptly defeated Big 10 foe Illinois 35-18.

In addition to the men's basketball and football successes, the Lady Techster tennis team recorded one of its best seasons in program history, posting a 15-7 record and earning the No. 5 seed in the C-USA championships. First-year head coach Chad Camper earned the Louisiana Sports Writers Association Coach of the Year Award, and the Lady Techsters earned their first ever regional ranking, finishing seventh in the southern region of the final Intercollegiate Tennis Association rankings.

Tech sophomore Victor Lange became the first Bulldog golfer ever to earn an NCAA Regional appearance and competed in the San Antonio Region and Lubbock region the past two years.

McClelland also made some tough personnel decisions, making coaching changes in both women's basketball and baseball. McClelland made a national splash with the hiring of Tyler Summitt to lead the tradition-rich Lady Techster basketball program. Summitt, son of legendary Tennessee Lady Vols coach Pat Summitt, is the youngest head coach of any Division I women's basketball program. He brought instant national notoriety back to the program and led a senior-laden to a winning record in year No. 1 while beginning the process of changing the culture. Summitt and the Techsters were featured by national outlets such as CBS 60-Minute Sports, NBC Nightly News, USA Today, ESPN.com, ESPN SportsCenter, New York Times, Sports Illustrated and more.

He also hired one of the rising stars in college baseball in Greg Goff, a 21-year coaching veteran who recently led Campbell to its third straight 40-win season. The Camels joined LSU, Florida State, Oregon, Oregon State, Louisville, South Carolina and Rice as the only NCAA Division I baseball programs with at least 40 victories in each of the past three years. Goff led the program to this year's NCAA Regionals. In year No. 1 at Tech, Goff guided the Bulldogs to within one game of a .500 record, which was a 10-game improvement in the win column over the previous season.

Prior to coming to Ruston, McClelland made a national name for himself after quickly elevating to the athletics director position at age 26. He earned high praise from a number of high-profile, experienced athletic administrators.

"Tommy McClelland is an outstanding leader and one of the nation's rising stars in intercollegiate athletics," said Bubba Cunningham, athletics director at the University of North Carolina. "He has a demonstrated commitment to supporting and developing his coaches and student-athletes and has already become well-known among ADs for his leadership, vision and character. Tommy has also shown a dedication to lifelong learning and the application of his skills and talents to making his athletic programs better."

Prior to being named athletic director at McNeese State on March 19, 2008, McClelland served as interim athletic director and assistant athletic director of internal affairs at the university.

In his time at McNeese, McClelland and his staff had numerous success stories when it came to increased revenue streams and the overall game-day experience in Lake Charles. He raised more than $3 million in private donations, and he was instrumental in increasing corporate sponsorships to nearly $1 million, while securing new clients and multi-year sponsorships.

McClelland was also responsible for increasing football season ticket sales: the program eclipsed the 8,000 mark in 2008 with a high of 8,035 in 2009. In addition, he was instrumental in setting single-game attendance records in baseball, volleyball, softball, soccer, women's basketball and women's tennis.

"Tommy is a rising star in the college athletics administration field and, in my view, the ideal leader to advance Louisiana Tech's athletics program as it transitions into Conference USA," said Ian McCaw, athletics director at Baylor University. "He possesses impeccable integrity and has an extraordinary work ethic. Moreover, his interpersonal and relational skills are outstanding and will enable him to quickly connect with Bulldog fans as well as campus and community leaders."

One of McClelland's main goals was to improve the life of the student-athletes and increase the game-day experience for the McNeese State fan base. One of the most effective ways to accomplish these goals was by improving the facilities. During his time at McNeese State, he oversaw a combined total of over $11 million dollars in facility renovation and new construction.

The combination of increased revenue streams, renovations and new construction, and a highly-involved fan base led to plenty of success stories on the playing fields. During his tenure as athletic director, McNeese won Southland Conference championships in football (2007, 2009), soccer (2006, tournament; 2007, regular season), softball (2010, tournament; 2013, regular season), men's basketball (2011, regular season), women's basketball (2011, regular season; 2011 and 2012 tournament) and men's cross country (2012). The women's basketball program made its first appearances ever in the NCAA Tournament, and the men's basketball program hosted the first round of the NIT postseason tournament (Boston College live on ESPNU).

Even more impressive is the fact that while the Cowboy and Cowgirl programs were capturing titles on the fields, the University's student-athletes were making tremendous strides in the classroom. In five of McClelland's six years as athletics director, McNeese State led the Southland Conference in the number of student-athletes named to the Commissioner's Honor Roll.

In addition, McClelland guided the resurgence in APR success in Lake Charles. The number of athletic programs boasting the required APR score of 925 went from four in his first year to all 16 in his final year. The community service hours performed by the MSU student-athletes also tripled to more than 3,000 during his tenure.

"Tommy has a great knowledge of college athletics and excels at helping his student-athletes balance and succeed in their commitments to academics and athletics," said Warde Manuel, athletics director at the University of Connecticut. "Tommy has also proven his ability to work effectively with coaches and administrators to help his programs be successful."

McClelland earned his bachelor's degree from Northwestern State in 2004 and completed his master's degree in sports administration in 2005. He walked on with the Demons football team and eventually earned a scholarship; he also competed in the javelin for the NSU track and field team.

The native of Basile, Louisiana served as a graduate assistant at Northwestern State in athletics and also worked at the Southland Conference office as an administrative intern, assisting with championship events.

McClelland is also a 2012 graduate of the Executive Program of the Sports Management Institute and attended instruction at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill's Kenan-Flagler Business School and the University of Southern California's Marshall School of Business.

McClelland is married to the former Jessica Stokes of Garrison, Texas. They have two sons, Lawson (5) and Grayson (4).

Deputy Athletics Director and Senior Woman Administrator Mary Kay Hungate enters her 30th year as a member of the Louisiana Tech Athletics Department and has proven to be an integral part in the emergence of the University's programs on the playing fields and in the classroom.

Not only does Hungate serve as the sports administrator for softball, women's volleyball, men's and women's track and field, and women's bowling, but she is also in charge of NCAA compliance for all of the university's 16 NCAA sanctioned programs.

As one of the top two ranking administrators in the Tech Athletics Department, Hungate is part of a senior staff that was instrumental in helping the University earn an invitation to join Conference USA starting July 1, 2013.

Hungate serves a vital role in the hiring of head coaches. She served as the point person in the hiring process of head women's soccer coach Kevin Sherry. Sherry led the Lady Techster soccer team to four straight winning seasons (the first ones in program history), the program's first appearance in the WAC Tournament in 2010 and the program's first postseason win in the 2014 Conference USA Tournament. She has also been involved in the hiring of a number of other highly successful coaches, including current Lady Techster basketball coach Tyler Summitt, son of legendary Tennessee coach Pat Summitt.

Another of Hungate's responsibilities includes overseeing the academic side of the Tech athletics department, another area which has improved drastically as proven by the fact LA Tech's graduation rate continues to be one of the highest in the state (Federal Graduation Report).

Louisiana Tech's student-athletes continue to reach academic progress superlatives. For the seventh straight year the University recorded all-time highs in the most recent Federal Graduation Rate Report released by the NCAA last October. Tech's student-athletes recorded a Graduation Success Rate (GSR) of 81 percent and a Federal Graduation Rate (FGR) of 60 percent, which both were improvements over last year's numbers.

Louisiana Tech's 81 percent graduation success rate ranks as the second highest in the state among Division I football-playing public institutions. LA Tech's graduation success rate is one percentage points higher than last year's (80) and easily outdistances the state average of 69 percent among the other nine Division I football-playing public institutions in the state of Louisiana.

Tech also recorded the second highest federal graduation rate of any Division I football-playing public institution in the state at 60 percent, which also bests last year's mark of 59 percent.

The success of Louisiana Tech's student-athletes in the classroom was across the board as 14 of the 16 Division I sanctioned athletic programs recorded at least a 70 percent GSR led by men's golf, women's basketball and women's tennis with 100 percent scores. The Lady Techster basketball team's GSR ranked first in the state (tied with Tulane and Centenary) and first in C-USA (tied with Rice and Middle Tennessee).

One of the most impressive numbers in comparison to program's across the country was posted by the Bulldog football team which recorded a 77 percent GSR, which ranks first in the state of Louisiana among public institutions and fourth among all Conference USA programs (behind only Rice, UTSA and Middle Tennessee).

Hungate also plays an important role in LA Tech's NCAA Certification process. As a member of the Steering Committee and the liaison between the athletic department and the University's Self Study Committees, she provides the information needed for the committees to write their reports.

In addition, Hungate and the current senior staff have also garnered a number of national awards, including the 2010 Turnkey PRISM Award - which recognizes colleges for managerial excellence across four areas: marketing/branding; fan development; community relations; and customer/client service.

The Tech athletics department also finished in the Top 10 three times in the Excellence in Management Cup, which recognizes the most efficient athletic departments in the nation.

Hungate joined the Louisiana Tech staff in 1985 as an assistant women's basketball coach and remained in that role for five years. During that time, the Lady Techsters participated in four Final Fours and won the NCAA National Championship in 1988.

In 1990, Hungate made a move out of coaching and became assistant athletics director for academics and compliance as well as senior woman administrator. One of Hungate's early accomplishments as assistant director of athletics was the creation of the Louisiana Tech Athletic Academic Center program.

Hungate has served terms on the NCAA Division I Academics/Eligibility/Compliance Cabinet, the NCAA Division I Interpretations/Legislative Review Subcommittee, the National Association of Collegiate Women Athletics Administrators Wade Trophy Selection Committee and as an NCAA Peer Reviewer. She has also served on the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Issues Committee since 2004.

She served on the Western Athletic Conference Council, the Conferences' Legislative Review Committee, the Finance Committee and the Code Book Committee. In addition, along with Athletics Director Tommy McClelland, she represents the athletics department as an ex-officio member of the LA Tech Athletics Council.

Hungate's professional career began as Women's Sports Coordinator and head volleyball, head basketball and head softball coach at Illinois' Carl Sandburg Junior College. She spent four seasons at the college where she guided the basketball team to a mark of 80-22 which included an 11th place finish in the 1976 NJCAA national tournament.

During her seven seasons at Richwoods High School, Hungate's team ran up an impressive record of 195-13, including a state-record 63 consecutive victories. Hungate was named the National Coach of the Year by USA Today in 1985. Before coming to Louisiana Tech, Hungate amassed a career coaching record of 275-35.

Marco Born enters his second year as a member of the Louisiana Tech senior athletics staff, joining the University in August of 2014 as the senior associate athletics director in charge of external operations.

Born comes to Ruston after spending the past 10 years at Middle Tennessee as a student-athlete and administrator. In his new position at Louisiana Tech, Born oversees external operations, including ticketing and marketing while serving as the liaison with LA Tech Sports Properties and Aspire. He is heavily involved in athletic fundraising while also serving on the athletics senior staff and as the sport administrator for baseball.

During his first year in Ruston, Born was instrumental in coordinating the sales of the 302-seat club level in the Davison Athletics Complex which will generate more than $500,000 annually. The club level seats sold out more than three months prior to the completion of the project.

Born was also a part of a fundraising team that saw $1,150,000 donated to the Louisiana Tech Athletic Club (LTAC) by more than 1,100 donors while a total of $1.5 million unrestricted dollars were donated. These surpassed the previous records of 1,055 donors as 215 individuals made their first ever gift to LTAC this past year. LTAC membership also increased by 17 percent and revenue increased by 30 percent.

Born has served on the athletics staff at Middle Tennessee since June of 2007, including stints as associate athletics director and assistant athletics director for ticketing and marketing. During his time on the senior administrative staff in Murfreesboro, Born handled all internal and external duties with oversight of marketing, ticketing, Aspire and Learfield partners. He served on the senior staff for five years and was heavily involved in the school's transition to Conference USA.

He was instrumental in facilitating ticket sales efforts for sellout crowds of the Murphy Center for both men's and women's basketball as well as the three largest crowds in Floyd Stadium history for football, including the first ever sellout in 2011 against Georgia Tech. Women's basketball attendance consistently ranked in the top 30 nationally ever year. Born also oversaw the $11 million renovation to the Murphy Center and a $1.4 million turf replacement at Floyd Stadium.

During his time as a student-athlete at Middle Tennessee, Born was a three-year varsity letter-winner for the Blue Raiders tennis program where he captured the 2005 ITA Division I All-American championship and the 2007 NCAA Division I Doubles championship. He was a two-time ITA Division I All-American, a 3-time All-Sun Belt Conference selection and a member of the 2007 ITA Collegiate All-Star team.

Off the courts, he was named to the Academic Honor Roll twice while serving on the Student-Athlete Advisory Council. He was nominated for the Sun Belt Conference's Sporting Behavior Award and the NCAA Today's Top VIII Award. He has served in the past as a member of the Sun Belt Conference Fellows Program, the ITA Steering Committee and the NCAA Men's and Women's Tennis Committee.

Born earned his bachelor's degree in business administration from Middle Tennessee in 2007 and his master's in sports management in 2009. He completed the Sports Management Institute Executive Program from the University of Michigan and University of Texas in 2013.

He is married to the former Emily Vest, a former Division I tennis player at Middle Tennessee, and the couple has a 3-year-old daughter named Scarlett Elizabeth.

A 1994 graduate of the Louisiana Tech journalism department, Butler joined the athletic department in July of 1999 as the assistant athletic media relations director. Butler was then promoted to director four months later and served in that capacity until the fall of 2007 when he was promoted to associate athletic director.

The Ruston native is in charge of media relations for women's basketball and softball and also serves as the secondary contact for football while overseeing the daily operations for the entire department. He is a member of Tommy McClelland's senior staff and also serves as the sports supervisor for women's tennis.

During his time at Louisiana Tech, Butler has been instrumental in promoting numerous high-profile student-athletes including record-setting quarterbacks Tim Rattay and Luke McCown, and All-American women's basketball players Tamicha Jackson and Cheryl Ford.

He has also worked closely with a number of highly-successful head coaches, including 4-time Hall of Famer Leon Barmore, current Dallas Cowboys wide receiver coach Derek Dooley and current Lady Techster women's basketball coach Tyler Summitt, son of legendary Tennessee coach Pat Summitt.

Over the course of his tenure, Louisiana Tech's Athletic Communications Department has proven to be one of the most successful in the state. Over the past 14 years, members of the department have won a total of 60 awards at the annual Louisiana Sports Writers Association (LSWA) SID contest, the second most behind only LSU.

During that same period of time, Butler has personally garnered 31 awards, tried for most among all state SIDs with LSU Associate Athletics Director Michael Bonnette.

Butler is part of a senior staff at LA Tech that has been instrumental in garnering a number of national awards, including the 2010 Turnkey PRISM Award - which recognizes colleges for managerial excellence across four areas: marketing/branding; fan development; community relations; and customer/client service.

The Tech athletics department also finished in the Top 10 three times in the Excellence in Management Cup, which recognizes the most efficient athletic departments in the nation. He was instrumental in forming the partnership between Louisiana Tech and CBS Interactive in the fall of 2007, including the redesign and hosting of the athletic departments website, LATechSports.com.

As part of the agreement with CBS Interactive, a webstreaming platform - LA Tech All-Access -- was created, allowing fans from all over the world to watch live streams of almost all of the university's home athletic events. LA Tech All-Access annually streams more than 125 live events.

Butler has served as the host media coordinator for three NCAA Women's Basketball First- and Second-Round sites hosted by Louisiana Tech (2000, 2001 and 2003) while also serving as the host media coordinator for the 2008 WAC Baseball Championships and the 2013 WAC

Softball Championships hosted by Louisiana Tech.

In addition to his media relations responsibilities, Butler serves as the radio play-by-play voice for the nationally-prominent Louisiana Tech Lady Techster basketball team. Butler has broadcast more than 500 women's basketball games, including 15 NCAA Tournament games, during his 15 years behind the mic. He finished second in the Louisiana Sports Writers Association College Radio Play by Play category in 2013 and third place in 2015.

He has also broadcast in excess of 250 softball games, including four in the 2008 NCAA Tournament, and served as the color commentator on numerous Bulldog football and basketball broadcasts. He served as the sideline reporter for the Bulldog football broadcasts the past two seasons. Butler joins Dave Nitz as the co-hosts of Inside Tech Basketball, an hour-long coach's radio show during the winter.

Butler implemented a fundraising campaign for his department in the fall of 2007 and since that time it has raised over $45,000, which has been used to purchase additional equipment, software and other essentials within the media relations department.

He is a member of the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA), Louisiana Sports Writers Association (LSWA), United States Basketball Writers Association (USBWA) and Football Writers Association of America (FWAA). He is also a proxy voter for the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame committee.

Gilbert is responsible for the day-to-day business operations of the athletic department, including overseeing the individual budgets for 16 varsity sports, monitoring athletic funds of the Louisiana Tech Athletic Foundation, serving as liaison with the university's business offices and supervising the athletic ticket office.

She is part of a senior staff at LA Tech that was instrumental in the University's invitation to join Conference USA starting July 1. She has also been actively involved in numerous initiatives to enhance the athletics department, including signing new agreements with companies such as Learfield, the Aspire Group, Ticketmaster, A-G Administrators, Pepsi and ACS Athletics. She is the sports administrator for men's golf.

The hard work and vision of that same senior staff has led to numerous national awards, including the 2010 Turnkey PRISM Award - which recognizes colleges for managerial excellence across four areas: marketing/branding; fan development; community relations; and customer/client service.

The Tech Athletics Department has also finished in the Top 10 three times in the Excellence in Management Cup, which recognizes the most efficient athletic departments in the nation. Gilbert previously served as the budget manager for the College of Engineering for six years where she had similar duties. She was also in the College of Liberal Arts as the dean's assistant handling day-to-day business in the office while working with budget planning for the year.

In 2002, she received the Distinctive Professional Performance and Conduct Award from the Institute of Micro-manufacturing at Louisiana Tech.

Gilbert has earned two degrees from Louisiana Tech University and completed a master's certificate in technical writing.

She is a current member of the National Association of Collegiate Marketing Administrators (NACMA) and the College Athletic Business Management Association (CABMA). This is her second year to serve on the program planning committee for CABMA.

She is also actively involved in the American Cancer Society and serves as the chair for the Relay for Life Luminaria Service. She is on the Executive Committee for the ACS Relay for Life in Lincoln Parish.

Adam McGuirt enters his third year as the associate athletics director for internal operations after serving more than six years as the director of athletic advancement in the Division of University Advancement.

McGuirt's role includes the oversight of facilities, event management and all capital improvements within the athletic department. He assists in the scheduling, supervision and administration of all athletic facilities while also maintaining relationships with campus constituents, campus security, visiting groups and outside organizations.

He is also a member of Athletic Director Tommy McClelland's senior staff and serves as the sports supervisor for women's soccer.

During the past 16 months, one of his main responsibilities has been the oversight of the construction of the $22 million Davison Athletics Complex in the south end zone at Joe Aillet Stadium. Construction on the 70,000-plus square foot, three-story building began in April of 2014 and is scheduled to be operational by August, 2015.

McGuirt has also overseen the complete renovations of the women's basketball locker room since the hiring of new head coach Tyler Summitt. He is also managing multiple field upgrades at baseball, softball and soccer.

During his previous role in athletic advancement, McGuirt was responsible for all areas of athletic development, including donor relations and all aspects of the Louisiana Tech Athletic Club (LTAC).

McGuirt was instrumental in helping more than double the number of LTAC members which resulted in a large increase in private donations.

McGuirt also worked closely with the Louisiana Tech Alumni Association in the development and implementation of events for alumni and friends throughout the state of Louisiana and surrounding areas.

McGuirt has been a part of a staff at LA Tech that helped the University garner an invitation to join Conference USA, a membership which began July 1, 2013. That same staff has been instrumental in garnering a number of national awards, including the 2010 Turnkey PRISM Award - which recognizes colleges for managerial excellence across four areas: marketing/branding; fan development; community relations; and customer/client service.

The Tech Athletics Department also finished in the Top 10 three times in the Excellence in Management Cup, which recognizes the most efficient athletic departments in the nation. A native of Shreveport, McGuirt graduated from Louisiana Tech in 2003 with a bachelor's degree in business administration.

McGuirt is married to April, and the couple has three daughters: Lily, Sophie and Emily.

Nate Warren enters his second year with the Louisiana Tech Family as the assistant athletic director for development where he oversees the fundraising efforts for the athletic department.

His responsibilities at Louisiana Tech include identifying and securing private support with an emphasis on major gifts, cultivating and soliciting leadership giving societies, providing oversight for the Louisiana Tech Athletic Club, the Lettermen's Club and the Director of LTAC.

During his first year in Ruston, Warren was instrumental in coordinating the sales of the 302-seat club level in the Davison Athletics Complex which will generate more than $500,000 annually. The club level seats sold out more than three months prior to the completion of the project.

Warren was also a part of a fundraising team that saw $1,150,000 donated to the Louisiana Tech Athletic Club (LTAC) by more than 1,100 donors while a total of $1.5 million unrestricted dollars were donated. These surpassed the previous records of 1,055 donors as 215 individuals made their first ever gift to LTAC this past year. LTAC membership also increased by 17 percent and revenue increased by 30 percent.

A University of Tennessee and Kansas State alum, Warren comes to Ruston after serving as the assistant director for development at K-State for the past two-plus years.

During Warren's four-plus years at Kansas State which included two years as a graduate assistant, he helped oversee the Ahearn Fund which experienced unprecedented growth from 5,454 members and $12.7 million in gifts to athletics when he arrived to 9,143 members and $25.8 million in gifts to athletics in fiscal year 2012.

Much of the growth in the Ahearn Fund numbers was due to the increased focus on leadership annual giving of $10,000 and above, as well as increased focus in Kansas City, Kansas State's largest alumni base.

In his role as assistant director of development, he oversaw an active portfolio of over 150 Ahearn Fund members and prospects, primarily in Kansas City. In addition to his duties in Kansas City, he oversaw membership campaigns and special events, both in the Kansas City area and on campus for returning letter winners.

Warren was also actively involved in fund raising for the West Stadium Center, the largest capital project in Kansas State University history both through philanthropic capital gifts and premium seat construction gifts.

Warren earned his bachelor's degree from Tennessee in sports management in 2008 while he completed his master's degree in education administration and leadership from Kansas State in 2011.

Patrick Walsh joined the Louisiana Tech Media Relations Department in 2009 and serves as the associate media relations director. He is the primary contact for football, men's golf, men's and women's cross country and men's and women's track and field.

In his tenure at Louisiana Tech, Walsh has been responsible for the promotion of three national award winners (Ryan Allen, 2011 & 2012 Ray Guy Award; Colby Cameron, 2012 Sammy Baugh Award) as well as two other national award semifinalists (Colby Cameron, 2012 Davey O'Brien Award; Quinton Patton, 2012 Biletnikoff Award) .

Walsh is also credited with promoting the 2011 WAC Championship football team to a Poinsettia Bowl bid, highlighting the teams successes to various bowls as the Bulldogs became eligible for postseason play with a seven-game winning streak. He also promoted Tech's football team its the highest ranking in school history (18th - Associated Press; 19th - USA Today/Coaches; 20th - BCS) during the 2012 season.

He also promoted Chelsea Hayes to the 2012 Joe Kearney Award, given to the Western Athletic Conference's top athletes as Hayes became the first Louisiana Tech athlete to ever win that award. That season, Hayes went on to become the school's most decorated athlete with her sixth All-America honor and then promoted the long jumper as she qualified for Team USA, competing in the XXX Olympiad in London.

During the 2009-10 academic calendar year, Walsh promoted hurdler Antoinette Cobb for the Honda Inspiration Award as she set school and conference records after beating a case of colon cancer. Cobb became the first athlete from Louisiana and from the WAC to win that award.

Walsh came to Louisiana Tech from The Citadel, where he last served as the primary contact for baseball and cross country while serving as the secondary contact for football, as well as the webmaster for CitadelSports.com. He also oversaw game operations duties for The Citadel Baseball at Joseph P. Riley, Jr. Park.

At The Citadel, Walsh was involved with a trio of publications that were recognized on a national scale by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA), with his 2007 track and field media guide finishing 24th in the nation. Walsh was heavily involved with the 2008 football guide that finished eighth among Division I-FCS programs and the 2006 football guide that was 12th among I-AA teams.

A member of CoSIDA, Walsh also serves on the Publications Committee and was a judge for the 2007 women's golf media guide publications contest.

Walsh arrived at The Citadel following a seven-month stint as the Sports Information Assistant at Newberry College in Newberry, S.C., a NCAA Division II member of the South Atlantic Conference. At Newberry, Walsh was responsible for media relations and game operations for Indians baseball, cross country, tennis and volleyball, as well as being the assistant contact for men's basketball.

Walsh was also in charge of marketing and promotions for several Newberry sports. His work helped lead Newberry Volleyball to a NCAA Division II top 20 ranking in attendance. In addition to those duties, Walsh was also the play-by-play announcer for Newberry volleyball and baseball radio broadcasts.

Walsh is a 2005 graduate of the University of South Carolina where he majored in Sport and Entertainment Management and was a member of the South Carolina Honors College. At USC, he was a student assistant in the Sports Information office where he worked with several Gamecock sports and was the public address announcer for South Carolina Baseball at Sarge Frye Field.

While at South Carolina, he was recognized by the College Sports Information Directors Association (CoSIDA) for his work on the 2003 South Carolina Track and Field Media Guide, which was named second in the nation, and for the 2002 South Carolina Volleyball Media Guide which placed first in the region.

Walsh, born in Oxford, Ohio, currently resides in Ruston.
